Notwithstanding any other provision of law, when a verdict or decision in an action or claim for personal injury is determined in favor of a claimant in an action involving two or more tortfeasors jointly liable or in a claim against the state and the liability of a defendant is found to be fifty percent or less of the total [liability assigned to all persons liable] CULPABILITY OF ALL PERSONS DEEMED CULPA-BLE, the liability of such defendant to the claimant for non-economic shall not exceed that defendant's equitable share determined in accordance with the relative culpability of each person causing or contributing to the total [liability] CULPABILITY for non-economic loss; provided, however that the culpable conduct of any person not a party to action shall not be considered in determining any equitable share herein if the claimant proves that with due diligence he or she was unable to obtain jurisdiction over such person in said action (or in a claim against the state, in a court of this state); and further provided that the culpable conduct of any person shall not be considered in determining any equitable share herein to the extent that action against such person is barred because the claimant has not sustained a "grave injury" as defined in section eleven of the workers' compensation law.

23 S 2. Section 1603 of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by 24 chapter 635 of the laws of 1996, is amended to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [] is old law to be omitted.

S. 4579 2

S 1603. Burdens of proof. In any action or claim for damages for personal injury a party asserting that the limitations on liability set forth in this article do not apply shall allege and prove by a preponderance of the evidence that one or more of the exemptions set forth in subdivision one of section sixteen hundred one or section sixteen hundred two applies. A party asserting limited liability pursuant to this article shall have the burden of ALLEGING AND proving by a preponderance of the evidence THAT its equitable share of the total [liability] CULPABILITY IS FIFTY PERCENT OR LESS OF THE TOTAL CULPABILITY.

- S 3. Subdivision (b) of section 3018 of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 504 of the laws of 1980, is amended to read as follows:
- (b) Affirmative defenses. A party shall plead all matters which if not pleaded would be likely to take the adverse party by surprise or would raise issues of fact not appearing on the face of a prior pleading such as arbitration and award, collateral estoppel, culpable conduct claimed in diminution of damages as set forth in article fourteen-A, LIMITATION OF LIABILITY PURSUANT TO ARTICLE SIXTEEN, discharge in bankruptcy, facts showing illegality either by statute or common law, fraud, infancy or other disability of the party defending, payment, release, res judicata, statute of frauds, or statute of limitation. The application of this subdivision shall not be confined to the instances enumerated.
- 23 S 4. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-24 ing the date on which it shall have become a law and shall apply to all 25 actions commenced on or after such effective date and to all pending 26 actions in which trial has not yet commenced.
