Introduced by M. of A. SCHIMEL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to providing that a community college may only charge the county of a non-resident student for the local sponsor's costs for not more than two academic years while such student is in attendance

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 6305 of the education law, as amended by chapter 646 of the laws of 1975, is amended to read as follows:

2. Any community college may, with the approval of the state university trustees, charge non-resident students sufficient tuition and fees to cover an allocable portion of the local sponsor's share of the operating costs of such community college in addition to regular tuition and fees. Such community college may elect to charge to and collect from each county within the state which has issued a certificate or certificates of residence pursuant to subdivision three of this section on the basis of which such non-resident students are attending such community college, an allocable portion of the local sponsor's share of the operating costs of such community college attributable to such non-resident students, computed on a per student basis, together with a further sum of not to exceed three hundred dollars each year to be determined and approved by the state university trustees for each such non-resident student on account of the local sponsor's share of the capital costs incurred to provide facilities in which such non-resident students can be accommodated; or, where such non-resident students come from communities which have elected to participate in and pay an appropriate share of the expenses involved in the local sponsor's community college program, such allocable portion of operating expenses and such further sum not to exceed three hundred dollars per student for capital costs on
