AN ACT providing for the creation of a temporary state commission to determine the future governance of the canal corporation; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. A temporary state commission, to be known as the commission on the future governance of the canal corporation, hereinafter referred to as the commission, is hereby created to examine, evaluate and determine the appropriate governance of the canal corporation, as defined in section 382 of the public authorities law.

S 2. The commission shall consist of thirteen members to be appointed as follows: seven members to be appointed by the governor; two members to be appointed by the temporary president of the senate; two members to be appointed by the speaker of the assembly; one member to be appointed by the minority leader of the senate; and one to be appointed by the minority leader of the assembly. A commissioner shall be appointed by the governor from among his appointees. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointments.

S 3. The members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be allowed their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties hereunder. To the maximum extent feasible, the commission shall be entitled to request and receive and shall utilize and be provided with such facilities, resources, and data of any court, department, division, board, bureau, commission, or agency of the state or any political subdivision thereof as it deems necessary or desirable to carry out properly its powers and duties hereunder.

S 4. The commission may employ and at pleasure remove such personnel as it may deem necessary for the performance of its functions and fix their compensation within the amounts made available therefor.

S 5. The commission shall meet within the state, shall hold public hearings, and shall have all the powers of a legislative committee pursuant to the legislative law.

S 6. The commission shall submit its findings and recommendations for the governance of the canal corporation in a report to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, and the speaker of the assembly not later than one year after it first convenes.

S 7. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after it shall have become a law; provided, however, that effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized and directed to be made and completed on or before such date and provided, further, that this act shall remain in effect until one hundred twenty days after the commission submits the report required by section six of this act, at which time this act shall expire and be deemed repealed.
