Introduced by Sen. OPPENHEIMER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Banks

AN ACT to amend the banking law and the real property law, in relation to alternative mortgage instruments and graduated payment mortgages

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Legislative intent. The legislature finds that the banking 2 law does not adequately protect homeowners and lending institutions from 3 the delinquency and foreclosure problems associated with adjustable rate
4 mortgages. It is the intent of this act to create stricter requirements
5 for lending institutions offering adjustable rate mortgages. The legis-
6 lature further declares that such lending institutions shall be required 7 to limit initial interest rate discounts and interest rate increases,
8 provide lifetime and annual caps on interest rate increases, limit nega-
9 tive amortization and prohibit the marketing of graduated payment 10 adjustable rate mortgages for one to six family residences. These 11 requirements are the same as protections already required by the Federal 12 National Mortgage Association.

13 S 2. Subdivision 1 of section 6-f of the banking law, as amended by 14 chapter 1 of the laws of 1983, is amended to read as follows:

15 1. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this chapter or any 16 other law of this state, the banking board is authorized to adopt such 17 rules or regulations as shall permit banks, trust companies, foreign 18 banking corporations licensed to maintain a branch or agency in this 19 state, savings banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions and 20 persons and entities engaging in the business described in section five 21 hundred ninety [of article twelve-d] of this chapter to make residential 22 mortgage loans and cooperative apartment unit loans which provide for 23 (a) periodic readjustments of the rate of interest charged for the loan

25 than the term of the mortgage or (c) repayment of the principal amount
