(b) It is hereby further found and determined that: (1) each such bond resolution was adopted taking effect immediately and thereby requiring repayment over five years from the date of the first obligation issued therefor; (2) various violations of the local finance law occurred with the bond resolutions and issuance of notes pursuant to such bond resolutions in that the bond resolutions indicated a period of probable usefulness in excess of five years but no permissive referendum process was followed and principal payments made did not satisfy the requirements for amortizing the obligations over five years since the bond resolutions, to take effect without permissive referendum, would have to so limit the financing timeframe; and (3) in certain instances bond anticipation renewal notes were issued after the fifth year anniversary of the first bond anticipation note issued therefor.

S 2. Notwithstanding the defects described in section one of this act, the bond anticipation notes issued by the village pursuant to each of the bond resolutions identified in section one of this act, and all resolutions, acts and proceedings adopted or taken by the board of trustees and the village treasurer of such village in relation thereto, are hereby validated, ratified and confirmed. The village is hereby authorized to issue bonds or bond anticipation renewal notes to continue financing the objects and purposes authorized pursuant to the aforesaid bond resolutions over the period of probable usefulness thereof as set forth in section 11.00 of the local finance law.

S 3. Except as otherwise provided in this act, any obligations issued pursuant to this act shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of the local finance law.

S 4. If any clause, sentence, subdivision, paragraph, section or part of this act be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, subdivision, paragraph, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

S 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
