2 transfer of a security to a beneficiary pursuant to part 4 of article 13 3 of this chapter, any other disposition or transfer created by any testa-4 mentary or nontestamentary instrument, or by operation of law, and any 5 of the foregoing created or increased by reason of a renunciation made 6 by another person.

7 (2) The effective date of the disposition for purposes of this section 8 shall be:

9 A. If the disposition is created by will, the exercise or nonexercise 10 of a testamentary power of appointment, a distribution pursuant to 11 4-1.1, the deposit of money in a trust account as defined in 7-5.1, THE 12 REGISTRATION OF A SECURITY IN BENEFICIARY FORM PURSUANT TO PART 4 OF 13 ARTICLE 13 OF THIS CHAPTER, a life insurance or annuity contract, a 14 joint tenancy or tenancy by the entirety, or an employee benefit plan, 15 the date of death of the deceased testator, holder of the power of 16 appointment, intestate, creator of the trust account, REGISTERED OWNER 17 OF THE SECURITY, insured, annuitant, other joint tenant or tenant by the 18 entirety, or employee, as the case may be;

19 B. If the disposition is created by trust agreement, the exercise of a 20 presently exercisable power of appointment, or the renunciation of a 21 disposition created by another, the date [of the trust agreement,] AS OF 22 WHICH THE TRANSFER IN TRUST IS IRREVOCABLE AND IS A COMPLETED GIFT FOR 23 FEDERAL GIFT TAX PURPOSES (REGARDLESS OF WHETHER A GIFT TAX IS IMPOSED 24 ON THE COMPLETED GIFT), THE DATE OF THE exercise of the power of 25 appointment, or renunciation, as the case may be; and 26 C. If the disposition is created by any other testamentary or nontes-27 tamentary instrument, or by operation of law, the date of the event by 28 which the beneficiary is finally ascertained.

29 Notwithstanding the foregoing, the effective date of a disposition which 30 is of a future estate shall be the date on which it becomes an estate in 31 possession.

32 [(b)] (C) (1) Any beneficiary of a disposition may renounce all or 33 part of [his] SUCH BENEFICIARY'S interest; provided, however, that a 34 surviving joint tenant or tenant by the entirety [may not renounce that 35 portion of an interest in joint property or property held by the entire-36 ty which is allocable to amounts contributed by him to the interest in 37 such property] MAY RENOUNCE THAT PORTION OF AN INTEREST IN JOINT PROPER-38 TY OR TENANCY BY THE ENTIRETY WHICH IS THE GREATER OF:

39 A. THAT PORTION OF THE INTEREST WHICH THE DECEASED JOINT TENANT OR 40 TENANT BY THE ENTIRETY WOULD HAVE BEEN ENTITLED TO RECEIVE ON SEVERANCE 41 BEFORE DEATH; OR

42 B. THAT PORTION OF THE INTEREST THAT COULD BE THE SUBJECT OF A QUALI-43 FIED DISCLAIMER UNDER SECTION 2518 OF THE UNITED STATES INTERNAL REVENUE 44 CODE OF 1986, AS AMENDED.

45 (2) Such renunciation shall be in writing, signed and acknowledged by 46 the person renouncing, and shall be filed in the office of the clerk of 47 the court having jurisdiction over the will or trust agreement governing 48 the property of which the disposition would otherwise be made or the 49 court which issued letters of administration, or if there is no probate 50 or administration, then in a surrogate's court provided by law as the 51 place of probate or administration of the decedent's estate, within nine 52 months after the effective date of the disposition. Such renunciation 53 shall be accompanied by an affidavit of the renouncing party that [he] 54 SUCH PARTY has not received and is not to receive any consideration in 55 money or money's worth for such renunciation from a person or persons 56 whose interest is to be accelerated, unless payment of such consider-

1 ation has been authorized by the court. Notice of such renunciation, 2 which shall include a copy of the renunciation, shall be served 3 personally or in such manner as the court may direct upon the fiduciary 4 directed by the will or trust agreement to make the disposition or upon 5 the administrator or such other person who was directed to make the 6 disposition or upon any other person having custody or possession of or 7 legal title to the property, an interest in which is being renounced, 8 and by mail or in such manner as the court may direct upon all persons 9 whose interest may be created or increased by reason of such renuncia-10 tion. The time to file and serve such renunciation may be extended, in 11 the discretion of the court, on a petition showing reasonable cause and 12 on notice to such persons and in such manner as the court may direct.
13 The time limited in this section for filing and serving such renuncia-14 tion is exclusive, and shall not be suspended or otherwise affected by 15 any other provision of law; such renunciation shall be effective as of 16 the date of such filing, notwithstanding that notice thereof may there-17 after be required by the court.

18 [(c)] (D) A renunciation may be made by:

19 (1) The guardian of the property of an infant, when so authorized by 20 the court having jurisdiction of the estate of the infant.

21 (2) The committee of an incompetent when so authorized by the court 22 that appointed the committee.

23 (3) The conservator of a conservatee, when so authorized by the court 24 that appointed the conservator.

25 (4) A guardian appointed under article eighty-one of the mental 26 hygiene law, when so authorized by the court that appointed the guardi-27 an.

28 (5) The personal representative of a decedent, when so authorized by 29 the court having jurisdiction of the estate of the decedent.

30 (6) An attorney-in-fact, when so authorized under a duly executed 31 power of attorney, provided, however, that any renunciation by an attor-32 ney-in-fact of a person under disability shall not be effective unless 33 it is further authorized by the court with which the renunciation must 34 be filed under subparagraph two of paragraph [(b)] (C) of this section, 35 and provided, further, that a renunciation by an attorney-in-fact of a 36 person not under disability may be made without court authorization, 37 unless the property which would have passed under said renunciation is, 38 by reason of said renunciation, disposed of in favor of such attorney-39 in-fact or the spouse or issue of such attorney-in-fact, in which case 40 such renunciation shall not be effective unless either (A) the instru-41 ment appointing such attorney-in-fact expressly authorizes a renuncia-42 tion in favor of such attorney-in-fact or the spouse or issue of such 43 attorney-in-fact, or (B) such renunciation has been authorized by the 44 court with which the renunciation must be filed under subparagraph two 45 of paragraph [(b)] (C) OF THIS SECTION.

46 [(d)] (E) Unless the creator of the disposition has otherwise 47 provided, the filing of a renunciation, as provided in this section, has 48 the same effect with respect to the renounced interest as though the 49 renouncing person had predeceased the creator or the decedent or, if the 50 renounced interest is a future estate, as though the renouncing person 51 had died at the time of filing or just prior to its becoming an estate 52 in possession, whichever is earlier in time, and shall have the effect 53 of accelerating the possession and enjoyment of subsequent interests, 54 but shall have no effect upon the vesting of a future estate which by 55 the terms of the disposition is limited upon a preceding estate other 56 than the renounced interest. If, pursuant to the preceding sentence,

1 there would occur a per stirpes disposition of the renounced interest or 2 a disposition or distribution of the renounced interest by represen-3 tation, then solely for purposes of applying 1-2.14 or 1-2.16, as the 4 case may be, the renouncing person shall be treated as having died on 5 the same date as, but immediately after, the creator or decedent or, if 6 the renounced interest is a future estate, as having died on the same 7 date as, but immediately after, its becoming an estate in possession or, 8 if the time of filing is earlier in time, on the same date as, but imme-9 diately after, such filing. Such renunciation is retroactive to the 10 creation of the disposition. A person who has a present and a future 11 interest in property and renounces the present interest in whole or in 12 part shall be deemed to have renounced the future interest to the same 13 extent.

14 [(e)] (F) A beneficiary may accept one disposition and renounce anothe-15 er, may renounce a disposition in whole or in part, or with reference to 16 specific amounts, parts, fractional shares or assets thereof. Notwith-
17 standing the provisions of paragraph [(d)] (E) of this section, a renun-18 ciation by a surviving spouse of a decedent of a disposition created by 19 said decedent shall not be deemed to be a renunciation by such spouse of 20 all or any part of any other disposition to or in favor of such spouse, 21 regardless of whether the property which would have passed under said 22 renounced disposition is by reason of said renunciation disposed of to 23 or in favor of such spouse. Unless a renouncing person has provided 24 otherwise in his renunciation, the effect of a renunciation of a frac-25 tional part of a disposition is to renounce such fraction of all proper-26 ty to which the renouncing person is entitled under the disposition.

27 [(f)] (G) A renunciation may not be made under this section with 28 respect to any property which a renouncing person has accepted, except 29 that an acceptance does not preclude a person from renouncing all or 30 part of any property to which [he] SUCH PERSON becomes entitled when 31 another person renounces after such acceptance. For purposes of this 32 paragraph, a person accepts an interest in property if [he] SUCH PERSON 33 voluntarily transfers or encumbers, or contracts to transfer or encumber 34 all or part of such interest, or accepts delivery or payment of, or 35 exercises control as beneficial owner over all or part thereof, or 36 executes a written waiver of the right to renounce, or otherwise indi-37 cates acceptance of all or part of such interest. A written waiver of 38 the right to renounce shall be binding on the person waiving and all 39 parties claiming by, through or under [him] SUCH PERSON.

40 [(g)] (H) A renunciation filed under this section is irrevocable.

41 [(h)] (I) This section shall not abridge the right of any beneficiary 42 or any other person to assign, convey, release or renounce any property 43 or interest therein arising under any other section of this chapter or 44 other statute or under common law.

45 [(i)] (J) Except as specifically provided in the trust instrument, the 46 will, any other instrument creating the disposition, or in this section, 47 this section shall apply to each disposition the effective date of which 48 (as defined in this section) is on or after the effective date of this 49 section, except that with respect to the renunciation of a future inter-50 est this section shall apply as well to dispositions created or 51 increased prior to the effective date of this section.

52 [(j)] In determining whether or not a valid disclaimer has been made 53 for the purposes of the taxes imposed by articles twenty-six and twen-54 ty-six-A of the tax law, the provisions of such law shall be applicable 55 to such determination, notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary 56 contained in this section or any other section of this chapter.]

2 as amended by chapter 589 of the laws of 2003, is amended to read as

5 of the estates, powers and trusts law, to accept, to reject, to receive,

7 or to consent to a reduction in or modification of, any share in or 8 payment from any estate, trust or other fund;

13 succession or by inter vivos transfer consistent with paragraph [(c)]

16 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.
