2 however, that a non-elected official may apply for reinstatement to the 3 appointing authority upon reversal or the vacating of such conviction 4 where the conviction is the sole basis for the vacancy. After receipt of 5 such application, the appointing authority shall afford such applicant a 6 hearing to determine whether reinstatement is warranted. The record of 7 the hearing shall include the final judgment of the court which reversed
8 or vacated such conviction and may also include the entire employment 9 history of the applicant and any other submissions which may form the 10 basis of the grant or denial of reinstatement notwithstanding the 11 reversal or vacating of such conviction. Notwithstanding any law to the 12 contrary, after review of such record, the appointing authority may, in 13 its discretion, reappoint such non-elected official to his OR HER former 14 office, or a similar office if his OR HER former office is no longer
15 available. In the event of such reinstatement, the appointing authority

31 taking is required. The neglect or failure of any state or local officer
32 to execute and file his OR HER oath of office and official undertaking 33 within the time limited therefor by law, shall not create a vacancy in 34 the office if such officer was on active duty in the armed forces of the 35 United States and absent from the county of his OR HER residence at the 36 time of his OR HER election or appointment, and shall take his OR HER
