AN ACT to amend the general business law and the penal law, in relation to preventing the sale of firearms, rifles, and shotguns to criminals

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1     Section 1. Legislative findings and declaration. The legislature here-
2     by finds and declares as follows:
3     1. Firearms, rifles and shotguns are used to kill nearly 30,000 indi-
4     viduals in the United States every year, including 1,000 individuals in 5     New York state alone. Additionally, there are 100,000 non-fatal injuries
6     across the country. The federal government has largely ignored this 7     public health crisis and has left it up to state and local governments
8     to protect its citizens. Firearm violence also costs millions of dollars 9     and causes incalculable emotional damage, devastating families and 10    communities throughout the country. Therefore, the state of New York 11    has a strong interest in reducing violence and crimes that involve the 12    use of firearms and the illegal trafficking of firearms. Illegal guns 13    obtained throughout the state end up in the hands of criminals, youth 14    and violent individuals who use them to threaten, maim and kill.
15    2. There is a thriving underground market for illegal firearms, large-16    ly driven by demand from drug gangs and other criminals. A highly effi-17    cient and continuous business practice exists in which firearms are 18    moved from legal manufacture and sale to prohibited purchasers, making 19    them illegal firearms. In 2001, approximately 12,000 illegal firearms, 20    rifles and shotguns were seized in New York state. From November 2000
21    to April 2002, 2700 crime guns were entered into the state crime gun

1 database. In 2008, according to a review by the federal bureau of alco-
2 hol, tobacco, firearms, and explosives (ATF) of trace data compiled for 3 several regions in the state, including Albany, Buffalo, Rochester, 4 Syracuse, Long Island and New York City that calendar year, 9,558
5 firearms were submitted to be traced, 2,659 of which were long guns.
6 Outside New York City, long guns are sold without a permit. Forty-six 7 percent of the firearms recovered in 2008 were found outside New York
8 City. A significant portion of guns involved in crimes upstate origi-9 nate within the state. In fact, youth data reveals that in 2000, 40% of 10 the crime guns in Buffalo originated within a five-mile radius of that 11 city.

12 3. A substantial portion of illegal firearms are diverted to the ille-
13 gal market through licensed gun dealers. Rogue gun dealers play a key 14 role in this market. These rogue dealers funnel guns to the illegal 15 market through a variety of channels. One of the most common means is to 16 allow "straw purchases". A straw purchase occurs when a person purchases
17 a gun on behalf of a prohibited person. The ATF conducted an investi-
18 gation of gun trafficking from July 1996 to December 1998 and found that 19 almost 26,000 trafficked firearms were associated with investigations in 20 which there was a straw purchaser. Almost 50% of all trafficking inves-
21 tigation involved straw purchasers, with an average of 37 firearms
22 trafficked per investigation. Another issue, according to a 2008 report
23 by Mayors Against Illegal Guns, Inside Straw Purchasing: How Criminals
24 Get Guns Illegally, is that many traffickers return to the same store 25 again and again once they have identified it as one in which they can 26 make straw purchases easily. Although most gun dealers operate their 27 businesses legally and responsibly, some gun dealers who are corrupt or 28 maintain shoddy recordkeeping practices flood the streets with illegal 29 weapons as a result of their unrestricted access to new gun inventory 30 and the unwillingness of gun manufacturers to terminate their supply to 31 these rogue dealers. Current federal and state regulation has not curbed
32 the business practice of illegal gun dealers. According to a 2004 study 33 by Americans for Gun Safety, of the 120 worst gun dealers in the coun-34 try, namely those dealers with an average of 500 crime guns traced to 35 them, 96 were still in operation.

36 4. Moreover, this problem is not limited to unlicensed sellers, and 37 clearly includes federal firearms licensees (FFLs). Indeed, although 38 FFLs were involved in under 10% of the trafficking investigations under-39 taken by ATF, they were associated with the largest number of diverted 40 firearms--over 40,000 guns, which is nearly half of the total number of 41 trafficked firearms documented during the two-year period of ATF's
42 investigation. Additionally, a 2008 report by Mayors Against Illegal 43 Guns indicated that several states which allow state authorities to 44 supplement the federal ATF inspections with routine inspections provide 45 law enforcement with more opportunities to uncover dealers in violation 46 of the law. These inspections also help identify dealers who exercise 47 lax oversight over their inventory and may lead to improved compliance 48 with federal, state and local laws.

49 5. Current New York state laws governing firearm dealers are inade-
50 quate to prevent the diversion of firearms to the illegal marketplace.
51 Additional protections that are needed include, but are not limited to, 52 better gun dealer internal compliance procedures, programs to eliminate 53 straw purchases, increased liability insurance, improved security meas-54 ures, reducing youth access, mandatory training for gun dealer employ-55 ees, and improved recordkeeping requirements. The additional protections set forth in this act will greatly enhance the state's efforts to reduce criminal activity in the state.

S 2. Article 40 and sections 900 and 901 of the general business law, as renumbered by chapter 407 of the laws of 1973, are renumbered article 50 and sections 1001 and 1002 and a new article 40 is added to read as follows:
