I N A S S E M B L Y

(PREFILED)

January 5, 2011

Introduced by M. of A. ORTIZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Economic Development, Job Creation, Commerce and Industry

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to educating foreign women entering this country as prospective spouses about the history of the men they may be marrying and their rights as residents of the United States if they become victims of domestic violence

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as
2 the "International Marriage Brokers Act".

3 S 2. Legislative findings. In 1999, the Immigration and Naturalization
4 Service commissioned a study that found more than 200 international
5 marriage brokers operating around the globe, arranging between 4,000 and 6 6,000 marriages between American men and foreign women every year.
7 Today, the number of international marriage brokers is nearly 500 world-
8 wide and, based on the 1999 statistics, 20,000 to 30,000 women have 9 entered the United States using an international marriage broker in the 10 past five years. In 1993, the Commonwealth Fund estimated that seven 11 percent of American women who are married or living with someone are 12 physically abused in a year's time, and that the incidence is higher in 13 mail-order marriages. The purpose of this act is to regulate interna-
14 tional marriage brokers and to inform prospective wives of the history
15 of the men they may be marrying and their rights as residents of the 16 United States if they become victims of domestic violence.

17 S 3. The general business law is amended by adding a new article 28-CC
18 to read as follows:
