AN ACT in relation to creating a temporary state commission on personal privacy to examine and assess the privacy of individuals in the state of New York and to make recommendations relative to the protection thereof

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. New York state historically has been a leader in protecting 2 the personal privacy of its citizens. Today governmental agencies and 3 commercial firms are constantly gathering and distributing more and more 4 detailed information on the personal lives of the citizens of New York.
5 The rapid advancement in technology in recent years has created new 6 potential threats to the privacy of individuals. The ability to collect, 7 collate, and transmit personal data using information technology now
8 allows isolated pieces of information on an individual to be compiled
9 into profiles of the individual. No comprehensive federal or state law
10 governs personal privacy, nor is any federal or state agency charged 11 with the sole responsibility of identifying personal privacy problems
12 that need to be addressed and encouraging the development and enactment 13 of policies aimed at protecting individuals' privacy. A thorough under-14 standing of the potential dangers to personal privacy is necessary in 15 order that the legislature may take the appropriate steps to protect the 16 privacy of the state's citizens at this pivotal point in time.

17 S 2. A temporary state commission is hereby established to be known as 18 the "commission on personal privacy". The role of the commission 19 includes, but is not limited to:

20 (a) assessing the level of citizen concern about personal privacy and,
21 to the extent possible, the incidence of privacy intrusions suffered by 22 New York citizens;

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [] is old law to be omitted.

6 state privacy protection laws and self-regulatory efforts undertaken by 7 businesses in protecting personal privacy;

8 (d) recommending appropriate legislative and administrative reforms
9 relating to state systems that collect and maintain personal information 10 of employees, public retirees and other persons to ensure that personal 11 information is not subject to misappropriation; and
