1. Any social services district [located outside of a city with a population of more than two million] may, upon the authorization of the office of children and family services, establish a program that implements differential responses to reports of child abuse and maltreatment. Such programs [would] SHALL create a family assessment and services track as an alternative means of addressing certain matters [currently] OTHERWISE investigated as allegations of child abuse or maltreatment pursuant to this title. Notwithstanding any other provision of the contrary, the provisions of this section [will] SHALL apply only to those cases involving allegations of abuse or maltreatment in family settings expressly included in the family assessment and services track of the differential response program, and only in those social districts authorized by the office of children and family services to implement a differential response program. Such cases shall not be subject to the requirements otherwise applicable to cases reported to the statewide central register of child abuse and maltreatment pursuant to this title, except as set forth in this section.

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [ ] is old law to be omitted.

S. 4504 2

- 8. The office of children and family services shall [complete a] report [evaluating the implementation of any] ON THE differential response programs established pursuant to this section AS PART OF THE ANNUAL REPORT REQUIRED PURSUANT TO SECTION FOUR HUNDRED TWENTY-SIX OF THIS TITLE. [The report shall assess the effectiveness of the programs in promoting broader community involvement in meeting service needs, expanding and expediting access to appropriate services, improving the cooperation of families, reducing subsequent abuse and maltreatment reports, and promoting child safety. Such report shall also recommend whether or not to continue the provisions of this section and shall be submitted to the governor and the legislature no later than the first day of January, two thousand eleven.]
- S 2. Section 3 of chapter 452 of the laws of 2007, amending the social services law relating to establishing differential response programs for child protection assessments or investigations, is amended to read as follows:
- S 3. This act shall take effect immediately [and shall expire June 1, 2011 when upon such date the provisions of this act shall be deemed repealed].
- S 3. This act shall take effect on June 1, 2011; provided, however, if this act shall become a law after such date it shall take effect immediately and shall be deemed to have been in full force and effect on and after June 1, 2011.
