2 has as its primary purpose the furnishing of legal services to indigent 3 persons, or by private counsel working on behalf of or under the 4 auspices of such society or organization, and, in the case of a counsel 5 assigned to an adult party, that the party continues to be indigent, the 6 party or child shall be presumed eligible for poor person relief pursu-7 ant to this section.

8 S 2. Section 75-f of the domestic relations law, as added by chapter
9 386 of the laws of 2001, is amended to read as follows:

10 S 75-f. Priority. If a question of existence or exercise of jurisdic-11 tion under this article is raised in a child custody proceeding, the 12 question, upon request of a party, child or [law guardian] CHILD'S 13 ATTORNEY must be given priority on the calendar and handled expeditious-14 ly.

15 S 3. Subdivision 1 of section 76-f of the domestic relations law, as 16 added by chapter 386 of the laws of 2001, is amended to read as follows:

17 1. A court of this state which has jurisdiction under this article to 18 make a child custody determination may decline to exercise its jurisdic-19 tion at any time if it determines that it is an inconvenient forum under 20 the circumstances and that a court of another state is a more appropri-21 ate forum. The issue of inconvenient forum may be raised upon motion of 22 a party, the child or the [law guardian] CHILD'S ATTORNEY, or upon the 23 court's own motion, or request of another court.

24 S 4. Subdivisions 2 and 4 of section 112-b of the domestic relations 25 law, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 437 of the laws of 2006 and 26 subdivision 4 as added by section 63 of part A of chapter 3 of the laws 27 of 2005, are amended to read as follows:

28 2. Agreements regarding communication or contact between an adoptive 29 child, adoptive parent or parents, and a birth parent or parents and/or 30 biological siblings or half-siblings of an adoptive child shall not be 31 legally enforceable unless the terms of the agreement are incorporated 32 into a written court order entered in accordance with the provisions of 33 this section. The court shall not incorporate an agreement regarding 34 communication or contact into an order unless the terms and conditions 35 of the agreement have been set forth in writing and consented to in 36 writing by the parties to the agreement, including the [law guardian]
37 ATTORNEY representing the adoptive child. The court shall not enter a 38 proposed order unless the court that approved the surrender of the child 39 determined and stated in its order that the communication with or 40 contact between the adoptive child, the prospective adoptive parent or 41 parents and a birth parent or parents and/or biological siblings or 42 half-siblings, as agreed upon and as set forth in the agreement, would 43 be in the adoptive child's best interests. Notwithstanding any other 44 provision of law, a copy of the order entered pursuant to this section 45 incorporating the post-adoption contact agreement shall be given to all 46 parties who have agreed to the terms and conditions of such order.

47 4. An order incorporating an agreement regarding communication or 48 contact entered under this section may be enforced by any party to the 49 agreement or the [law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD by filing a peti-50 tion in the family court in the county where the adoption was approved.
51 Such petition shall have annexed to it a copy of the order approving the 52 agreement regarding communication or contact. The court shall not 53 enforce an order under this section unless it finds that the enforcement 54 is in the child's best interests.

1 S 5. Clauses (B) and (C) of subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of 2 subdivision 3 of section 113 of the domestic relations law, as amended 3 by chapter 185 of the laws of 2006, are amended to read as follows:

4 (B) If the court determines that the child is under the jurisdiction
5 of a different family court, the court in which the adoption petition 6 was filed shall stay its proceeding for not more than thirty days and 7 shall communicate with the family court judge who exercised jurisdiction 8 over the most recent permanency or other proceeding involving the child.
9 The communication shall be recorded or summarized on the record by the 10 court in which the adoption petition was filed. Both courts shall notify 11 the parties and [law guardian] THE ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD, if any, in 12 their respective proceedings and shall give them an opportunity to pres-13 ent facts and legal argument or to participate in the communication 14 prior to the issuance of a decision on jurisdiction.

15 (C) The family court judge who exercised jurisdiction over the most 16 recent permanency or other proceeding involving the child shall deter-17 mine whether he or she should assume or decline jurisdiction over the 18 adoption proceeding. In making its determination, the family court judge 19 shall consider, among other factors: the relative familiarity of each 20 court with the facts and circumstances regarding permanency planning 21 for, and the needs and best interests of, the child; the ability of the 22 [law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD to continue [to represent the 23 child] SUCH REPRESENTATION in the adoption proceeding, if appropriate; 24 the convenience of each court to the residence of the prospective adop-25 tive parent or parents; and the relative ability of each court to hear 26 and determine the adoption petition expeditiously. The court in which 27 the adoption petition was filed shall issue an order incorporating this 28 determination of jurisdiction within thirty days of the filing of the 29 adoption petition.

30 S 6. Subparagraph (i) of paragraph (d) of subdivision 6 of section 31 115-b of the domestic relations law, as amended by chapter 817 of the 32 laws of 1986, is amended to read as follows:

33 (i) The court shall promptly notify, in writing, the parent, the adop-
34 tive parents, their respective attorneys, and the [law guardian] ATTOR-
35 NEY FOR THE CHILD appointed pursuant to section two hundred forty-nine 36 of the family court act or a guardian ad litem appointed pursuant to 37 section four hundred three-a of the surrogate's court procedure act, 38 that the court will, upon the date specified in such notice by the 39 court, or as soon thereafter as the parties may be heard pursuant to 40 this paragraph, hear and determine whether revocation of the consent of 41 the parent was timely and properly given and whether the adoptive 42 parent's notice of intent to oppose such revocation was timely and prop-43 erly given and if necessary, hear and determine what disposition should 44 be made with respect to the custody of the child.

45 S 7. Subparagraph 2 of paragraph (a-1) of subdivision 1 of section 240 46 of the domestic relations law, as added by chapter 595 of the laws of 47 2008, is amended to read as follows:

48 (2) Notifying counsel and issuing orders. Upon consideration of deci-49 sions pursuant to article ten of the family court act, and registry 50 reports and notifying counsel involved in the proceeding, or in the 51 event of a party appearing pro se, notifying such party of the results 52 thereof, including any court appointed [law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE 53 CHILD, the court may issue a temporary, successive temporary or final 54 order of custody or visitation.

1 S 8. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 1-c of section 240 of the domestic 2 relations law, as amended by chapter 378 of the laws of 1999, is amended 3 to read as follows:

4 (c) For the purpose of making a determination pursuant to clause (C) 5 of subparagraph (i) of paragraph (b) of this subdivision, the court 6 shall not be bound by the findings of fact, conclusions of law or ulti-7 mate conclusion as determined by the proceedings leading to the 8 conviction of murder in the first or second degree in this state or of 9 an offense in another jurisdiction which, if committed in this state, 10 would constitute murder in either the first or second degree, of a 11 parent, legal guardian, legal custodian, sibling, half-sibling or step-12 sibling of a child who is the subject of the proceeding. In all 13 proceedings under this section, [a law guardian] AN ATTORNEY shall be 14 appointed for the child.

15 S 9. Subdivision 1 of section 254 of the domestic relations law, as 16 added by chapter 236 of the laws of 2001, is amended to read as follows:

17 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in any proceeding for 18 custody, divorce, separation or annulment, whether or not an order of 19 protection or temporary order of protection is sought or has been sought 20 in the past, the court may, upon its own motion or upon the motion of 21 any party or the [law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD, authorize any 22 party or the child to keep his or her address confidential from any 23 adverse party or the child, as appropriate, in any pleadings or other 24 papers submitted to the court, where the court finds that the disclosure 25 of the address or other identifying information would pose an unreason-26 able risk to the health or safety of a party or the child. Pending such 27 a finding, any address or other identifying information of the child or 28 party seeking confidentiality shall be safeguarded and sealed in order 29 to prevent its inadvertent or unauthorized use or disclosure.

30 S 10. Subdivision 6 of section 503 of the executive law, as amended by 31 chapter 465 of the laws of 1992, is amended to read as follows:

32 6. The division shall be responsible for bringing violations of law 33 pertaining to detention of juveniles to the attention of each appropri-34 ate [law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD or counsel for the defendant 35 who may petition for habeas corpus for persons aggrieved thereby.

36 S 11. Subdivision 4 of section 508 of the executive law, as added by 37 chapter 481 of the laws of 1978 and such section as renumbered by chap-38 ter 465 of the laws of 1992, is amended to read as follows:

39 4. The division for youth may apply to the sentencing court for 40 permission to transfer a youth not less than sixteen nor more than eigh-41 teen years of age to the department of correctional services. Such 42 application shall be made upon notice to the youth, who shall be enti-43 tled to be heard upon the application and to be represented by counsel 44 [or law guardian]. The court shall grant the application if it is 45 satisfied that there is no substantial likelihood that the youth will 46 benefit from the programs offered by the division facilities.

47 S 12. Subdivision 7 of section 35 of the judiciary law, as added by 48 chapter 571 of the laws of 1989, is amended to read as follows:

49 7. Whenever the supreme court or a surrogate's court shall appoint 50 counsel in a proceeding over which the family court might have exercised 51 jurisdiction had such action or proceeding been commenced in family 52 court or referred thereto pursuant to law, and under circumstances 53 whereby, if such proceeding were pending in family court, such court 54 would be authorized by section two hundred forty-nine of the family 55 court act to appoint [a law guardian] AN ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD, such

1 counsel shall be compensated in accordance with the provisions of this 2 section.

3 S 13. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of section 35-a of the judiciary 4 law, as amended by chapter 834 of the laws of 1975, is amended to read 5 as follows:

6 (b) Paragraph (a) shall not apply to any compensation awarded to 7 appointees assigned to represent indigent persons pursuant to Article 8 18-B of the county law, counsel assigned pursuant to section thirty-five 9 of the judiciary law, [law guardians or] counsel appointed pursuant to 10 the family court act[, or referees appointed pursuant to section 78.25 11 of the mental hygiene law].

12 S 14. Subdivision (c) of section 154 of the family court act, as added 13 by chapter 441 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:

14 (c) In a proceeding arising under article four, five, six, eight or 15 ten of this act in which an order of protection is sought or in which a 16 violation of an order of protection is alleged, the court may send proc-17 ess without the state in the same manner and with the same effect as 18 process sent within the state in the exercise of personal jurisdiction
19 over any person, subject to the jurisdiction of the court under section 20 three hundred one or three hundred two of the civil practice law and 21 rules, notwithstanding that such person is not a resident or domiciliary 22 of the state, so long as: (1) the act or acts giving rise to the appli-23 cation for issuance or enforcement of the order of protection occurred 24 within the state; and (2) the applicant for the order of protection 25 resides or is domiciled in the state or has substantial contacts in the 26 state, including but not limited to, presence on a regular basis in the 27 state. Upon good cause shown, the court may issue a temporary order of 28 protection in accordance with article four, five, six, eight or ten of 29 this act. Where personal jurisdiction over a non-resident or non-domici-30 liary respondent would not be obtainable but for this subdivision, the 31 papers to be served shall include a conspicuous notice that the exercise 32 of such jurisdiction is limited to the issue of the order of protection.
33 Where service of a petition and summons upon a non-resident or non-domi-34 ciliary respondent is required, such service shall be made at least 35 twenty days before the return date. Where service is effected on an 36 out-of-state respondent and the respondent defaults by failing to 37 appear, the court may on its own motion, or upon application of any 38 party or the [law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD, proceed to a hearing 39 with respect to issuance or enforcement of the order of protection.
40 Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect or alter the exer-41 cise of personal jurisdiction with respect to issues other than the 42 order of protection.

43 S 15. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 154-b of the family 44 court act, as amended by chapter 236 of the laws of 2001, is amended to 45 read as follows:

46 (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in any proceeding 47 under article four, five, five-b, six, eight or ten of this act, whether 48 or not an order of protection or temporary order of protection is sought 49 or has been sought in the past, the court may, upon its own motion or 50 upon the motion of any party or the [law guardian] CHILD'S ATTORNEY, 51 authorize any party or the child to keep his or her address confidential 52 from any adverse party or the child, as appropriate, in any pleadings or 53 other papers submitted to the court, where the court finds that disclo-54 sure of such address or other identifying information would pose an 55 unreasonable risk to the health or safety of a party or the child. Pend-56 ing such a finding, any address or other identifying information of the

1 child or party seeking confidentiality shall be safeguarded and sealed 2 in order to prevent its inadvertent or unauthorized use or disclosure.

3 S 16. Subdivision 2 of section 154-c of the family court act, as added
4 by chapter 186 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

5 2. Modifications of orders of protection. Except as provided in subdi-6 vision two of section one hundred fifty-four-d of this act, any motion 7 to vacate or modify any order of protection or temporary order of 8 protection issued under this act shall be on notice to the non-moving 9 party and the [law guardian] CHILD'S ATTORNEY, if any.

10 S 17. The article heading and the part heading of part 4 of article 2 11 and section 241 of the family court act, section 241 as amended by chap-12 ter 476 of the laws of 1988, are amended to read as follows:

13 ADMINISTRATION, MEDICAL EXAMINATIONS, [LAW GUARDIANS]
14 ATTORNEYS FOR CHILDREN,
15 AUXILIARY SERVICES

16 [Law guardians] ATTORNEYS FOR CHILDREN

17 S 241. Findings and purpose. This act declares that minors who are the 18 subject of family court proceedings or appeals in proceedings originat-19 ing in the family court should be represented by counsel of their own 20 choosing or by [law guardians] ASSIGNED COUNSEL. This declaration is 21 based on a finding that counsel is often indispensable to a practical 22 realization of due process of law and may be helpful in making reasoned 23 determinations of fact and proper orders of disposition. This part 24 establishes a system of [law guardians] ATTORNEYS for [minors] CHILDREN 25 who often require the assistance of counsel to help protect their inter-26 ests and to help them express their wishes to the court. Nothing in this 27 act is intended to preclude any other interested person from appearing 28 by counsel.

29 S 18. Section 242 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 962
30 of the laws of 1970, is amended to read as follows:

31 S 242. [Law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD. As used in this act, 32 "[law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD" refers to an attorney admitted 33 to practice law in the state of New York and designated under this part 34 to represent minors pursuant to section two hundred [and] forty-nine of 35 this act.

37 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:

38 S 243. Designation. (a) The office of court administration may enter 39 into an agreement with a legal aid society for the society to provide 40 [law guardians for] ATTORNEYS TO REPRESENT CHILDREN IN the family court 41 or appeals in proceedings originating in the family court in a county 42 having a legal aid society.

43 (b) The appellate division of the supreme court for the judicial 44 department in which a county is located may, upon determining that a 45 county panel designated pursuant to subdivision (c) of this section is 46 not sufficient to afford appropriate [law guardian services] SERVICES OF 47 ATTORNEYS FOR CHILDREN, enter into an agreement, subject to regulations 48 as may be promulgated by the administrative board of the courts, with 49 any qualified attorney or attorneys to serve as [law guardian or as law 50 guardians] ATTORNEYS FOR CHILDREN for the family court or appeals in 51 proceedings originating in the family court in that county.

52 (c) The appellate division of the supreme court for the judicial 53 department in which a county is located may designate a panel of [law 54 guardians] ATTORNEYS FOR CHILDREN for the family court and appeals in 55 proceedings originating in the family court in that county, subject to 56 the approval of the administrative board of the courts. For this

1 purpose, it may invite a bar association to recommend qualified persons 2 for consideration by the [said] appellate division in making its desig-3 nation, subject to standards as may be promulgated by such administra-4 tive board.

5 S 20. Subdivision (b) of section 244 of the family court act, as 6 added by chapter 833 of the laws of 1974, is amended to read as follows:

7 (b) No designations pursuant to subdivision (c) of [such] section two 8 hundred forty-three may be for a term of more than one year, but succes-
9 sive designations may be made. The appellate division proceeding pursu-10 ant to [such] subdivision (c) OF SECTION TWO HUNDRED FORTY-THREE, may at 11 any time increase or decrease the number of [law guardians] ATTORNEYS 12 FOR CHILDREN designated in any county and may rescind any designation at 13 any time, subject to the approval of the office of court administration.

15 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:

16 S 245. Compensation. (a) If the office of court administration 17 proceeds pursuant to subdivision (a) of section two hundred forty-three 18 of this chapter, the agreement shall provide that the society shall be 19 reimbursed on a cost basis for services rendered under the agreement.
20 The agreement shall contain a general plan for the organization and 21 operation of the [providing] PROGRAM FOR THE PROVISION of [law guardi-22 ans] ATTORNEYS FOR CHILDREN by the respective legal aid society, 23 approved by the [said] administrative board, and the office of court 24 administration may require such reports as it deems necessary from the 25 society.

26 (b) If an appellate division proceeds pursuant to subdivision (b) of 27 such section two hundred forty-three, the agreement may provide that the 28 attorney or attorneys shall be reimbursed on a cost basis for services 29 rendered under the agreement. The agreement shall contain a general plan 30 for the organization and operation of the [providing] PROGRAM FOR THE 31 PROVISION of [law guardians] ATTORNEYS FOR CHILDREN by the respective 32 attorney or attorneys, and the appellate division may require such 33 reports as it deems necessary from the attorney or attorneys.

