AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to discrimination against certain tenants who own or keep pets

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Legislative intent. The legislature hereby finds that pet 1 companionship has a beneficial impact on the pet owner's physical and 2 3 mental health and numerous studies have demonstrated that senior citizens with pets live longer, visit the doctor less often and recover more 4 5 quickly from illnesses. There exists a significant public interest and 6 purpose in preserving and enhancing the quality of life of the state's 7 senior citizens. Such persons should not be compelled to choose between 8 remaining in their home and having the therapeutic benefit of pet companionship. The shortage of affordable housing across the state 9 offers such persons few housing options if forced to leave their homes 10 due to their need for pet companionship. Eviction of senior citizens 11 from multiple dwellings due to pet ownership is harmful to the public 12 13 welfare.

14 S 2. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 237-b to 15 read as follows:
