AN ACT to confirm eligibility for and direct the New York city department of finance to provide exemption from taxation of certain residential dwelling units in the county of Richmond

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. 1. Notwithstanding any law, rule or regulation to the 2 contrary, where certificates of eligibility for moderate rehabilitation
3 with enriched benefits were issued by the New York city department of 4 housing preservation and development on July 28, 2000 and January 30,
5 2002 for alterations and improvements constructed between 1997 and 2000
6 with regard to a group of eight class A multiple dwellings reflected on 7 three separate tax lots, comprised of eleven hundred or more residential 8 rental units located on the same residential street in the county of 9 Richmond, exclusively occupied by low income tenants receiving benefits
10 under section 8 of the United States housing act of 1937 whose incomes 11 do not exceed 50 percent of the area median income, which are subject to 12 a 50-year use agreement pursuant to the United States low-income housing 13 preservation and resident homeownership act of 1990 and funded by at 14 least 10 million dollars of federal subsidies, each such tax lot shall 15 be exempt from taxation for local purposes for 34 years under section
16 489 of the real property tax law and section 11-243 of the administra-
17 tive code of the city of New York. The New York city department of 18 finance is hereby directed to comply with the provisions of this 19 section.
20 2. For tax lots granted benefits under this section pursuant to 21 certificates of eligibility issued on July 28, 2000, exemption benefits

1 shall be based upon all increases in the buildings assessed valuation,
2 without regard to whether such increases were the result of physical or 3 equalization increases, as follows:

4 (a) beginning in tax year 2001-2002 and ending at the completion of
5 tax year 2030-2031, the exemption benefit shall equal the difference
6 between the building assessed value for that tax year and tax year
7 1997-1998 multiplied by the then current overall class 2 tax rate;

8 (b) for tax year 2031-2032, the exemption benefit shall equal eighty
9 percent of the difference between the then current building assessed
10 value and the building assessed value in tax year 2001-2002 multiplied
11 by the then current class 2 tax rate;

12 (c) for tax year 2032-2033, the exemption benefit shall equal sixty
13 percent of the difference between the then current building assessed
14 value and the building assessed value in tax year 2001-2002 multiplied
15 by the then current class 2 tax rate;

16 (d) for tax year 2033-2034, the exemption benefit shall equal forty
17 percent of the difference between the then current building assessed
18 value and the building assessed value in tax year 2001-2002 multiplied
19 by the then current class 2 tax rate.

20 (e) for tax year 2034-2035, the exemption benefit shall equal twenty
21 percent of the difference between the then current building assessed
22 value and the building assessed value in tax year 2001-2002 multiplied
23 by the then current class 2 tax rate.

24 3. For tax lots granted benefits under this section pursuant to 25 certificates of eligibility issued on January 30, 2002, exemption bene-
26 fits shall be based upon all increases in the buildings assessed valu-
27 ation, without regard to whether such increases were the result of phys-
28 ical or equalization increases, as follows:

29 (a) beginning in tax year 2002-2003 and ending at the completion of
30 tax year 2031-2032, the exemption benefit shall equal the difference
31 between the building assessed value for that tax year and tax year
32 1998-1999 multiplied by the then current overall class 2 tax rate;

33 (b) for tax year 2032-2033, the exemption benefit shall equal eighty
34 percent of the difference between the then current building assessed
35 value and the building assessed value in tax year 2002-2003 multiplied
36 by the then current class 2 tax rate;

37 (c) for tax year 2033-2034, the exemption benefit shall equal sixty
38 percent of the difference between the then current building assessed
39 value and the building assessed value in tax year 2002-2003 multiplied
40 by the then current class 2 tax rate;

41 (d) for tax year 2034-2035, the exemption benefit shall equal forty
42 percent of the difference between the then current building assessed
43 value and the building assessed value in tax year 2002-2003 multiplied
44 by the then current class 2 tax rate;

45 (e) for tax year 2035-2036, the exemption benefit shall equal twenty
46 percent of the difference between the then current building assessed
47 value and the building assessed value in tax year 2002-2003 multiplied
48 by the then current class 2 tax rate;

49 4. For all tax years prior to the tax year in which this act takes 50 effect, all exemption benefits created pursuant to subdivisions two and 51 three of this section shall result in the creation of credits. The total 52 of all credits for tax years prior to the tax year in which this act
53 takes effect shall be applied by the New York city department of finance 54 to reduce taxes for the remainder of the benefit period, beginning in 55 the first tax year in which this act takes effect through tax year
56 2035-2036.

1 5. The New York city department of housing preservation and develop-2 ment is hereby empowered to grant an extension of the period of 3 completion for any project described in subdivision one of this section 4 if such alterations or improvements are completed within 96 months from 5 commencement of construction; provided that such conversion, alterations
6 or improvements shall in any event be completed prior to December 31, 7 2013.

8 S 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
