21 standards shall require all applicants filing a complaint for unpaid
22 wages with the division to provide either his or her social security 23 number or, in case of a noncitizen or undocumented immigrant, his or her 24 tax identification number. The division shall inform each applicant of 25 his or her duty to report his or her income to the department of tax-
26 ation and finance and shall provide him or her with an I-1099 tax form.
27 The division shall make available to all applicants instruction and 28 assistance in completing such forms, including but not limited to,
29 translation of such instructions for non-English speaking individuals or 30 those with limited English proficiency.

31 S 5. The commissioner of taxation and finance is hereby directed to 32 implement procedures to provide for the payment or partial payment of 33 income taxes due on judgments for unpaid or underpaid wages at the time
34 that the division of labor standards distributes an award to an eligible 35 employee.

36 S 6. The commissioner of labor is hereby authorized to promulgate any 37 rules or regulations necessary for the implementation of this act on or 38 before its effective date.

39 S 7. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxable
40 years beginning on and after January 1, 2012.