34 (c) If an appellate division proceeds pursuant to subdivision (c) of 35 such section two hundred forty-three, [law guardians] ATTORNEYS FOR 36 CHILDREN shall be compensated and allowed expenses and disbursements in 37 the same amounts established by subdivision three of section thirty-five 38 of the judiciary law.

40 of the laws of 1974, is amended to read as follows:

41 S 248. Appropriations. The costs of [law guardians] ATTORNEYS FOR 42 CHILDREN under section two hundred forty-five shall be payable by the 43 state of New York within the amounts appropriated therefor.

44 S 23. Section 249 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 76 of 45 the laws of 2002, subdivision (a) as amended by section 2 of part A of 46 chapter 3 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:

47 S 249. Appointment of [law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR CHILD. (a) In a 48 proceeding under article three, seven, ten or ten-A of this act or where 49 a revocation of an adoption consent is opposed under section one hundred 50 fifteen-b of the domestic relations law or in any proceeding under 51 section three hundred fifty-eight-a, three hundred eighty-three-c, three 52 hundred eighty-four or three hundred eighty-four-b of the social 53 services law or when a minor is sought to be placed in protective custo-54 dy under section one hundred fifty-eight of this act, the family court 55 shall appoint [a law guardian] AN ATTORNEY to represent a minor who is 56 the subject of the proceeding or who is sought to be placed in protec-

1 tive custody, if independent legal representation is not available to 2 such minor. In any proceeding to extend or continue the placement of a 3 juvenile delinquent or person in need of supervision pursuant to section 4 seven hundred fifty-six or 353.3 of this act or any proceeding to extend 5 or continue a commitment to the custody of the commissioner of mental 6 health or the commissioner of mental retardation and developmental disa-7 bilities pursuant to section 322.2 of this act, the court shall not 8 permit the respondent to waive the right to be represented by counsel 9 chosen by the respondent, respondent's parent, or other person legally 10 responsible for the respondent's care, or by [a law guardian] ASSIGNED 11 COUNSEL. In any other proceeding in which the court has jurisdiction, 12 the court may appoint [a law guardian] AN ATTORNEY to represent the 13 child, when, in the opinion of the family court judge, such represen-14 tation will serve the purposes of this act, if independent legal counsel 15 is not available to the child. The family court on its own motion may 16 make such appointment.

17 (b) In making an appointment of [a law guardian] AN ATTORNEY FOR A 18 CHILD pursuant to this section, the court shall, to the extent practica-19 ble and appropriate, appoint the same [law guardian] ATTORNEY who has 20 previously represented the child. Notwithstanding any other provision 21 of law, in a proceeding under article three OF THIS ACT following an 22 order of removal made pursuant to article seven hundred twenty-five of 23 the criminal procedure law, the court shall, wherever practicable, 24 appoint the SAME counsel [representing] WHO REPRESENTED the juvenile 25 offender in the criminal proceedings [as law guardian].

26 S 24. Section 249-a of the family court act, as added by chapter 513
27 of the laws of 1978, is amended to read as follows:

28 S 249-a. Waiver of counsel. A minor who is a subject of a juvenile 29 delinquency or person in need of supervision proceeding shall be 30 presumed to lack the requisite knowledge and maturity to waive the 31 appointment of [a law guardian] AN ATTORNEY. This presumption may be 32 rebutted only after [a law guardian] AN ATTORNEY has been appointed and 33 the court determines after a hearing at which the [law guardian] ATTOR-34 NEY appears and participates and upon clear and convincing evidence that 35 (a) the minor understands the nature of the charges, the possible dispo-36 sitional alternatives and the possible defenses to the charges, (b) the 37 minor possesses the maturity, knowledge and intelligence necessary to 38 conduct his OR HER own defense, and (c) waiver is in the best interest 39 of the minor.

40 S 25. Section 249-b of the family court act, as added by chapter 626
41 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

42 S 249-b. Rules of court. The chief administrator of the courts, pursu-43 ant to paragraph (e) of subdivision two of section two hundred twelve of 44 the judiciary law, shall promulgate court rules prescribing workload 45 standards for attorneys for children, including maximum numbers of chil-46 dren who can be represented at any given time, in order to ensure that 47 children receive effective assistance of counsel comporting with legal 48 and ethical mandates, the complexity of the proceedings affecting each 49 client to which the [law guardian] ATTORNEY is assigned, and the nature 50 of the court appearance likely to be required for each individual 51 client. Appointments of attorneys for children under section two 52 hundred forty-nine of this part shall be in conformity with the rules.

54 amended by chapter 296 of the laws of 1993, is amended to read as 55 follows:

1 (b) Except for examinations conducted pursuant to section 322.1 of 2 this act where the family court determines that an inpatient examination 3 is necessary, or those ordered after a fact-finding hearing has been 4 completed under article three or seven of this act and the court deter-5 mines according to the criteria in subdivision three of section 320.5 or 6 subdivision (a) of section seven hundred thirty-nine of this act that 7 the child should be detained pending disposition, or unless otherwise 8 consented to by the adult to be examined or by the [law guardian] ATTOR-
9 NEY representing the respondent, all examinations pursuant to this 10 section shall be conducted on an outpatient basis. An order for remand 11 after a fact-finding hearing under article three or seven of this act

21 follows:

22 1. Upon the receipt of examination reports ordered under section

28 hearing at least five days prior to the date thereof and afforded an

30 (a) If the court finds that there is probable cause to believe that 31 the respondent committed a felony, it shall order the respondent commit-32 ted to the custody of the commissioner of mental health or the commis-33 sioner of mental retardation and developmental disabilities for an 34 initial period not to exceed one year from the date of such order. Such 35 period may be extended annually upon further application to the court by 36 the commissioner having custody or his OR HER designee. Such application 37 must be made not more than sixty days prior to the expiration of such 38 period on forms that have been prescribed by the chief administrator of 39 the courts. At that time, the commissioner must give written notice of 40 the application to the respondent, the counsel [or law guardian] repres-41 enting the respondent and the mental hygiene legal service if the 42 respondent is at a residential facility. Upon receipt of such applica-

45 vision, the court finds that the respondent is no longer incapacitated, 46 he OR SHE shall be returned to the family court for further proceedings 47 pursuant to this article. If the court is satisfied that the respondent

55 (d) The commissioner shall review the condition of the respondent

6 be heard. The commissioner having custody shall apply to the court for 7 an order dismissing the petition whenever he OR SHE determines that 8 there is a substantial probability that the respondent will continue to 9 be incapacitated for the foreseeable future. At the time of such appli-10 cation the commissioner must give written notice of THE application to 11 the respondent, the presentment agency and the mental hygiene legal 12 service if the respondent is at a residential facility. Upon receipt of 13 such application, the court may on its own motion conduct a hearing to 14 determine whether there is substantial probability that the respondent 15 will continue to be incapacitated for the foreseeable future, and it 16 must conduct such hearing if a demand therefor is made by the respondent 17 or the mental hygiene legal service within ten days from the date that 18 notice of THE application was given to them. The respondent may apply to 27 ent or his OR HER attorney [or law guardian] and file with the court, 28 the bill of particulars, except to the extent the presentment agency 29 shall have refused to comply with the request pursuant to subdivision 30 four of this section. If the respondent is detained, the court shall 31 direct the filing of the bill of particulars on an expedited basis and 32 prior to the commencement of the fact-finding hearing.

33 3. Timeliness of request. A request for a bill of particulars shall be 34 timely if made within thirty days after the conclusion of the initial 35 appearance and before commencement of the fact-finding hearing. If the 36 respondent is not represented by counsel [or a law guardian], and has 37 requested an adjournment to retain counsel or to have [a law guardian] 38 COUNSEL appointed, the thirty-day period shall commence, for the 39 purposes of a request for a bill of particulars by the respondent, on 40 the date counsel [or a law guardian] initially appeared on respondent's 41 behalf. However, the court may direct compliance with a request for a 42 bill of particulars that, for good cause shown, could not have been made 43 within the time specified.

44 (b) An order limiting, conditioning, delaying or regulating the bill 45 of particulars may, among other things, require that any material copied 46 or derived therefrom be maintained in the exclusive possession of the 6 the initial appearance and before commencement of the fact-finding hear-7 ing, or within such additional times as the court may fix upon applica-8 tion of the respondent made prior to entering a finding pursuant to 9 section 345.1. If the respondent is not represented by counsel [or a law 10 guardian] and has requested an adjournment to retain counsel or to have 11 [a law guardian] COUNSEL appointed, such thirty-day period shall 12 commence on the date counsel [or a law guardian] initially appears on

29 from the courtroom if, after he OR SHE is warned by the court that he OR 30 SHE will be removed, he OR SHE continues such disorderly and disruptive 31 conduct. Such time shall not extend beyond the minimum period necessary 32 to restore order.

33 3. The respondent's parent or other person responsible for his OR HER 34 care shall be present at any hearing under this article and at the 35 initial appearance. However, the court shall not be prevented from 36 proceeding by the absence of such parent or person if reasonable and 37 substantial effort has been made to notify such parent or other person 38 and if the respondent and his [law guardian] or HER counsel are present.

48 follows:

49 (b) Reports prepared by the probation service for use by the court at 50 any time prior to the making of an order of disposition shall be deemed 51 confidential information furnished to the court which the court in a 52 proper case may, in its discretion, withhold from or disclose in whole 53 or in part to the [law guardian] CHILD'S ATTORNEY, counsel, party in 54 interest, or other appropriate person. Such reports may not be furnished 55 to the court prior to the completion of a fact-finding hearing, but may 56 be used in a dispositional hearing.

1 S 51. Section 1016 of the family court act, as added by chapter 319 of 2 the laws of 1990, the second undesignated paragraph as amended by 3 section 9 of part A of chapter 3 of the laws of 2005, the fourth undes-4 ignated paragraph as added by chapter 560 of the laws of 1990, is 5 amended to read as follows:

6 S 1016. Appointment of [law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD. The 7 court shall appoint [a law guardian] AN ATTORNEY to represent a child 8 who has been allegedly abused or neglected upon the earliest occurrence 9 of any of the following: (i) the court receiving notice, pursuant to 10 paragraph (iv) of subdivision (b) of section [ten hundred] ONE THOUSAND 11 twenty-four of this act, of the emergency removal of the child; (ii) an 12 application for an order for removal of the child prior to the filing of 13 a petition, pursuant to section one thousand twenty-two of this act; or 14 (iii) the filing of a petition alleging abuse or neglect pursuant to 15 this article.

16 Whenever [a law guardian] AN ATTORNEY has been appointed by the family 17 court pursuant to section two hundred forty-nine of this act to repre-18 sent a child in a proceeding under this article, such appointment shall 19 continue without further court order or appointment during (i) an order 20 of disposition issued by the court pursuant to section one thousand 21 fifty-two of this article directing supervision, protection or suspend-22 ing judgment, or any extension thereof; (ii) an adjournment in contem-23 plation of dismissal as provided for in section one thousand thirty-nine 24 of this article or any extension thereof; or (iii) the pendency of the 25 foster care placement ordered pursuant to section one thousand fifty-two 26 of this article. All notices and reports required by law shall be 27 provided to such [law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD. Such appoint-28 ment shall terminate upon the expiration of such order, unless another 29 appointment of [a law guardian] AN ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD has been made 30 by the court or unless such [law guardian] ATTORNEY makes application to 31 the court to be relieved of his or her appointment. Upon approval of 32 such application to be relieved, the court shall immediately appoint 33 another [law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD to whom all notices and 34 reports required by law shall be provided.

35 [A law guardian] THE ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD shall be entitled to 36 compensation pursuant to applicable provisions of law for services 37 rendered up to and including disposition of the petition. The [law guar-38 dian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD shall, by separate application, be entitled 39 to compensation for services rendered subsequent to the disposition of 40 the petition.

41 Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the authority of 42 the court to remove [a law guardian] THE ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD from his 43 or her assignment.

44 S 52. Paragraphs (ii) and (iii) of subdivision (a) of section 1027 of 45 the family court act, as amended by section 15 of part A of chapter 3 of 46 the laws of 2005, are amended to read as follows:

47 (ii) In any such case where the child has been removed, any person 48 originating a proceeding under this article shall, or the [law guardian]
49 ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD may apply for, or the court on its own motion may 50 order, a hearing at any time after the petition is filed to determine 51 whether the child's interests require protection pending a final order 52 of disposition. Such hearing must be scheduled for no later than the 53 next court day after the application for such hearing has been made.

54 (iii) In any case under this article in which a child has not been 55 removed from his or her parent or other person legally responsible, any 56 person originating a proceeding under this article or the [law guardian]

1 ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD may apply for, or the court on its own motion may 2 order, a hearing at any time after the petition is filed to determine 3 whether the child's interests require protection, including whether the 4 child should be removed from his or her parent or other person legally 5 responsible, pending a final order of disposition. Such hearing must be 6 scheduled for no later than the next court day after the application for 7 such hearing has been made.

8 S 53. Subdivision (a) of section 1028 of the family court act, as
10 follows:

11 (a) Upon the application of the parent or other person legally respon-12 sible for the care of a child temporarily removed under this part or 13 upon the application of the [law guardian] CHILD'S ATTORNEY for an order 14 returning the child, the court shall hold a hearing to determine whether 15 the child should be returned (i) unless there has been a hearing pursu-16 ant to section [ten hundred] ONE THOUSAND twenty-seven of this article 17 on the removal of the child at which the parent or other person legally 18 responsible was present and had the opportunity to be represented by 19 counsel, or (ii) upon good cause shown. Except for good cause shown, 20 such hearing shall be held within three court days of the application 21 and shall not be adjourned. Upon such hearing, the court shall grant the 22 application, unless it finds that the return presents an imminent risk 23 to the child's life or health. If a parent or other person legally 24 responsible for the care of a child waives his or her right to a hearing 25 under this section, the court shall advise such person at that time 26 that, notwithstanding such waiver, an application under this section may 27 be made at any time during the pendency of the proceedings.

30 follows:

31 (a) The family court, upon the application of any person who may orig-32 inate a proceeding under this article, for good cause shown, may issue a 33 temporary order of protection, before or after the filing of such peti-34 tion, which may contain any of the provisions authorized on the making 35 of an order of protection under section [ten hundred] ONE THOUSAND 36 fifty-six. If such order is granted before the filing of a petition and 37 a petition is not filed under this article within ten days from the 38 granting of such order, the order shall be vacated. In any case where a 39 petition has been filed and [a law guardian] AN ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD 40 HAS BEEN appointed, such [law guardian] ATTORNEY may make application 41 for a temporary order of protection pursuant to the provisions of this 42 section.

43 S 55. Subdivisions (b) and (d) of section 1030 of the family court 44 act, as added by chapter 457 of the laws of 1988, are amended to read as 45 follows:

46 (b) A respondent who has not been afforded such visitation may apply 47 to the court for an order requiring the local social services official 48 having temporary custody of the child pursuant to this part or pursuant 49 to subdivision (d) of section one thousand fifty-one of this article, to 50 permit the respondent to visit the child at stated periods. Such appli-51 cation shall be made upon notice to the local social services official 52 and to any [law guardian] ATTORNEY appointed to represent the child, who 53 shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard thereon.

54 (d) An order made under this section may be modified by the court for 55 good cause shown, upon application by any party or the child's [law 56 guardian] ATTORNEY, and upon notice of such application to all other

1 parties and the child's [law guardian] ATTORNEY, who shall be afforded 2 an opportunity to be heard thereon.

4 court act, as amended by chapter 75 of the laws of 1991, is amended to 5 read as follows:

6 (a) At the initial appearance, the court shall appoint [a law guardi-7 an] AN ATTORNEY to represent the interests of any child named in a peti-8 tion who is alleged to be abused or neglected, unless [a law guardian] 9 AN ATTORNEY has already been appointed for such child pursuant to 10 section [ten hundred] ONE THOUSAND sixteen of this act.

11 S 57. Subdivision (c) of section 1036 of the family court act, as
13 follows:

14 (c) In cases involving either abuse or neglect, the court may send 15 process without the state in the same manner and with the same effect as 16 process sent within the state in the exercise of personal jurisdiction
17 over any person subject to the jurisdiction of the court under section 18 three hundred one or three hundred two of the civil practice law and 19 rules, notwithstanding that such person is not a resident or domiciliary 20 of the state, where the allegedly abused or neglected child resides or 21 is domiciled within the state and the alleged abuse or neglect occurred 22 within the state. In cases involving abuse where service of a petition 23 and summons upon a non-resident or non-domiciliary respondent is 24 required, such service shall be made within ten days after its issuance.
25 If service can not be effected in ten days, an extension of the period 26 to effect service may be granted by the court for good cause shown upon 27 application of any party or the [law guardian] CHILD'S ATTORNEY. Where 28 service is effected on an out of state respondent and the respondent 29 defaults by failing to appear to answer the petition, the court may on 30 its own motion, or upon application of any party or the [law guardian]
31 CHILD'S ATTORNEY proceed to a fact finding hearing thereon.

