AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to directing the office of children and family services and the office of temporary and disability assistance to prepare a report concerning low income custodial parents' requirement to show good cause for a refusal to seek child support as a requirement for receiving a child care subsidy; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings. The legislature hereby finds that 2 certain parties allege that the office of children and family services' 3 regulations and directives requiring low income custodial parents to 4 actively seek child support from non-custodial parents or show good 5 cause as to why he or she cannot seek child support, as a condition of 6 eligibility for a child care subsidy, constitutes such an extreme disin-
7 centive to many individuals in need of such assistance and as such fail
8 to pursue needed assistance. The legislature finds that this is a seri-9 ous allegation, and declares its intent to obtain information as speedi-
10 ly as possible from the state agencies involved in order to take appro-11 priate action.

12 S 2. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 501-i to 13 read as follows:
