permit such patient to do so, in order that the proceeds may be deposited to the credit of such patient in accordance with the provisions of this section.

- (B) Whenever, under the provisions of this section, the commissioner shall authorize the director of a facility in the department to receive moneys or other personal property excluding jewelry belonging to a patient which are on deposit in any bank or other institution or which are due to the person from any person or agency, such bank, institution, person, or agency shall, upon the written request of the director, forthwith turn over to such director from such moneys or personal property the amount or value hereinbefore specified. Any moneys received by the director of such facility shall be deposited by him in such bank or trust company as shall be designated by the comptroller, except that the commissioner may, in his discretion, invest so much thereof as he may deem advisable in bonds issued by the United States government or any of its agencies.
- (C) Moneys belonging to a patient received by the director of such facility pursuant to law shall be received by him in his official capacity as such director and such receipt shall be deemed an exercise or performance by him of a power and duty duly conferred by this section.
- S 2. Section 33.07 of the mental hygiene law, subdivision (c) as amended and subdivision (e) as added by chapter 709 of the laws of 1986, such section as renumbered by chapter 978 of the laws of 1977, is amended to read as follows:
- S 33.07 Care and custody of the personal property of patients.
- (a) A patient's right to retain his personal belongings upon admission to a MENTAL HYGIENE facility shall be respected. The director, subject to the regulations of the commissioner, may take temporary custody of the patient's personal property upon the person of the patient. Personal property which is retained for the patient's protection shall be used for the support and benefit of the patient if deemed desirable. Otherwise, it is to be conserved for his benefit. If a patient is transferred to another facility, his personal belongings shall be transferred with him. Gifts received by a patient in a facility shall be handled in the same manner.
- (b) The director of a [department] MENTAL HYGIENE facility shall have the power to take temporary and immediate custody of the personal property of a patient which is in the possession of other persons upon giving a receipt therefor to the person having possession thereof.
- (c) Any interest on money received and held for a patient shall be the property of the individual patient and shall not accrue for the general welfare of all patients in a facility.
- [(e)] (D) A mental hygiene facility which is a representative payee for a patient pursuant to designation by the social security administration or which assumes management responsibility over the funds of a patient, shall maintain such funds in a fiduciary capacity to the patient. The commissioners of mental health and mental retardation and developmental disabilities shall develop standards regarding the management of patient funds.
- (E) THE COMMISSIONER MAY AUTHORIZE DIRECTORS OF MENTAL HYGIENE FACILITIES, ON BEHALF OF A PATIENT, TO GIVE RECEIPTS AND EXECUTE RELEASES AND OTHER DOCUMENTS REQUIRED BY LAW OR COURT ORDER.
 - S 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
