Introduced by Sen. PERALTA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Consumer Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law and the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to requiring an automobile dealer to pay a specified amount on the prior credit or lease balance owing on the vehicle purchased or obtained in trade to the lessor, or to the legal owner of the vehicle purchased or obtained in trade within twenty-one calendar days of purchasing or obtaining the vehicle in trade

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Legislative findings. When consumers choose to purchase vehicles from motor vehicle dealers that are licensed by the department of motor vehicles, they have a reasonable expectation that the dealers have sufficient resources to honor their contractual commitments.

Motor vehicle buyers have no reliable way to know in advance whether a motor vehicle dealer is on the brink of insolvency or is on a sound financial footing.

When licensed motor vehicle dealers go out of business they often fail to pay off liens on vehicles purchased or obtained in trade, as agreed. When this happens, the lien often reverts to the consumer who traded in the vehicle. As the consumer has likely not budgeted for this extra car payment, the result is often ruinous consequences, including harm to their credit, repossessions that remain on their credit reports for seven to ten years, job losses due to a lack of transportation, home foreclosures, and bankruptcy. Such consequences are brought about through no fault of the consumer.

Honest dealers are also adversely impacted when unscrupulous motor vehicle dealers siphon off business and then harm the credit of their customers by going out of business without paying liens, as promised, shrinking the automotive market at precisely the time when it is sound public policy to expand the market and accelerate sales of newer, safer, cleaner motor vehicles.

S 2. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 198-c to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [ ] is old law to be omitted.
