AN ACT in relation to establishing the commission on education in the twenty-first century; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEM-BLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Commission established. (a) There is hereby created in the 2 executive department a commission to be known as the "commission on 3 education in the twenty-first century", hereafter referred to as the 4 "commission", which shall be charged with examining the system of school
5 districts and the delivery of education related services in New York 6 state and recommending changes to that system in light of factors 7 submitted pursuant to section four of this act and any additional 8 factors established by the commission.
9 (b) The commission shall consist of eighteen statewide members, and 10 regional members appointed pursuant to section six of this act. The 11 eighteen statewide members shall be appointed as follows: (i) two 12 members shall be appointed by the temporary president of the senate; 13 (ii) two members shall be appointed by the speaker of the assembly; 14 (iii) one member shall be appointed by the minority leader of the 15 senate; (iv) one member shall be appointed by the minority leader of the 16 assembly; (v) two members shall be appointed by the governor; and (vi) 17 ten members shall be appointed by the board of regents. The board of 18 regents shall designate the chair from among the statewide members of 19 the commission.
20 (c) The members of the commission shall receive no compensation for 21 their services as members, but shall be allowed their actual and neces-

1 sary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. Members of 2 the commission shall be considered public officers for purposes of 3 section 17 of the public officers law.

4 (d) The commission shall begin to act forty-five days after this act 5 shall have become a law. A quorum shall consist of a majority of the 6 members of the commission entitled to vote on the matter under consider-7 ation. Approval of any matter shall require the affirmative vote of a 8 majority of the members voting thereon.

9 (e) The statewide members of the commission shall adopt by-laws for 10 the management and regulation of its affairs.

11 S 2. Appointments to commission. The legislative leaders and the 12 governor shall submit their appointments to the board of regents, and 13 the board of regents shall make appointments, no later than forty-five 14 days after this act becomes a law. If any such appointment is not made 15 by such date, the person or board responsible for making the appointment 16 pursuant to subdivision (b) of section one of this act may make the 17 appointment after that date, but the vacant appointment shall not count
18 for calculation of a quorum until it is filled. Vacancies in the commis-19 sion shall be filled in the same manner as the member whose vacancy is 20 being filled was appointed.

21 S 3. Commission staff and agency liaison. (a) The commissioner of 22 education shall designate such employees of the state education depart-23 ment as are reasonably necessary to provide support services to the 24 commission. The commission, acting by the chair of the commission, may 25 employ additional staff and consultants, who shall be paid from amounts 26 available to the commission for that purpose.

27 (b) The commissioner of education shall appoint one or more represen-28 tatives of the department of education to serve as liaison between such 29 department and the commission. All state agencies, public authorities 30 and public benefit corporations shall provide such assistance as may be 31 reasonably requested by the chair of the commission.

32 S 4. Factors and information for consideration. (a) The commissioner 33 of education shall submit to the commission, no later than ninety days 34 after this act becomes a law, a list of factors to be considered in its 35 deliberations, which shall include but not be limited to: (i) geography, 36 including physical proximity and the size of the current school
37 districts and boards of cooperative educational services in each region 38 of the state; (ii) demographics, including student enrollment trends and 39 the composition and nature of communities in the current school
40 districts and boards of cooperative educational services in each region 41 of the state; (iii) economics, including existing collaborations to be 42 preserved or enhanced and opportunities to deliver commodities and 43 services through boards of cooperative educational services or other 44 entities; (iv) transportation and the potential for regional transporta-45 tion services; (v) special education and the potential for regional 46 special education services; (vi) population density; and (vii) other 47 unique circumstances including the need to preserve existing or develop-48 ing relationships, meet the needs of students, maximize educational 49 opportunities for students, assure local control, maintain the character 50 of community schools and ensure equitable access to rigorous programs 51 for all students.

52 (b) The commissioner of education may submit additional relevant 53 factors to be considered in the deliberations of the commission. The 54 commission may also adopt additional factors to be considered in its 55 deliberations.