32 S 58. Subdivisions (b) and (c) of section 1038 of the family court 33 act, subdivision (b) as added by chapter 724 of the laws of 1989, subdi-34 vision (c) as amended by chapter 65 of the laws of 1992, are amended to 35 read as follows:

36 (b) Pursuant to a demand [pursuant to section thirty-one] MADE UNDER 37 RULE THREE THOUSAND ONE hundred twenty of the civil practice law and 38 rules, a petitioner or social services official shall provide to a 39 respondent or the [law guardian] CHILD'S ATTORNEY any records, photo-40 graphs or other evidence demanded relevant to the proceeding, for 41 inspection and photocopying. The petitioner or social services official 42 may delete the identity of the persons who filed reports pursuant to 43 section four hundred fifteen of the social services law, unless such 44 petitioner or official intends to offer such reports into evidence at a 45 hearing held pursuant to this article. The petitioner or social services 46 official may move for a protective order to withhold records, photo-47 graphs or evidence which will not be offered into evidence and the 48 disclosure of which is likely to endanger the life or health of the 49 child.

50 (c) A respondent or the [law guardian] CHILD'S ATTORNEY may move for 51 an order directing that any child who is the subject of a proceeding 52 under this article be made available for examination by a physician, 53 psychologist or social worker selected by such party or [law guardian] 54 THE CHILD'S ATTORNEY. In determining the motion, the court shall 55 consider the need of the respondent or [law guardian] CHILD'S ATTORNEY 56 for such examination to assist in the preparation of the case and the

1 potential harm to the child from the examination. Nothing in this 2 section shall preclude the parties from agreeing upon a person to 3 conduct such examination without court order.

4 Any examination or interview, other than a physical examination, of a 5 child who is the subject of a proceeding under this article, for the 6 purposes of offering expert testimony to a court regarding the sexual 7 abuse of the child, as such term is defined by section one thousand 8 twelve of this article, may, in the discretion of the court, be vide-9 otaped in its entirety with access to be provided to the court, the [law 10 guardian] CHILD'S ATTORNEY and all parties. In determining whether such 11 examination or interview should be videotaped, the court shall consider 12 the effect of the videotaping on the reliability of the examination, the 13 effect of the videotaping on the child and the needs of the parties, 14 including the [law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD, for the videotape.
15 Prior to admitting a videotape of an examination or interview into 16 evidence, the person conducting such examination or the person operating 17 the video camera shall submit to the court a verified statement confirm-18 ing that such videotape is a complete and unaltered videographic record 19 of such examination of the child. The proponent of entry of the vide-20 otape into evidence must establish that the potential prejudicial effect 21 is substantially outweighed by the probative value of the videotape in 22 assessing the reliability of the validator in court. Nothing in this 23 section shall in any way affect the admissibility of such evidence in 24 any other court proceeding. The chief administrator of the courts shall 25 promulgate regulations protecting the confidentiality and security of 26 such tapes, and regulating the access thereto, consistent with the 27 provisions of this section.

28 S 59. Section 1038-a of the family court act, as amended by chapter
29 162 of the laws of 1991, is amended to read as follows:

30 S 1038-a. Discovery; upon court order. Upon motion of a petitioner or 31 [law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD, the court may order a respondent 32 to provide nontestimonial evidence, only if the court finds probable 33 cause that the evidence is reasonably related to establishing the alle-34 gations in a petition filed pursuant to this article. Such order may 35 include, but not be limited to, provision for the taking of samples of 36 blood, urine, hair or other materials from the respondent's body in a 37 manner not involving an unreasonable intrusion or risk of serious phys-38 ical injury to the respondent.

39 S 60. Subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d) and (e) of section 1039 of the 40 family court act, subdivision (a) as amended by chapter 601 of the laws 41 of 1985, subdivision (b) as amended by chapter 707 of the laws of 1975, 42 subdivision (c) as amended by chapter 323 of the laws of 1990, subdivi-43 sion (d) as amended by chapter 167 of the laws of 1990, and subdivi-44 sion (e) as amended by chapter 194 of the laws of 1990, are amended to read 45 as follows:

46 (a) Prior to or upon a fact-finding hearing, the court may upon a 47 motion by the petitioner with the consent of the respondent and the 48 child's attorney [or law guardian] or upon its own motion with the 49 consent of the petitioner, the respondent and the child's attorney [or 50 law guardian], order that the proceeding be "adjourned in contemplation 51 of dismissal". Under no circumstances shall the court order any party to 52 consent to an order under this section. The court may make such order 53 only after it has apprised the respondent of the provisions of this 54 section and it is satisfied that the respondent understands the effect 55 of such provisions.

1 (b) An adjournment in contemplation of dismissal is an adjournment of 2 the proceeding for a period not to exceed one year with a view to ulti-3 mate dismissal of the petition in furtherance of justice. Upon the 4 consent of the petitioner, the respondent and the child's attorney [or 5 law guardian], the court may issue an order extending such period for 6 such time and upon such conditions as may be agreeable to the parties.

7 (c) Such order may include terms and conditions agreeable to the 8 parties and to the court, provided that such terms and conditions shall 9 include a requirement that the child and the respondent be under the 10 supervision of a child protective agency during the adjournment period.
11 In any order issued pursuant to this section, such agency shall be 12 directed to make a progress report to the court, the parties and the 13 child's [law guardian] ATTORNEY on the implementation of such order, no 14 later than ninety days after the issuance of such order, unless the 15 court determines that the facts and circumstances of the case do not 16 require such reports to be made. The child protective agency shall make 17 further reports to the court, the parties and the [law guardian] CHILD'S 18 ATTORNEY in such manner and at such times as the court may direct.

19 (d) Upon application of the respondent, the petitioner, the child's 20 attorney [or law guardian] or upon the court's own motion, made at any 21 time during the duration of the order, if the child protective agency 22 has failed substantially to provide the respondent with adequate super-23 vision or to observe the terms and conditions of the order, the court 24 may direct the child protective agency to observe such terms and condi-25 tions and provide adequate supervision or may make any order authorized 26 pursuant to section two hundred fifty-five of this act.

27 (e) Upon application of the petitioner or the child's attorney [or law 28 guardian,] or upon the court's own motion, made at any time during the 29 duration of the order, the court may restore the matter to the calendar, 30 if the court finds after a hearing that the respondent has failed 31 substantially to observe the terms and conditions of the order or to 32 cooperate with the supervising child protective agency. In such event, 33 unless the parties consent to an order pursuant to section one thousand 34 fifty-one of this act or unless the petition is dismissed upon the 35 consent of the petitioner, the court shall thereupon proceed to a fact-36 finding hearing under this article no later than sixty days after such 37 application unless such period is extended by the court for good cause 38 shown.

39 S 61. Section 1039-a of the family court act, as amended by chapter 69
40 of the laws of 1991, is amended to read as follows:

41 S 1039-a. Procedures following adjournment in contemplation of 42 dismissal. The local child protective service shall notify the child's 43 [law guardian] ATTORNEY of an indicated report of child abuse or 44 maltreatment in which the respondent is a subject of the report or 45 another person named in the report, as such terms are defined in section 46 four hundred twelve of the social services law, while any order issued 47 pursuant to section [ten hundred] ONE THOUSAND thirty-nine or extension 48 thereof remains in effect.

49 S 62. Section 1042 of the family court act, as amended by section 4 of 50 part B of chapter 3 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:

51 S 1042. Effect of absence of parent or other person responsible for 52 care. If the parent or other person legally responsible for the child's 53 care is not present, the court may proceed to hear a petition under this 54 article only if the child is represented by counsel[, a law guardian,] 55 or a guardian ad litem. The parent or other person legally responsible 56 for the child's care shall be served with a copy of the order of dispo-

1 sition with written notice of its entry pursuant to section one thousand 2 thirty-six of this article. Within one year of such service or substi-
3 tuted service pursuant to section one thousand thirty-six of this arti-4 cle, the parent or other person legally responsible for the child's care 5 may move to vacate the order of disposition and schedule a rehearing.
6 Such motion shall be granted on an affidavit showing such relationship 7 or responsibility and a meritorious defense to the petition, unless the 8 court finds that the parent or other person willfully refused to appear 9 at the hearing, in which case the court may deny the motion.

