36 S 7. A. Every bill which shall have passed the senate and assembly

39 return it with his or her objections to the house in which it shall have 40 originated, which shall enter the objections at large on the journal, 41 and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration, two-thirds 42 of the members elected to that house shall agree to pass the bill, it

45 members elected to that house, it shall become a law notwithstanding the 46 objections of the governor. In all such cases the votes in both houses 47 shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the members 48 voting shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If 49 any bill shall not be returned by the governor within ten days (Sundays

3 governor shall append to the bill, at the time of signing it, a state-4 ment of the items to which he or she objects; and the appropriation so 5 objected to shall not take effect. If the legislature be in session, he 6 or she shall transmit to the house in which the bill originated a copy 7 of such statement, and the items objected to shall be separately recon-8 sidered. If on reconsideration one or more of such items be approved by 9 two-thirds of the members elected to each house, the same shall be part 10 of the law, notwithstanding the objections of the governor. All the 11 provisions of this section, in relation to bills not approved by the
