Introduced by M. of A. ROSENTHAL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to prohibiting bullying on school property

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEM-BLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Legislative intent. In recent years, New York has taken 2 steps to ensure that school pupils, teachers and other personnel are 3 provided with a safe and secure learning environment. However, egre-
4 gious incidents of bullying, both in person and through the use of tech-
5 nology, continue to plague all of our students. The legislature recog-6 nizes that bullying manifests in many forms and for innumerable reasons.
7 The legislature finds it is vital to protect all students from acts of 8 bullying, therefore, this legislation expands upon the provisions of 9 chapter 482 of the laws of 2010.
10 While the physical wounds may heal, the effects of bullying can last a 11 lifetime. Therefore, the legislature finds that prohibiting bullying is 12 an appropriate means to enhance the safety of students in New York
13 state's public schools. Furthermore, in today's age of advanced technol-14 ogy, twenty-four hour connectivity and social networking, students who 15 are subjected to acts of bullying have no reprieve. Taunts and acts of 16 bullying that begin in school follow students home every day, and have 17 lasting impacts on such students. Conversely, bullying through the use 18 of technology can begin away from school property, yet have devastating 19 effects on the student's ability to learn in a safe environment at 20 school. While bullying through the use of technology may occur away from 21 school property, it can create a hostile environment for the student at 22 school and it can materially and substantially disrupt the educational 23 process. Therefore, to further ensure the safety of students and school 24 employees, it is the intent of the legislature to provide schools with