12 follows:

13 (b) At the conclusion of a fact-finding hearing and after the court 14 has made findings required before a dispositional hearing may commence, 15 the court may on its own motion or motion of the respondent, the peti-
16 tioner or the [law guardian] CHILD'S ATTORNEY order a reasonable 17 adjournment of the proceedings[,] to enable the court to make inquiry 18 into the surroundings, conditions[,] and capacities of the persons 19 involved in the proceedings.

22 follows:

23 (a) If facts sufficient to sustain the petition are established in 24 accord with part four of this article, or if all parties and the [law 25 guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD consent, the court shall, subject to 26 the provisions of subdivision (c) of this section, enter an order find-27 ing that the child is an abused child or a neglected child and shall 28 state the grounds for the finding.

30 of the laws of 1991, is amended to read as follows:

31 S 1052-a. Post-dispositional procedures. The local child protective 32 service shall notify the child's [law guardian] ATTORNEY of an indicated 33 report of child abuse or maltreatment in which the respondent is a 34 subject of the report or another person named in the report, as such 35 terms are defined in section four hundred twelve of the social services 36 law, while any order issued pursuant to paragraph (i), (iii), (iv) or 37 (v) of subdivision (a) of section [ten hundred] ONE THOUSAND fifty-two 38 remains in effect against the respondent.

40 added by chapter 323 of the laws of 1990, is amended to read as follows:

41 (c) Except as provided for herein, in any order issued pursuant to 42 this section, the court may require the child protective agency to make 43 progress reports to the court, the parties, and the child's [law guardi-44 an] ATTORNEY on the implementation of such order. Where the order of 45 disposition is issued upon the consent of the parties and the child's 46 [law guardian] ATTORNEY, such agency shall report to the court, the 47 parties and the child's [law guardian] ATTORNEY no later than ninety 48 days after the issuance of the order, unless the court determines that 49 the facts and circumstances of the case do not require such report to be 50 made.

51 S 67. Subdivision (a) of section 1054 of the family court act, as 52 separately amended by chapters 206 and 323 of the laws of 1990, is 53 amended to read as follows:

54 (a) If the order of disposition releases the child to the custody of 55 his OR HER parent or other person legally responsible for his OR HER 56 care at the time of the filing of the petition, the court may place the

1 person to whose custody the child is released under supervision of a 2 child protective agency or of a social services official or duly author-3 ized agency, or may enter an order of protection under section [ten 4 hundred] ONE THOUSAND fifty-six, or both. An order of supervision 5 entered under this section shall set forth the terms and conditions of 6 such supervision that the respondent must meet and the actions that the 7 child protective agency, social services official or duly authorized 8 agency must take to exercise such supervision. Except as provided for 9 herein, in any order issued pursuant to this section, the court may 10 require the child protective agency to make progress reports to the 11 court, the parties, and the child's [law guardian] ATTORNEY on the 12 implementation of such order. Where the order of disposition is issued 13 upon the consent of the parties and the child's [law guardian] ATTORNEY, 14 such agency shall report to the court, the parties and the child's [law 15 guardian] ATTORNEY no later than ninety days after the issuance of the 16 order, unless the court determines that the facts and circumstances of 17 the case do not require such report to be made.

18 S 68. Subparagraph (E) of paragraph (i) of subdivision (b) of section 19 1055 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 437 of the laws of 20 2006, is amended to read as follows:

21 (E) where the permanency goal is return to the parent and it is antic-22 ipated that the child may be finally discharged to his or her parent 23 before the next scheduled permanency hearing, the court may provide the 24 local social services district with authority to finally discharge the 25 child to the parent without further court hearing, provided that ten 26 days prior written notice is served upon the court and [law guardian]
27 CHILD'S ATTORNEY. If the court on its own motion or the [law guardian] 28 CHILD'S ATTORNEY on motion to the court does not request the matter to 29 be brought for review before final discharge, no further permanency 30 hearings will be required. The local social services district may also 31 discharge the child on a trial basis to the parent unless the court has 32 prohibited such trial discharge or unless the court has conditioned such 33 trial discharge on another event. For the purposes of this section, 34 trial discharge shall mean that the child is physically returned to the 35 parent while the child remains in the care and custody of the local 36 social services district. Permanency hearings shall continue to be held 37 for any child who has returned to his or her parents on a trial
38 discharge. Where the permanency goal for a child aging out of foster 39 care is another planned permanent living arrangement that includes a 40 significant connection to an adult willing to be a permanency resource 41 for the child, the local social services district may also discharge the 42 child on a trial basis to the planned permanent living arrangements, 43 unless the court has prohibited or otherwise conditioned such a trial 44 discharge. Trial discharge for a child aging out of foster care shall 45 mean that a child is physically discharged but the local social services 46 district retains care and custody or custody and guardianship of the 47 child and there remains a date certain for the scheduled permanency 48 hearing. Children placed under this section shall be placed until the 49 court completes the initial permanency hearing scheduled pursuant to 50 article ten-A of this act. Should the court determine pursuant to arti-
51 cle ten-A of this act that placement shall be extended beyond completion 52 of the scheduled permanency hearing, such extended placement and any 53 such successive extensions of placement shall expire at the completion 54 of the next scheduled permanency hearing, unless the court shall deter-55 mine, pursuant to article ten-A of this act, to continue to extend such 56 placement.

1 S 69. Subdivisions (a) and (c) of section 1055-a of the family court
2 act, as added by section 19 of part A of chapter 3 of the laws of 2005, 3 are amended to read as follows:

4 (a) In case of a substantial failure of a material condition in a 5 surrender executed pursuant to section three hundred eighty-three-c of 6 the social services law prior to finalization of the adoption of the 7 child, the court shall possess continuing jurisdiction in accordance 8 with subdivision six of such section to rehear the matter upon the 9 filing of a petition by the authorized agency, the parent or the [law 10 guardian] ATTORNEY for the child or whenever the court deems necessary.
11 In such case, the authorized agency shall notify the parent, unless such 12 notice is expressly waived by a statement written by the parent and 13 appended to or included in such instrument, the [law guardian] ATTORNEY 14 for the child and the court that approved the surrender within twenty 15 days of any substantial failure to comply with a material condition of 16 the surrender prior to the finalization of the adoption of the child. In 17 such case, the authorized agency shall file a petition on notice to the 18 parent unless notice is expressly waived by a statement written by the 19 parent and appended to or included in such instrument and the [law guar-20 dian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD in accordance with this section within 21 thirty days of such failure, except for good cause shown, in order for 22 the court to review such failure and, where necessary, to hold a hear-23 ing; provided, however, that in the absence of such filing, the parent 24 and/or [law guardian] ATTORNEY for the child may file such a petition at 25 any time up to sixty days after notification of the failure. Such peti-
26 tion filed by a parent or [law guardian] CHILD'S ATTORNEY must be filed 27 prior to the adoption of the child.

28 (c) Nothing in this section shall limit the rights and remedies avail-
29 able to the parties and the [law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD pursu-30 ant to section one hundred twelve-b of the domestic relations law with 31 respect to a failure to comply with a material condition of a surrender

28 trial basis to the parent unless the court has prohibited such trial 29 discharge or unless the court has conditioned such trial discharge on 30 another event. For the purposes of this section, trial discharge shall 31 mean that the child is physically returned to the parent while the child 32 remains in the care and custody of the local social services district.

43 care and custody or custody and guardianship of the child and there 44 remains a date certain for the scheduled permanency hearing.

45 (G) Except as provided for herein, in any order issued pursuant to 46 this section, the court may require the local social services district

2 the relative or suitable person is in the best interests of the child.

3 (c) As part of the order granting custody or guardianship to the rela-4 tive or suitable person pursuant to article six of this act, the court 5 may require that the local department of social services and the [law 6 guardian] ATTORNEY for the child receive notice of and be made parties 7 to any subsequent proceeding to modify the order of custody or guardian-

1 (6) Representation. In any case where a hearing is directed by the 2 family court judge, he [may, in his discretion,] OR SHE SHALL, PURSUANT 3 TO SECTION TWO HUNDRED FORTY-NINE OF THE FAMILY COURT ACT, appoint [a 4 law guardian] AN ATTORNEY to represent the child, who shall be [an 5 attorney] admitted to practice law in the state of New York.

