Introduced by M. of A. LATIMER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Local Governments

AN ACT to amend chapter 851 of the laws of 1949, relating to establishing a police justice court in the village of Port Chester, in relation to hours for opening police justice court in the village of Port Chester

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Chapter 851 of the laws of 1949, relating to establishing a 2 police justice court in the village of Port Chester, sections 4 and 10 3 as amended by chapter 447 of the laws of 1962 and section 6 as amended 4 by chapter 410 of the laws of 1965, is amended to read as follows:
5 Section 1. Police justice court established. There shall be within the 6 village of Port Chester a court known and designated as the police 7 justice court of Port Chester, presided over by a police justice, 8 appointed as hereinafter provided, with powers and jurisdiction as here-9 inafter set forth.
10 S 2. Creating police justice. The board of trustees of the village of 11 Port Chester, shall, on or before May fifteenth, nineteen hundred 12 forty-nine, by a majority vote of all the members of said board, appoint 13 an officer to be known as the police justice of the village of Port 14 Chester. The said police justice shall be a resident and elector of the 15 said village and a freeholder therein, and shall hold office for a term 16 of two years from May fifteenth, nineteen hundred forty-nine, or until 17 his successor shall have been appointed and qualified, and shall enter 18 upon the discharge of his duties, within ten days following his appoint-19 ment. Within sixty days before the expiration of said term bi-annually 20 thereafter the said board of trustees shall, in like manner, appoint a 21 police justice. In case the said board of trustees shall not make said 22 appointment as aforesaid, in the first instance, or in any year when the 23 appointment should be made, then and in that case, the mayor of the 1 village of Port Chester may appoint a police justice for the said term, 2 which appointment shall be evidenced by his filing with the village

3 clerk his designation in writing of the person to fill the said position 4 for the said term. In like manner, there shall also be appointed for the 5 village of Port Chester, [an] TWO acting police [justice] JUSTICES for 6 the said term. From time to time when a vacancy shall occur in either 7 of the said offices the said board of trustees may fill the same, or in 8 case they cannot agree within thirty days after such vacancy shall 9 occur, the mayor of the village may fill the vacancy for the unexpired 10 term.

11 S 3. Civil jurisdiction. The police justice shall have the same juris-12 diction as a justice of the peace of a town in any civil action or 13 special proceeding in which a resident of the village is a party except 14 that the limitation on amount shall be two thousand dollars. The prac-15 tice, pleadings, forms and procedure before the police justice shall 16 conform, as nearly as may be, to the practice, pleadings, forms and 17 procedure in like cases under the justice court act. The police justice 18 shall have the same power to punish for a criminal contempt as a justice 19 of the peace, and the practice thereon and the punishment therefor shall 20 be the same as under the justice court act. The town clerk of the town 21 of Rye, in which town the village of Port Chester is situated, shall 22 furnish to such police justice jury lists of the names of such persons 23 as shall be liable to jury duty in such village in the same manner as 24 lists are furnished to the justices of the peace of said town, except 25 when such lists are furnished by a county commissioner of jurors.

26 S 4. Criminal jurisdiction. The said police justice may hold a court 27 of special sessions in said village, and shall have, in the first 28 instance, jurisdiction to hear, try and determine the charges of a 29 misdemeanor committed within said village and triable by a court of 30 special sessions, subject to the right of removal, as provided by the 31 code of criminal procedure, to a court having the authority to inquire 32 by the intervention of a grand jury into offenses committed within the 33 county. Such police justice shall have jurisdiction to take the exam-34 ination of a person charged with the commission in said village of a 35 crime not triable by a court of special sessions; and also jurisdiction 36 to hear, try and determine charges against a person of being a vagrant, 37 tramp or disorderly person within said village, or of having committed 38 disorderly conduct therein; and to take such proceedings in either of 39 such cases as may be taken by a justice of the peace, with all the 40 powers and subject to all the duties and liabilities of a justice of the 41 peace in respect thereto. Said police justice shall have all the power 42 and authority and be subject to all the duties and liabilities of a 43 justice of the peace in issuing warrants for the arrest of a person 44 charged with the commission of a crime or disorderly conduct in the 45 county of Westchester, but if the offense is charged to have been 46 committed outside the village limits, the person arrested by such proc-47 ess shall be taken before another magistrate of the town in which such 48 offense is charged to have been committed, and the papers upon which 49 such process shall issue shall be delivered to such magistrate who shall 50 proceed thereon as through such warrant had been issued by him upon such 51 paper. A person arrested upon a criminal warrant issued by a justice of 52 the peace upon a charge of committing a crime or an offense of a crimi-53 nal nature within said village, or that shall have been found to have 54 been committed within the limits of said village, may be taken before 55 the police justice of said village and the papers upon which the process 56 was issued delivered to such police justice, and he shall proceed there-

