1 as that phrase is defined in subdivision fourteen of section 220.00 of 2 the penal law; or defined in the penal law as an attempt to commit 3 murder in the second degree or kidnapping in the first degree, or such 4 conduct as a sexually motivated felony, where authorized pursuant to 6 S 2. Paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision 3 and subdivision 5 of 7 section 180.75 of the criminal procedure law, paragraph (a) of subdivi-8 sion 3 as added by chapter 481 of the laws of 1978, paragraph (b) of 9 subdivision 3 as amended by chapter 920 of the laws of 1982 and subdivi-10 sion 5 as added by chapter 411 of the laws of 1979, are amended to read 11 as follows:

12 (a) If there is reasonable cause to believe that the defendant commit-13 ted a crime for which a person under the age of [sixteen] EIGHTEEN is 14 criminally responsible, the court must order that the defendant be held 15 for the action of a grand jury of the appropriate superior court, and it 16 must promptly transmit to such superior court the order, the felony 17 complaint, the supporting depositions and all other pertinent documents.
18 Until such papers are received by the superior court, the action is 19 deemed to be still pending in the local criminal court; or 20 (b) If there is not reasonable cause to believe that the defendant

21 committed a crime for which a person under the age of [sixteen] EIGHTEEN 22 is criminally responsible but there is reasonable cause to believe that 23 the defendant is a "juvenile delinquent" as defined in subdivision one 24 of section 301.2 of the family court act, the court must specify the act 25 or acts it found reasonable cause to believe the defendant did and 26 direct that the action be removed to the family court in accordance with 27 the provisions of article seven hundred twenty-five of this chapter; or 28 5. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision two, three, or four, 29 if a currently undetermined felony complaint against a juvenile offender 30 is pending in a local criminal court, and the defendant has not waived a 31 hearing pursuant to subdivision two and a hearing pursuant to subdivi-32 sion three has not commenced, the defendant may move in the superior 33 court which would exercise the trial jurisdiction of the offense or 34 offenses charged were an indictment therefor to result, to remove the 35 action to family court. The procedural rules of subdivisions one and two 36 of section 210.45 of this chapter are applicable to a motion pursuant to 37 this subdivision. Upon such motion, the superior court shall be author-38 ized to sit as a local criminal court to exercise the preliminary juris-39 diction specified in subdivisions two and three of this section, and 40 shall proceed and determine the motion as provided in section 210.43 of 41 this chapter[; provided, however, that the exception provisions of para-42 graph (b) of subdivision one of such section 210.43 shall not apply when 43 there is not reasonable cause to believe that the juvenile offender 44 committed one or more of the crimes enumerated therein, and in such 45 event the provisions of paragraph (a) thereof shall apply].

46 S 3. Subdivisions (a), (b) and (c) of section 190.71 of the criminal 47 procedure law, subdivision (a) as amended by chapter 7 of the laws of 48 2007 and subdivisions (b) and (c) as added by chapter 481 of the laws of 49 1978, are amended to read as follows:

50 (a) Except as provided in subdivision six of section 200.20 of this 51 chapter, a grand jury may not indict (i) a person thirteen years of age 52 for any conduct or crime other than conduct constituting a crime defined 53 in subdivisions one and two of section 125.25 (murder in the second 54 degree) or such conduct as a sexually motivated felony, where authorized 55 pursuant to section 130.91 of the penal law; (ii) a person fourteen 56 [or], fifteen, SIXTEEN OR SEVENTEEN years of age for any conduct or

