5 have become a law, provided, chapter 61 of the laws of 2007 shall not 6 take effect with respect to the issuance of licenses or certificates
7 under this article by the secretary of state or department of state
8 until January 1, 2008 and regulation under this article by the commis-9 sioners of licenses of the political subdivisions of the state shall 10 continue through December 31, 2007, and shall remain in full force and 11 effect only until and including [June 1, 2009] MAY 15, 2010 when such 12 act shall be repealed and when, notwithstanding any other provision of 13 law, the provisions of article 25 of title G of the arts and cultural 14 affairs law, repealed by such act, shall be reinstituted. Provided, 15 however, the printing on tickets required pursuant to sections 25.07 and 16 25.08 of article 25 of the arts and cultural affairs law, as added by 17 this act, shall not apply to tickets printed prior to enactment of such

32 event; the harm to the public that results from the practice of ticket 33 speculation, if any, by persons that have access to tickets before the 34 time of initial sale to the general public or at any other time; a 35 comparison of the availability and cost of tickets in the state with 36 that of other states where price caps in the secondary market are in 37 effect; the need for better enforcement of existing penalties or the 38 need for greater penalties for violations of this section; the impact of 39 the use of computer programs and auto-dialing phone systems on the 40 general availability of tickets and the impact of such programs and 41 systems on the ability to purchase blocks of tickets; the feasibility of 42 effective enforcement of ticket selling and re-selling by in-state and 43 out-of-state ticket sellers and re-sellers; the public benefit and the 44 public cost of an unregulated secondary market; the public benefit and 45 usefulness of publishing the average price of tickets for an event after 46 the event takes place; and the economic impact of the current law on the 47 state.