1 on, as though said warrant had been issued by him originally. All 2 persons lodged in the Port Chester lockup except those under sentence, 3 or those awaiting a day for trial that has been fixed, may be taken 4 before the said police justice daily by the keeper of the lockup or the 5 officer in possession of a warrant for the said person, and he shall 6 pass upon the legality of the confinement of all such prisoners and 7 order their discharge if justice requires it, and the said police 8 justice shall daily keep a record thereof. A violation of this provision 9 shall be punishable as a misdemeanor. The said police justice shall be 10 subject to the same duties and liabilities and his judgment and 11 proceedings may be appealed from, or reviewed in the same manner and to 12 the same extent as is now or may hereafter be by law provided in the 13 case of justices of the peace or courts of special session. He shall 14 have power to administer oaths, and to take affidavits and acknowledge-15 ments. Every person appointed police justice of said village shall 16 before entering upon the duties of his office take and file with the 17 clerk of Westchester county the constitutional oath of office. He shall 18 file with the clerk of the county of Westchester a copy of his signature 19 for comparison of all affidavits, acknowledgements or other legal papers 20 signed, sworn to or acknowledged before him as police justice. The 21 police justice, or in case of his absence or inability to act, the 22 acting police justice OR JUSTICES, shall have exclusive jurisdiction in 23 the first instance to hear, try and determine charges of violations of 24 the ordinances of the village of Port Chester.

25 S 5. Acting police [justice] JUSTICES. [The] AN acting police justice 26 shall be a person who has the qualifications herein provided for such 27 office, and shall perform the duties of the said police justice in case 28 of and during his temporary disability or absence. The police justice 29 may make an order that the business of the court requires such acting 30 police justice OR JUSTICES to assist him in the disposition thereof, and 31 thereupon such acting police [justice] JUSTICES shall perform the 32 duties, and shall have and exercise the jurisdiction and powers of the 33 police justice in civil and criminal cases and proceedings concurrently 34 with such police justice.

35 S 6. Clerk, stenographer, marshals and other employees. The board of 36 trustees by a majority vote shall appoint a clerk of the police justice 37 court, a stenographer, two marshals, and such other employees as they 38 deem necessary for the proper conduct of the business of the police 39 justice court, and the board of trustees shall by a majority vote have 40 power to fix the salaries of said employees. The police justice shall be 41 in responsible charge of all matters of the police justice court and 42 shall have all authority necessary for the proper conduct of the busi-43 ness of said court.

44 S 7. Salaries. The police justice and acting police [justice] JUSTICES 45 shall receive for their service such salaries as shall be fixed by a 46 majority vote of the board of trustees.

47 S 8. Disposition of funds received. The police justice and acting 48 police [justice] JUSTICES shall pay all fines, penalties, fees and other 49 costs received by either of them to the comptroller of the state of New 50 York, as provided by law. The said police justice shall render to the 51 board of trustees of the village of Port Chester, a sworn statement on 52 the first day of each and every month, which shall set forth in detail 53 full particulars of all criminal business transacted during the month, 54 and shall also contain a statement of all fines and forfeitures of bail 55 received by him, and of all court costs and fees received by him.

1 S 9. Courtroom and supplies. The board of trustees of the village of 2 Port Chester shall furnish in said village proper accommodations for the 3 said police justice court and proper furniture and all necessary arti-4 cles and supplies for the proper conducting of the same; they shall also 5 furnish all blanks and a docket and also an account book wherein the 6 said police justice shall keep a perfect and accurate record of all 7 matters coming before him and all accounts that he may have with the 8 village, which said docket shall be properly indexed, and all such 9 records shall be owned by and be public records of the village of Port 10 Chester, and turned over by the said police justice to his successor.