6 (b) Where a social services official or the [law guardian of] ATTORNEY 7 FOR the child[, if any,] opposes incorporation of an order, judgment or 8 agreement conferring visitation rights as provided for in paragraph (e) 9 of subdivision two of section three hundred eighty-four-a of this chap-10 ter, the social services official or [law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE 11 CHILD shall apply for an order determining that the provisions of such 12 order, judgment or agreement should not be incorporated into the instru-13 ment executed pursuant to such section. Such order shall be granted upon 14 a finding, based on competent, relevant and material evidence, that the 15 child's life or health would be endangered by incorporation and enforce-16 ment of visitation rights as described in such order, judgment or agree-17 ment. Otherwise, the court shall deny such application.

18 (c) Where visitation rights pursuant to an order, judgment or agree-19 ment are incorporated in an instrument, the parties may agree to an 20 alternative schedule of visitation equivalent to and consistent with the 21 original or modified visitation order, judgment, or agreement where such 22 alternative schedule reflects changed circumstances of the parties and 23 is consistent with the best interests of the child. In the absence of 24 such an agreement between the parties, the court may, in its discretion, 25 upon application of any party or the child's [law guardian] ATTORNEY, 26 order an alternative schedule of visitation, as described herein, where 27 it determines that such schedule is necessary to facilitate visitation 28 and to protect the best interests of the child.

29 S 93. Subdivision 3 of section 372 of the social services law, as 30 amended by chapter 394 of the laws of 1993, is amended to read as 31 follows:

32 3. Such records maintained by the department or an authorized agency, 33 including a local social services district, regarding such children are 34 confidential, provided, however, that such records are subject to the 35 provisions of article thirty-one of the civil practice law and rules.
36 When either the subject foster child, or such child's parent, or such 37 child's guardian if any, is not a party to the action, a copy of the 38 notice or motion for discovery shall be served upon such parent, guardi-39 an, and child and, if the child is still a minor, the child's [law guar-40 dian] ATTORNEY. Such persons may thereafter appear in the action with 41 regard to such discovery. Where no action is pending, upon application 42 by a parent, relative or legal guardian of such child or by an author-43 ized agency, after due notice to the institution or authorized agency 44 affected and hearing had thereon, the supreme court may by order direct 45 the officers of such institution or authorized agency to furnish to such 46 parent, relative, legal guardian or authorized agency such extracts from 47 the record relating to such child as the court may deem proper. The 48 department through its authorized agents and employees may examine at 49 all reasonable times the records required by this section to be kept.

50 S 94. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 and subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of 51 paragraph (c) of subdivision 5 of section 383-c of the social services 52 law, paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 as added by section 41 and subpara-53 graph (ii) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 5 as amended by section 43 of 54 part A of chapter 3 of the laws of 2005, and subparagraph (i) of para-55 graph (c) of subdivision 5 as amended by chapter 76 of the laws of 2002, 56 are amended to read as follows:

1 (b) If a surrender instrument designates a particular person or 2 persons who will adopt a child, such person or persons, the child's 3 birth parent or parents, the authorized agency having care and custody
4 of the child and the child's [law guardian] ATTORNEY, may enter into a 5 written agreement providing for communication or contact between the 6 child and the child's parent or parents on such terms and conditions as 7 may be agreed to by the parties. If a surrender instrument does not 8 designate a particular person or persons who will adopt the child, then 9 the child's birth parent or parents, the authorized agency having care 10 and custody of the child and the child's [law guardian] ATTORNEY may 11 enter into a written agreement providing for communication or contact, 12 on such terms and conditions as may be agreed to by the parties. Such 13 agreement also may provide terms and conditions for communication with 14 or contact between the child and the child's biological siblings or 15 half-siblings, if any. If any such sibling or half-sibling is fourteen 16 years of age or older, such terms and conditions shall not be enforcea-17 ble unless such sibling or half-sibling consents to the agreement in 18 writing. If the court before which the surrender instrument is presented 19 for approval determines that the agreement concerning communication and 20 contact is in the child's best interests, the court shall approve the 21 agreement. If the court does not approve the agreement, the court may 22 nonetheless approve the surrender; provided, however, that the birth 23 parent or parents executing the surrender instrument shall be given the 24 opportunity at that time to withdraw such instrument. Enforcement of any 25 agreement prior to the adoption of the child shall be in accordance with 26 subdivision (b) of section one thousand fifty-five-a of the family court 27 act. Subsequent to the adoption of the child, enforcement of any agree-28 ment shall be in accordance with section one hundred twelve-b of the 29 domestic relations law.

30 (i) the authorized agency shall notify the parent, unless such notice 31 is expressly waived by a statement written by the parent and appended to 32 or included in such instrument, the [law guardian] ATTORNEY for the 33 child and the court that approved the surrender within twenty days of 34 any substantial failure of a material condition of the surrender prior 35 to the finalization of the adoption of the child; and

37 petition on notice to the parent unless notice is expressly waived by a 38 statement written by the parent and appended to or included in such 39 instrument and [law guardian] THE CHILD'S ATTORNEY in accordance with 40 section one thousand fifty-five-a of the family court act within thirty 41 days of such failure, in order for the court to review such failure and,
42 where necessary, to hold a hearing; provided, however, that, in the 43 absence of such filing, the parent and/or [law guardian] ATTORNEY for 44 the child may file such a petition at any time up to sixty days after 45 notification of the failure. Such petition filed by a parent or [law
46 guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD must be filed prior to the CHILD'S 47 adoption [of the child]; and

48 S 95. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 and subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of 49 the closing paragraph of subdivision 3 of section 384 of the social 50 services law, paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 as added by section 48 and 51 subparagraph (ii) of the closing paragraph of subdivision 3 as amended 52 by section 49 of part A of chapter 3 of the laws of 2005, and subpara-53 graph (i) of the closing paragraph of subdivision 3 as added by chapter 54 76 of the laws of 2002, are amended to read as follows:

55 (b) If a surrender instrument designates a particular person or 56 persons who will adopt a child, such person or persons, the child's

1 birth parent or parents, the authorized agency having care and custody
2 of the child and the child's [law guardian] ATTORNEY, may enter into a
3 written agreement providing for communication or contact between the 4 child and the child's parent or parents on such terms and conditions as 5 may be agreed to by the parties.

6 If a surrender instrument does not designate a particular person or 7 persons who will adopt the child, then the child's birth parent or 8 parents, the authorized agency having care and custody of the child and 9 the child's [law guardian] ATTORNEY may enter into a written agreement 10 providing for communication or contact, on such terms and conditions as 11 may be agreed to by the parties. Such agreement also may provide terms 12 and conditions for communication with or contact between the child and 13 the child's biological sibling or half-sibling, if any. If any such 14 sibling or half-sibling is fourteen years of age or older, such terms 15 and conditions shall not be enforceable unless such sibling or half-si-16 bling consents to the agreement in writing. If the court before which 17 the surrender instrument is presented for approval determines that the 18 agreement concerning communication and contact is in the child's best 19 interests, the court shall approve the agreement. If the court does not 20 approve the agreement, the court may nonetheless approve the surrender; 21 provided, however, that the birth parent or parents executing the 22 surrender instrument shall be given the opportunity at that time to 23 withdraw such instrument. Enforcement of any agreement prior to the 24 adoption of the child shall be in accordance with subdivision (b) of 25 section one thousand fifty-five-a of the family court act. Subsequent to 26 the adoption of the child, enforcement of any agreement shall be in 27 accordance with section one hundred twelve-b of the domestic relations 28 law.

29 (i) the authorized agency shall notify the parent, unless such notice 30 is expressly waived by a statement written by the parent and appended to 31 or included in such instrument, the [law guardian] ATTORNEY for the 32 child and the court that approved the surrender within twenty days of 33 any substantial failure of a material condition of the surrender prior

36 petition on notice to the parent unless notice is expressly waived by a 37 statement written by the parent and appended to or included in such 38 instrument and [law guardian] THE CHILD'S ATTORNEY in accordance with 39 section one thousand fifty-five-a of the family court act within thirty 40 days of such failure, in order for the court to review such failure and,
41 where necessary, to hold a hearing; provided, however, that, in the 42 absence of such filing, the parent and/or [law guardian] ATTORNEY for 43 the child may file such a petition at any time up to sixty days after 44 notification of such failure. Such petition filed by a parent or [law
45 guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD must be filed prior to the CHILD'S 46 adoption [of the child]; and

47 S 96. Paragraph (f) of subdivision 2 of section 384-a of the social 48 services law, as added by chapter 457 of the laws of 1988, is amended to 49 read as follows:

50 (f) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit a social 51 services official or [a law guardian of] AN ATTORNEY FOR the child, if 52 any, from making an application to modify the terms of a visitation 53 order, incorporated pursuant to this section, for good cause shown, upon 54 notice to all interested parties, or to limit the right of a non-custo-55 dial parent or grandparent to seek visitation pursuant to applicable 56 provisions of law.

1 S 97. Paragraphs (b), (c) and (c-1) and subparagraph (iv) of paragraph 2 (1) of subdivision 3 of section 384-b of the social services law, para-3 graph (b) as amended by section 55 of part A of chapter 3 of the laws of 4 2005, paragraph (c) as amended and paragraph (c-1) as added by chapter 5 185 of the laws of 2006, subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (1) as added by 6 chapter 7 of the laws of 1999, are amended to read as follows:

7 (b) A proceeding under this section may be originated by an authorized 8 agency or by a foster parent authorized to do so pursuant to section one 9 thousand eighty-nine of the family court act or by a relative with care 10 and custody of the child or, if an authorized agency ordered by the 11 court to originate a proceeding under this section fails to do so within 12 the time fixed by the court, by [a law guardian] THE CHILD'S ATTORNEY or 13 guardian ad litem [of the child] on the court's direction.

14 (c) Where a child was placed or continued in foster care pursuant to 15 article ten or ten-A of the family court act or section three hundred 16 fifty-eight-a of this chapter, a proceeding under this section shall be 17 originated in the family court in the county in which the proceeding 18 pursuant to article ten or ten-A of the family court act or section 19 three hundred fifty-eight-a of this chapter was last heard and shall be 20 assigned, wherever practicable, to the judge who last heard such 21 proceeding. Where multiple proceedings are commenced under this section 22 concerning a child and one or more siblings or half-siblings of such 23 child, placed or continued in foster care with the same commissioner 24 pursuant to section one thousand fifty-five or one thousand eighty-nine 25 of the family court act, all of such proceedings may be commenced joint-26 ly in the family court in any county which last heard a proceeding under 27 article ten or ten-A of the family court act regarding any of the chil-28 dren who are the subjects of the proceedings under this section. In such 29 instances, the case shall be assigned, wherever practicable, to the 30 judge who last presided over such proceeding. In any other case, a 31 proceeding under this section, including a proceeding brought in the 32 surrogate's court, shall be originated in the county where either of the 33 parents of the child reside at the time of the filing of the petition, 34 if known, or, if such residence is not known, in the county in which the 35 authorized agency has an office for the regular conduct of business or 36 in which the child resides at the time of the initiation of the proceed-37 ing. To the extent possible, the court shall, when appointing [a law
38 guardian] AN ATTORNEY for the child, appoint [a law guardian] AN ATTOR-39 NEY who has previously represented the child.

40 (c-1) Before hearing a petition under this section, the court in which 41 the termination of parental rights petition has been filed shall ascer-42 tain whether the child is under the jurisdiction of a family court 43 pursuant to a placement in a child protective or foster care proceeding 44 or continuation in out-of-home care pursuant to a permanency hearing 45 and, if so, which court exercised jurisdiction over the most recent 46 proceeding. If the court determines that the child is under the juris-47 diction of a different family court, the court in which the termination 48 of parental rights petition was filed shall stay its proceeding for not 49 more than thirty days and shall communicate with the court that exer-
50 cised jurisdiction over the most recent proceeding. The communication 51 shall be recorded or summarized on the record by the court in which the 52 termination of parental rights petition was filed. Both courts shall 53 notify the parties and [law guardian] CHILD'S ATTORNEY, if any, in their 54 respective proceedings and shall give them an opportunity to present 55 facts and legal argument or to participate in the communication prior to 56 the issuance of a decision on jurisdiction. The court that exercised

1 jurisdiction over the most recent proceeding shall determine whether it 2 will accept or decline jurisdiction over the termination of parental 3 rights petition. This determination of jurisdiction shall be incorpo-4 rated into an order regarding jurisdiction that shall be issued by the 5 court in which the termination of parental rights petition was filed 6 within thirty days of such filing. If the court that exercised jurisdic-7 tion over the most recent proceeding determines that it should exercise 8 jurisdiction over the termination of parental rights petition, the order 9 shall require that the petition shall be transferred to that court 10 forthwith but in no event more than thirty-five days after the filing of 11 the petition. The petition shall be assigned, wherever practicable, to 12 the judge who heard the most recent proceeding. If the court that exer-13 cised jurisdiction over the most recent proceeding declines to exercise 14 jurisdiction over the adoption petition, the court in which the termi-15 nation of parental rights petition was filed shall issue an order incor-16 porating that determination and shall proceed forthwith.

17 (iv) In the event that the social services official or authorized 18 agency having care and custody of the child fails to file a petition to 19 terminate parental rights within sixty days of the time required by this 20 section, or within ninety days of a court direction to file a proceeding 21 not otherwise required by this section, such proceeding may be filed by 22 the foster parent of the child without further court order or by the 23 [law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR THE CHILD on the direction of the court. In 24 the event of such filing the social services official or authorized 25 agency having care and custody of the child shall be served with notice 26 of the proceeding and shall join the petition.

27 S 98. Subdivision 4 of section 409-e of the social services law, as 28 amended by chapter 725 of the laws of 1992, is amended to read as 29 follows:

30 4. In accordance with regulations of the department, relevant portions 31 of the assessment of the child and family circumstances, including but 32 not limited to the material described in paragraph (d) of subdivision 33 one of this section, and a complete copy of the family service plan, 34 established pursuant to subdivisions one and two, respectively, of this 35 section shall be given to the child's parent or guardian, counsel for 36 such parent or guardian, and the child's [law guardian] ATTORNEY, if 37 any, within ten days of preparation of any such plan.

38 S 99. Subdivision 1 of section 409-f of the social services law, as 39 amended by chapter 725 of the laws of 1992 and as designated by chapter
40 653 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:

41 1. With respect to each child described in subdivision one of section 42 four hundred nine-e of this title, the social services district shall 43 establish and maintain a uniform case record, consisting of the assess-44 ment, the family service plan, descriptions of care, maintenance or 45 services provided to such child and family and the dates provided, 46 essential data relating to the identification and history of such child 47 and family, all official documents and records of any judicial or admin-48 istrative proceedings relating to the district's contact with the child 49 and family, and such other records as the department may by regulation 50 require to adequately review case management by the districts. The 51 department shall by regulation specify the format and contents of the 52 uniform case record. Such regulation shall be developed [with the 53 participation of the child welfare standards advisory council estab-54 lished pursuant to section four hundred nine-h of this chapter and] in 55 consultation with public and voluntary authorized agencies, citizens' 56 groups and concerned individuals and organizations, including the state

1 council on children and families. The uniform case record shall be main-2 tained by the district in a manner consistent with the confidential 3 nature of such records and shall be made available in accordance with 4 applicable provisions of law. When a hearing has been requested in 5 accordance with section twenty-two of this chapter, a copy of the 6 portions of the record relevant to the hearing shall also be made avail-7 able to the child's parent or guardian, counsel for the parent or guard-8 ian, and, if participating in the hearing, the child's [law guardian] 9 ATTORNEY.

10 S 100. Subparagraphs (r) and (t) of paragraph (A) of subdivision 4 of 11 section 422 of the social services law, as amended by chapter 12 of the 12 laws of 1996, are amended to read as follows:

13 (r) in relation to a report involving a child in residential care, the 14 director or operator of the residential facility or program and, as 15 appropriate, the local social services commissioner or school district 16 placing the child, the division for youth, the department of education, 17 the commission on quality of care for the mentally disabled, the office 18 of mental health, the office of mental retardation and developmental 19 disabilities, and any [law guardian] ATTORNEY appointed to represent the 20 child whose appointment has been continued by a family court judge 21 during the term of the placement, subject to the limitations contained 22 in subdivisions nine and ten of this section and subdivision five of 23 section four hundred twenty-four-c of this title;

24 (t) [a law guardian] AN ATTORNEY FOR A CHILD, appointed pursuant to 25 the provisions of section [ten hundred] ONE THOUSAND sixteen of the 26 family court act, at any time such appointment is in effect, in relation 27 to any report in which the respondent in the proceeding in which the 28 [law guardian] ATTORNEY FOR A CHILD has been appointed is the subject or 29 another person named in the report, pursuant to sections [ten hundred] 30 ONE THOUSAND thirty-nine-a and [ten hundred] ONE THOUSAND fifty-two-a of 31 the family court act;

32 S 101. This act shall take effect immediately.