1 crime other than conduct constituting a crime defined in subdivisions 2 one and two of section 125.25 (murder in the second degree) and in 3 subdivision three of such section provided that the underlying crime for 4 the murder charge is one for which such person is criminally responsi-5 ble; 135.25 (kidnapping in the first degree); 150.20 (arson in the first 6 degree); subdivisions one and two of section 120.10 (assault in the 7 first degree); 125.20 (manslaughter in the first degree); subdivisions 8 one and two of section 130.35 (rape in the first degree); subdivisions 9 one and two of section 130.50 (criminal sexual act in the first degree); 10 130.70 (aggravated sexual abuse in the first degree); 140.30 (burglary 11 in the first degree); subdivision one of section 140.25 (burglary in the 12 second degree); 150.15 (arson in the second degree); 160.15 (robbery in 13 the first degree); subdivision two of section 160.10 (robbery in the 14 second degree) of the penal law; subdivision four of section 265.02 of 15 the penal law, where such firearm is possessed on school grounds, as 16 that phrase is defined in subdivision fourteen of section 220.00 of the 17 penal law; or section 265.03 of the penal law, where such machine gun or 18 such firearm is possessed on school grounds, as that phrase is defined 19 in subdivision fourteen of section 220.00 of the penal law; or defined 20 in the penal law as an attempt to commit murder in the second degree or 21 kidnapping in the first degree, or such conduct as a sexually motivated 22 felony, where authorized pursuant to section 130.91 of the penal law.

23 (b) A grand jury may vote to file a request to remove a charge to the 24 family court if it finds that a person thirteen, fourteen [or], fifteen, 25 SIXTEEN OR SEVENTEEN years of age did an act which, if done by a person 26 over the age of [sixteen] EIGHTEEN, would constitute a crime provided 27 (1) such act is one for which it may not indict; (2) it does not indict 28 such person for a crime; and (3) the evidence before it is legally 29 sufficient to establish that such person did such act and competent and 30 admissible evidence before it provides reasonable cause to believe that 31 such person did such act.

32 (c) Upon voting to remove a charge to the family court pursuant to 33 subdivision (b) of this section, the grand jury must, through its fore-34 man or acting foreman, file a request to transfer such charge to the 35 family court. Such request shall be filed with the court by which it was 36 impaneled. It must (1) allege that a person named therein did any act 37 which, if done by a person over the age of [sixteen] EIGHTEEN, would 38 constitute a crime; (2) specify the act and the time and place of its 39 commission; and (3) be signed by the foreman or the acting foreman.

40 S 4. Subdivision 6 of section 200.20 of the criminal procedure law, as 41 added by chapter 136 of the laws of 1980, is amended to read as follows:

42 6. Where an indictment charges at least one offense against a defend-43 ant who was under the age of [sixteen] EIGHTEEN at the time of the 44 commission of the crime and who did not lack criminal responsibility for 45 such crime by reason of infancy, the indictment may, in addition, charge 46 in separate counts one or more other offenses for which such person 47 would not have been criminally responsible by reason of infancy, if:

48 (a) the offense for which the defendant is criminally responsible and 49 the one or more other offenses for which he would not have been crimi-50 nally responsible by reason of infancy are based upon the same act or 51 upon the same criminal transaction, as that term is defined in subdivi-52 sion two of section 40.10 of this chapter; or

53 (b) the offenses are of such nature that either proof of the first 54 offense would be material and admissible as evidence in chief upon a 55 trial of the second, or proof of the second would be material and admis-56 sible as evidence in chief upon a trial of the first.

1 S 5. Subdivision 5 of section 210.20 of the criminal procedure law, as 2 added by chapter 136 of the laws of 1980, is amended to read as follows:

3 5. If the court dismisses one or more counts of an indictment, against 4 a defendant who was under the age of [sixteen] EIGHTEEN at the time of 5 the commission of the crime and who did not lack criminal responsibility 6 for such crime by reason of infancy, and one or more other counts of the 7 indictment having been joined in the indictment solely with the 8 dismissed count pursuant to subdivision six of section 200.20 is not 9 dismissed, the court must direct that such count be removed to the fami-10 ly court in accordance with article seven hundred twenty-five of this 11 chapter.

12 S 6. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of section 210.43 of the criminal 13 procedure law, as amended by chapter 264 of the laws of 2003, is amended 14 to read as follows:

15 (b) [with the consent of the district attorney,] order removal of an 16 action involving an indictment charging a juvenile offender with murder 17 in the second degree as defined in section 125.25 of the penal law; rape 18 in the first degree, as defined in subdivision one of section 130.35 of 19 the penal law; criminal sexual act in the first degree, as defined in 20 subdivision one of section 130.50 of the penal law; or an armed felony 21 as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision forty-one of section 1.20, to 22 the family court pursuant to the provisions of article seven hundred 23 twenty-five of this chapter if the court finds one or more of the 24 following factors: (i) mitigating circumstances that bear directly upon 25 the manner in which the crime was committed; (ii) where the defendant 26 was not the sole participant in the crime, the defendant's participation 27 was relatively minor although not so minor as to constitute a defense to 28 the prosecution; or (iii) possible deficiencies in the proof of the 29 crime, and, after consideration of the factors set forth in subdivision 30 two of this section, the court determined that removal of the action to 31 the family court would be in the interests of justice.

