AN ACT to amend the workers' compensation law, in relation to occupational disease caused by tobacco smoke in the work place

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Section 28 of the workers' compensation law, as amended by 2 chapter 659 of the laws of 1984, is amended to read as follows:
3 S 28. Limitation of right to compensation. The right to claim compen-
4 sation under this chapter shall be barred, except as hereinafter
5 provided, unless within two years after the accident, or if death
6 results therefrom within two years after such death, a claim for compen-
7 sation shall be filed with the chairman, but the employer and insurance 8 carrier shall be deemed to have waived the bar of the statute unless the 9 objection to the failure to file the claim within two years is raised on 10 the first hearing on such claim at which all parties in interest are 11 present. The right of an employee to claim compensation under this 12 chapter for disablement caused by any occupational disease including but 13 not limited to compressed air illness or its sequelae, silicosis or 14 other dust disease, latent or delayed pathological bone, blood or lung 15 changes or malignancies due to occupational exposure to or contact with 16 arsenic, benzol, beryllium, zirconium, cadmium, chrome, lead or fluorine 17 [or], to exposure to x-rays, radium, ionizing radiation, radio-active
18 substances, or any other chemical compound OR TO OCCUPATIONAL EXPOSURE 19 TO TOBACCO SMOKE shall not be barred by the failure of the employee to 20 file a claim within such period of two years, provided such claim shall 21 be filed after such period of two years and within two years after disa-22 blement and after the claimant knew or should have known that the 23 disease is or was due to the nature of the employment. No case in which 24 an advance payment is made to an employee or to his dependents in case