11 S 10. Hours for opening court. The said police justice shall open 12 court daily, except Sundays and legal holidays at nine o'clock ante 13 meridian or at such other hours as may be designated by him with the 14 prior approval by resolution of the board of trustees, for the trans-15 action of such business as provided by law; said police justice shall 16 keep such records and accounts, and shall comply with each and all of 17 the requirements of [section one hundred eighty-five of] the village 18 law.

19 S 11. When justice of the peace may be designated. If said police 20 justice or the acting police [justice] JUSTICES shall be absent, or 21 unable to perform said duties, then any justice of the peace of the town 22 of Rye, residing in said village who may be designated by the mayor of 23 said village and evidenced by his filing with the village clerk his 24 designation in writing of such justice of the peace, shall have the same 25 jurisdiction and powers and perform the same duties and be subject to 26 the same regulations and penalties in all respects as said police 27 justice, during the time he shall act. But no justice of the peace shall 28 receive any fee, emolument or pay from any source for the performance of 29 any service in any manner of which said police justice has jurisdiction, 30 except as provided by this act.

31 S 12. Powers of acting police justice. The acting police [justice]
32 JUSTICES shall have all powers and be subject to all the duties imposed 33 herein upon the police justice whenever [he] THEY shall act as such 34 justice.

35 S 13. Process; where service may be made; how directed. The territo-36 rial jurisdiction of the court shall extend throughout the county of 37 Westchester and it shall have power to send its process and other 38 mandates to any part of the county of Westchester for service or 39 execution in any action or special proceeding over which it has juris-40 diction and to enforce obedience thereto, and except as otherwise 41 provided in this article, every process and mandate shall be directed 42 either to the sheriff of the county of Westchester or to a marshal of 43 the village of Port Chester.

44 S 14. Death or removal not to impair action. No process, action, judg-45 ment, execution, special proceeding or criminal proceeding shall abate 46 or be discontinued by reason of the death, disability, removal from 47 office or vacancy in the office of the police justice or acting police 48 justice; but the successor in office of said police justice or acting 49 police justice shall proceed to hear, try and determine and give judg-50 ment in and upon the same, and upon all matters and things pending 51 before and undecided or not acted upon or indorsed by his predecessor in 52 office, with the same powers, jurisdiction and authority as his prede-53 cessor had.

54 S 15. Bill of particulars. The procedure for obtaining a copy of the 55 items of an account or a bill of particulars shall be that prescribed in 56 the civil practice act and rules adopted pursuant thereto, except, that

1 the periods of time prescribed by any rule of civil practice relating 2 thereto may be changed by rule of this court. The original of any bill 3 of particulars or items of an account shall be filed with the clerk 4 within the same time that service of a copy thereof must be made on the 5 adverse party or his attorney.

6 S 16. Village marshal; powers and duties. The village marshal shall 7 have such powers and perform such duties as may be prescribed by this 8 act, or by the board of trustees. The village marshal shall in the 9 police justice court perform the same duties as are performed by sher-10 iffs in courts of record and shall have the power to execute all process 11 of said court in the same manner as the process in courts of record are 12 executed by the sheriff. All acts to be done and performed by the sher-13 iff may be done by the marshal of the police justice court and all 14 moneys paid by the sheriff or marshal into the court shall be paid to 15 the comptroller to the credit of the action and subject to the order of 16 the court. The marshal of the village shall have and possess the same 17 powers in relation to all matters and proceedings in the court of 18 special sessions of the village and be empowered to perform the same 19 duties therein as the sheriff of Westchester county, or any constable or 20 policeman of the village.

21 The village marshal shall keep an accurate account of all fees 22 received by him, except fees received in civil actions or proceedings, 23 from whom received, the time of receiving the same, and on the first 24 business day of each month shall deposit with the comptroller the amount 25 thereof received in the last preceding month, with a detailed statement 26 of the items thereof, verified by the affidavit of the village marshal 27 to the effect that the same is correct and that it embraces all moneys 28 except fees in civil actions or proceedings received by said village 29 marshal for fees during the period covered by such statement.

