delivery, or recovering after giving birth. Any such personnel as may be necessary to supervise the woman during transport to and from and during stay at the hospital, institution or clinic shall be provided to ensure adequate care, custody and control of the woman. The superinten-5 dent or sheriff or his or her designee shall cause such woman to be 6 subject to return to such institution or local correctional facility as 7 soon after the birth of her child as the state of her health will permit 8 as determined by the medical professional responsible for the care of 9 such woman. If such woman is confined in a local correctional facility, 10 the expense of such accommodation, maintenance and medical care shall be paid by such woman or her relatives or from any available funds of the 11 local correctional facility and if not available from such sources, 12 shall be a charge upon the county, city or town in which is located the 13 14 court from which such inmate was committed to such local correctional 15 facility. Ιf such woman is confined in any institution under the 16 control of the department, the expense of such accommodation, mainte-17 nance and medical care shall be paid by such woman or her relatives and 18 if not available from such sources, such maintenance and medical care 19 shall be paid by the state. In cases where payment of such accommodations, maintenance and medical care is assumed by the county, city or 20 town from which such inmate was committed the payor shall make payment 21 by issuing payment instrument in favor of the agency or individual that 23 provided such accommodations and services, after certification has been 24 made by the head of the institution to which the inmate was legally 25 confined, that charges for such accommodations, maintenance and the 26 medical care were necessary and are just, and that the institution has no available funds for such purpose. 27

28 S 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
