Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature finds that the development, construction and operation of a biotechnology and other technology-oriented office, research and manufacturing park upon the grounds of the state university of New York college at Farmingdale is necessary and appropriate to further the objectives and purposes of the state university of New York in its support of the college at Farmingdale and fulfills a necessary and desirable public purpose. The legislature further finds that granting the trustees of the state university of New York the authority and power to lease and otherwise contract to make available grounds and facilities of the campus of the state university New York college at Farmingdale will ensure the development, construction and operation of such biotechnology and other technologyoriented office, research and manufacturing park and also promote the effective use of such grounds and facilities which support the educational and research activities of the college at Farmingdale.

S 2. As used in this act "BHBP" shall mean Broad Hollow Bioscience Park, Inc., which is a not-for-profit corporation organized pursuant to the laws of New York state, for the lease of lands described in section twelve of this act. For the purposes of this act, the biotechnology and other technology-oriented office, research and manufacturing park may include structures with offices, common space, research laboratories, manufacturing facilities, facilities for servicing businesses, incubator facilities and technical facilities related to biotechnology and other technology-oriented purposes.

- S 3. For the purposes of this act: (a) "project" shall mean work at the property authorized by this act to be leased to BHBP as described in section twelve of this act that involves the design, construction, reconstruction, demolition, excavating, rehabilitation, repair, renovation, alteration or improvement of biotechnology and other technology-oriented office, research and manufacturing park.
- (b) "project labor agreement" shall mean a pre-hire collective bargaining agreement between a contractor and a labor organization, establishing the labor organization as the collective bargaining representative for all persons who will perform work on the project, and which provides that only contractors and subcontractors who sign a prenegotiated agreement with the labor organization can perform project work.
- S 4. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, the state university trustees are hereby authorized and empowered, without any public bidding, to lease and otherwise contract to make available to BHBP a portion of the lands of the state university of New York college at Farmingdale generally described in this act for the purpose of developing, constructing and operating a biotechnology and other technology-oriented office, research and manufacturing park, and for uses in support of campus activities; provided, however, that the development and operaof a biotechnology and other technology-oriented office, research and manufacturing park shall be of benefit to the college at Farmingdale. Such lease or contract shall be for a period not exceeding 35 years without any fee simple conveyance and otherwise upon terms and conditions determined by such trustees, subject to the approval of the director of the division of the budget, the attorney general and the state comptroller. In the event that the real property that is the subject of such lease or contract shall cease to be used for the purpose described in this act, such lease or contract shall immediately terminate and the real property and any improvements thereon shall revert to the state university of New York. Any lease or contract entered into pursuant to this act shall provide that the real property that is the subject of such lease or contract and any improvements thereon shall revert to the state university of New York on the expiration of such contract or lease.
- S 5. Any contract or lease entered into pursuant to this act shall be deemed to be a state contract for the purposes of article 15-A of the executive law, and any contractor, subcontractor, lessee or subleasee entering into such contract or lease for the construction, demolition, reconstruction, excavation, rehabilitation, repair, renovation, alteration or improvement authorized pursuant to this act shall be deemed a state agency for the purposes of article 15-A of the executive law and subject to the provisions of such article.
- S 6. Notwithstanding any general, special or local law or judicial decision to the contrary, all work performed on a project authorized by this act where all or any portion thereof involves a lease or agreement for construction, demolition, reconstruction, excavation, rehabilitation, repair, renovation, alteration or improvement shall be deemed public work and shall be subject to and performed in accordance with the provisions of article 8 of the labor law to the same extent and in the same manner as a contract of the state, and compliance with all the provisions of article 8 of the labor law shall be required of any lessee, sublessee, contractor and/or subcontractor performing on the project including the enforcement of prevailing wage requirements by the fiscal officer as defined in paragraph e of subdivision 5 of section 220 of the labor law to the same extent as a contract of the state.

- S 7. Nothing in this act shall be deemed to waive or impair any rights or benefits of employees of the state university of New York that otherwise would be available to them pursuant to the terms of agreements between the certified representatives of such employees and the state of New York pursuant to article 14 of the civil service law; all work performed on such property that ordinarily would be performed by employees subject to article 14 of the civil service law shall continue to be performed by such employees.
- S 8. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general, special, or local law or judicial decision to the contrary:
- (a) BHBP may require a contractor awarded a contract, subcontract, lease, grant, bond, covenant or other agreement for a project to enter into a project labor agreement during and for the work involved with such project when such requirement is part of BHBP request for proposals for the project and when BHBP determines that the record supporting the decision to enter into such an agreement establishes that the interests underlying the competitive bidding laws are best met by requiring a project labor agreement including: obtaining the best work at the lowest possible price; preventing favoritism, fraud and corruption; the impact of delay; the possibility of cost savings; and any local history of labor unrest.
- (b) If BHBP does not require a project labor agreement, then any contractor, subcontractor, lease, grant, bond, covenant or other agreements for a project shall be awarded pursuant to section 135 of the state finance law.
- S 9. Without limiting the determination of the terms and conditions of such contracts or leases, such term and conditions may provide for leasing, subleasing, construction, reconstruction, rehabilitation, improvement, operation and management of and provision of services and assistance and the granting of licenses, easements and other arrangements with regard to such grounds and facilities by BHBP, and parties contracting with BHBP, and, in connection with such activities, the obtaining of funding or financing, whether public or private, unsecured or secured (including, but not limited to, secured by leasehold mortgages and assignments of rents and leases), by BHBP and parties contracting with BHBP for the purposes of completing the project described in this act.
- S 10. Such lease shall include an indemnity provision whereby the lessee or sublessee promises to indemnify, hold harmless and defend the lessor against all claims, suits, actions, and liability to all persons on the leased premises, including tenant, tenant's agents, contractors, subcontractors, employees, customers, guests, licensees, invitees and members of the public, for damage to any such person's property, whether real or personal, or for personal injuries arising out of tenant's use or occupation of the demised premises.
- S 11. Any contracts entered into pursuant to this act between BHBP and parties contracting with BHBP shall be awarded by a competitive process.
- S 12. The property authorized by this act to be leased to BHBP is generally described as that parcel of real property with improvements thereon, consisting of a total of approximately 38.5 acres, situated on the campus of the state university of New York college at Farmingdale. The description in this section of the parcel to be made available pursuant to this act is not meant to be a legal description, but is intended only to identify the parcel: All the tract, piece or parcel of land situate in the Town of Huntington and Town of Babylon, County of Suffolk, State of New York, and being more particularly bounded as described as follows: All that tract, piece or parcel of land situate in the Town of Huntington and Town of Babylon, County of Suffolk, State of New York, and being more particularly bounded as described as follows: Beginning at a point on the westerly right of way of New York State Route 110 per NYSDOT Map 3T Parcel 3 at the southeast corner of a NYSDOT detention pond shown on Map 289 T Parcel 324,