30 S 17. Fees of marshal. The said marshal shall be entitled to the same 31 fees as a town constable, as provided in the justice court act of this 32 state, for like service to be paid by the party requiring said service, 33 but the said marshal shall receive no fees or compensation for the 34 service of any criminal process issued out of said police justice court, 35 and it shall be the duty of the police officers of the village to 36 execute all such process.

37 S 18. Fees payable to the court. There shall be paid to the police 38 justice or the clerk of the police justice court the same fees and costs 39 as provided for in the justice court act to be paid to justices of the 40 peace for services rendered in issuance of process of the court, and for 41 the trial of all actions and proceedings.

42 S 19. Judgment docket. The said clerk shall keep in his office a judg-43 ment docket book, in which he shall docket all judgments rendered in 44 said police justice court.

45 S 20. Costs. In all actions brought in the police justice court of the 46 village of Port Chester costs shall be allowed to the prevailing party 47 in the same manner and in the same amount as provided in the justice 48 court act.

49 S 21. Judicial notice of ordinances. The police justice court and the 50 police justice and acting police [justice] JUSTICES thereof must take 51 judicial notice of all ordinances adopted by the board of trustees so 52 long as the same remain in force and effect and shall also take judicial 53 notice of all ordinances of the village of Port Chester existing on the 54 twenty-eighth day of February, nineteen hundred forty-nine, except as 55 the same may be revised, altered, amended or annulled from time to time

1 as provided in the charter of the village of Port Chester and the 2 village law.

3 S 22. Qualifications. Every person appointed to the office of police 4 justice or acting police justice of the village of Port Chester shall 5 possess the qualifications prescribed by section three of the public
6 officers law. The police justice and acting police [justice] JUSTICES 7 shall be attorneys, each admitted to practice as such in the state of 8 New York for at least five years prior to the date they shall assume 9 office, in accordance with the provisions of this act.

10 S 23. Raising of moneys authorized. The board of trustees of the 11 village of Port Chester is authorized and empowered to raise money by 12 tax to be assessed upon real and personal property within the bounds of 13 said corporation, to be collected from the several owners and occupants 14 thereof annually, such sum as shall be necessary to defray the expenses 15 necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this act; to be known 16 as the police justice fund, and all fines, forfeitures of bail, fees and 17 costs collected by the police justice and acting police [justice]
18 JUSTICES and received by the treasurer of the village of Port Chester 19 through the comptroller of the state of New York, and all moneys 20 received by the village from the county for services of police justice 21 or acting police [justice] JUSTICES shall be applied to the expenses of 22 said court.

23 S 24. Additional powers of justices. All the powers given to the board 24 of trustees of the village of Port Chester, and to the police justice
25 and acting police [justice] JUSTICES, shall be in addition to all powers 26 now given such officers by the charter of the village, the village law, 27 or any general statute, and all acts or parts of acts, and the charter
28 of the village of Port Chester inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed 29 as affecting the village of Port Chester.

30 S 25. Chapter one hundred six of the laws of nineteen hundred six, 31 entitled, "An act creating the offices of police justice and assistant 32 police justice, in the village of Port Chester, in the county of West-33 chester, and to provide for raising annually an amount sufficient to pay 34 the salaries of said officers," as amended, is hereby repealed.

35 S 26. Saving clause. The repeal of chapter one hundred six of the laws 36 of nineteen hundred six by this act, shall not affect or impair any act 37 done or right accruing, accrued or acquired, or liability, forfeiture or 38 penalty incurred prior to the effective date of this act, under or by 39 virtue of any law so repealed, but the same may be asserted, enforced, 40 prosecuted or inflicted, as fully and to the same extent as if such law 41 had not been repealed; nor shall this act create a vacancy in any office 42 or employment. All actions and proceedings commenced under or by virtue 43 of the law so repealed and pending when this act becomes effective, may 44 be prosecuted in the same manner and with the same effort as they might 45 under laws then existing, unless it shall be otherwise specifically 46 provided. Nothing in this act contained shall be construed as affecting 47 any existing provisions of law so far as provisions apply to any portion 48 of the state, other than the village of Port Chester.

49 S 27. This act shall take effect immediately.

50 S 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