32 S 7. Subparagraphs (i), (iii) and the second undesignated paragraph of 33 paragraph (g) of subdivision 5 of section 220.10 of the criminal proce-34 dure law, subparagraph (i) as amended by chapter 410 of the laws of 35 1979, subparagraph (iii) as amended by chapter 264 of the laws of 2003 36 and the second undesignated paragraph as amended by chapter 920 of the 37 laws of 1982, are amended to read as follows:

38 (i) If the indictment charges a person fourteen [or] fifteen, SIXTEEN 39 OR SEVENTEEN years old with the crime of murder in the second degree any 40 plea of guilty entered pursuant to subdivision three or four must be a 41 plea of guilty of a crime for which the defendant is criminally respon-42 sible;

43 (iii) Where the indictment does not charge a crime specified in 44 subparagraph (i) of this paragraph, the district attorney may recommend 45 removal of the action to the family court. Upon making such recommenda-46 tion the district attorney shall submit a subscribed memorandum setting 47 forth: (1) a recommendation that the interests of justice would best be 48 served by removal of the action to the family court; and (2) if the 49 indictment charges a thirteen year old with the crime of murder in the 50 second degree, or a fourteen [or], fifteen, SIXTEEN OR SEVENTEEN year 51 old with the crimes of rape in the first degree as defined in subdivi-52 sion one of section 130.35 of the penal law, or criminal sexual act in 53 the first degree as defined in subdivision one of section 130.50 of the 54 penal law, or an armed felony as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision 55 forty-one of section 1.20 of this chapter specific factors, one or more 56 of which reasonably supports the recommendation, showing, (i) mitigating

1 circumstances that bear directly upon the manner in which the crime was 2 committed, or (ii) where the defendant was not the sole participant in 3 the crime, that the defendant's participation was relatively minor 4 although not so minor as to constitute a defense to the prosecution, or 5 (iii) possible deficiencies in proof of the crime, or (iv) where the 6 juvenile offender has no previous adjudications of having committed a 7 designated felony act, as defined in subdivision eight of section 301.2 8 of the family court act, regardless of the age of the offender at the 9 time of commission of the act, that the criminal act was not part of a 10 pattern of criminal behavior and, in view of the history of the offen-11 der, is not likely to be repeated.

12 If the court is of the opinion [based on specific factors set forth in 13 the district attorney's memorandum] that the interests of justice would 14 best be served by removal of the action to the family court, a plea of 15 guilty of a crime or act for which the defendant is not criminally 16 responsible may be entered pursuant to subdivision three or four of this 17 section, except that a thirteen year old charged with the crime of 18 murder in the second degree may only plead to a designated felony act, 19 as defined in subdivision eight of section 301.2 of the family court 20 act.

21 S 8. Subdivision 5 of section 300.50 of the criminal procedure law, 22 as added by chapter 481 of the laws of 1978, is amended to read as 23 follows:

24 5. Where the indictment charges a crime committed by the defendant 25 while he OR SHE was under the age of [sixteen] EIGHTEEN but a lesser 26 included offense would be one for which the defendant is not criminally 27 responsible by reason of infancy, such lesser included offense may 28 nevertheless be submitted to the jury in the same manner as an offense 29 for which the defendant would be criminally responsible notwithstanding 30 the fact that a verdict of guilty would not result in a criminal 31 conviction.

32 S 9. Section 330.25 of the criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 33 481 of the laws of 1978, and subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 920 of 34 the laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows:
35 S 330.25 Removal after verdict.

36 1. Where a defendant is a juvenile offender who does not stand 37 convicted of murder in the second degree, upon motion [and with the 38 consent of the district attorney], the action may be removed to the 39 family court in the interests of justice pursuant to article seven 40 hundred twenty-five of this chapter notwithstanding the verdict.

