S 313-a. Diversity practices of state contractors. The director shall promulgate rules and regulations setting forth measures and procedures to require all contracting agencies, where practicable, feasible appropriate, to assess the diversity practices of contractors submitting 5 bids or proposals in connection with the award of a state contract. Such 6 rules and regulations shall take into account: the nature of the labor, 7 services, PROFESSIONAL SERVICES, supplies, equipment or materials being 8 procured by the state agency; the method of procurement required to be used by a state agency to award the contract and minority and women-9 10 owned business utilization plans required to be submitted pursuant to 11 sections three hundred twelve and three hundred thirteen of this arti-12 cle; and such other factors as the director deems appropriate or necessary to promote the award of state contracts to contractors having sound 13 14 diversity practices. Such assessment shall not in any way permit 15 automatic rejection of a bid or procurement contract proposal based on 16 lack of adherence to diversity practices. Each bid or proposal shall be 17 analyzed on an individual per bid or per proposal basis with the 18 contractor's diversity practices considered as only a part of a wider 19 consideration of several factors when deciding to award or decline to 20 award a bid or proposal. The director shall develop the rules and regulations required hereunder only after consultation with the state 21 procurement council established by section one hundred sixty-one of 22 23 state finance law. 24

S 6. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law; provided that the amendments to article 15-A of the executive law made by sections one, two, three, four and five of this act, shall not affect the expiration of such article and shall expire therewith. Provided, further, that, effective immediately, any rules and regulations necessary to implement the provisions of this act on its effective date are authorized and directed to be completed on or before such date.