41 2. [If the district attorney consents to the motion for removal pursu-42 ant to this section, he shall file a subscribed memorandum with the 43 court setting forth (1) a recommendation that] IN DETERMINING THE 44 MOTION, THE COURT SHALL CONSIDER: (1) WHETHER the interests of justice 45 would best be served by removal of the action to the family court; and 46 (2) if the conviction is of an offense set forth in paragraph (b) of 47 subdivision one of section 210.43 of this chapter, WHETHER specific 48 factors EXIST, one or more of which reasonably [support] SUPPORTS the 49 [recommendation] MOTION, showing, (i) mitigating circumstances that bear 50 directly upon the manner in which the crime was committed, or (ii) where 51 the defendant was not the sole participant in the crime, that the 52 defendant's participation was relatively minor although not so minor as 53 to constitute a defense to prosecution, or (iii) where the juvenile 54 offender has no previous adjudications of having committed a designated 55 felony act, as defined in subdivision eight of section 301.2 of the 56 family court act, regardless of the age of the offender at the time of 1 commission of the act, that the criminal act was not part of a pattern 2 of criminal behavior and, in view of the history of the offender, is not 3 likely to be repeated.

4 3. If the court is of the opinion, based upon the specific factors
5 [set forth in the district attorney's memorandum] SHOWN TO THE COURT, 6 that the interests of justice would best be served by removal of the 7 action to the family court, the verdict shall be set aside and a plea of 8 guilty of a crime or act for which the defendant is not criminally 9 responsible may be entered pursuant to subdivision three or four of 10 section 220.10 of this chapter. Upon accepting any such plea, the court 11 must specify upon the record the [portion or portions of the district 12 attorney's statement] FACTORS the court is relying upon as the basis of 13 its opinion and that it believes the interests of justice would best be 14 served by removal of the proceeding to the family court. Such plea 15 shall then be deemed to be a juvenile delinquency fact determination and 16 the court upon entry thereof must direct that the action be removed to 17 the family court in accordance with the provisions of article seven 18 hundred twenty-five of this chapter.

19 S 10. Section 510.15 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by 20 chapter 411 of the laws of 1979, subdivision 1 as designated and subdi-21 vision 2 as added by chapter 359 of the laws of 1980, is amended to read
22 as follows:

23 S 510.15 Commitment of principal under [sixteen] EIGHTEEN.

24 1. When a principal who is under the age of [sixteen] EIGHTEEN is 25 committed to the custody of the sheriff the court must direct that the 26 principal be taken to and lodged in a place certified by the state
27 [division for youth] OFFICE OF CHILDREN AND FAMILY SERVICES as a juve-28 nile detention facility for the reception of children. Where such a 29 direction is made the sheriff shall deliver the principal in accordance 30 therewith and such person shall although lodged and cared for in a juve-31 nile detention facility continue to be deemed to be in the custody of 32 the sheriff. No principal under the age of [sixteen] EIGHTEEN to whom 33 the provisions of this section may apply shall be detained in any pris-34 on, jail, lockup, or other place used for adults convicted of a crime or 35 under arrest and charged with the commission of a crime without the 36 approval of the state [division for youth] OFFICE OF CHILDREN AND FAMILY
37 SERVICES in the case of each principal and the statement of its reasons 38 therefor. The sheriff shall not be liable for any acts done to or by 39 such principal resulting from negligence in the detention of and care 40 for such principal, when the principal is not in the actual custody of 41 the sheriff.

42 2. Except upon consent of the defendant or for good cause shown, in 43 any case in which a new securing order is issued for a principal previ-44 ously committed to the custody of the sheriff pursuant to this section, 45 such order shall further direct the sheriff to deliver the principal 46 from a juvenile detention facility to the person or place specified in 47 the order.

48 S 11. Subdivision 1 of section 720.10 of the criminal procedure law, 49 as amended by chapter 411 of the laws of 1979, is amended to read as 50 follows:

51 1. "Youth" means a person charged with a crime alleged to have been 52 committed when he was at least [sixteen] EIGHTEEN years old and less 53 than [nineteen] TWENTY years old or a person charged with being a juve-54 nile offender as defined in subdivision forty-two of section 1.20 of