1 S 5. Deliberations of commission. The deliberations, meetings and 2 other proceedings of the commission and any committee thereof shall be 3 governed by article 7 of the public officers law. Any one or more 4 members of a committee may participate in a meeting of such committee by 5 means of a conference telephone, conference video or similar communi-6 cations equipment allowing all persons participating in the meeting to 7 hear each other at the same time. Participation by such means shall 8 constitute presence in person at a meeting. At any meetings of the 9 commission conducted by means of a conference telephone, conference 10 video or similar communications equipment, other than executive 11 sessions, the public shall be given an opportunity to listen. If a meet-12 ing other than an executive session is to be conducted by means of a 13 conference telephone, conference video or similar communications equip-14 ment, the public notice for the meeting shall inform the public that 15 such equipment will be used, and identify the means by which the public 16 may listen to such meeting.

17 S 6. Regional input. (a) There shall be eight regional members of the 18 commission for each region established pursuant to this section. For 19 each region, two regional members shall be appointed by the governor, 20 two regional members shall be appointed by the temporary president of 21 the senate, two regional members shall be appointed by the speaker of 22 the assembly, and two regional members shall be appointed by the board 23 of regents. Regional members shall be considered to be members of the 24 commission for purposes of this act, provided that:

25 (i) Regional members shall vote and be counted for quorum purposes 26 only when the commission is acting on recommendations relating solely to 27 the regional members' respective region; and 28 (ii) Regional members shall not be considered to be members of the 29 commission for purposes of participation in commission meetings, except 30 where items relating specifically to that member's region are on the 31 agenda of a commission meeting.

32 (b) For purposes of this act, there shall be six regions:

33 (i) Long Island, consisting of the Eastern Suffolk, Nassau and Western 34 Suffolk boards of cooperative educational services;

35 (ii) New York City;

36 (iii) Hudson Valley, consisting of the Dutchess, Orange-Ulster,
37 Putnam-Northern Westchester, Rockland, Southern Westchester, Sullivan
38 and Ulster boards of cooperative educational services;

39 (iv) Eastern, consisting of the Capital Region, Clinton-Essex-Warren-40 Washington, Delaware-Chenango-Madison-Otsego, Franklin-Essex-Hamilton, 41 Hamilton-Fulton-Montgomery, Otsego-Delaware-Schoharie-Greene, Questar
42 III, St. Lawrence-Lewis and Washington-Saratoga-Warren-Hamilton-Essex 43 boards of cooperative educational services;

44 (v) Central, consisting of the Broome-Tioga, Cayuga-Onondaga, Jeffer-
45 son-Lewis-Hamilton-Herkimer-Oneida, Herkimer-Hamilton-Fulton-Oswego, 46 Madison-Oneida, Oneida-Herkimer-Madison, Onondaga-Cortland-Madison, 47 Oswego, Schuyler, Chemung, Tioga and Tompkins-Seneca-Tioga boards of 48 cooperative educational services;

49 (vi) Western, consisting of the Cattaraugus-Allegany-Erie-Wyoming,
50 Erie 1, Erie 2-Chautauqua-Cattaraugus, Genesee Valley, Monroe 1, Monroe 51 2-Orleans, Ontario-Seneca-Yates-Cayuga-Wayne, Orleans-Niagara and Great-52 er Southern Tier boards of cooperative educational services.

53 (c) The commission shall establish a regional advisory committee for 54 each region. The maximum number of members of each regional advisory 55 committee shall be determined by the commission. Members of each 56 regional advisory committee shall be appointed in equal numbers by the

1 governor, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the 2 assembly and the board of regents. The governor, the temporary president 3 of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, and the board of regents 4 shall submit to the commission their appointments to the regional advisory 5 committees no later than ninety days after this act shall have 6 become a law. If any such appointment is not made by such date, the 7 person or board responsible for making such appointment may make the 8 appointment after that date, but the vacant appointment shall not count 9 for calculation of a quorum until such position is filled. Vacancies in 10 regional advisory committees shall be filled in the same manner as the 11 member whose vacancy is being filled was appointed. The regional advisory 12 committees shall begin to act ninety days after this act shall have 13 become a law.

14 (d) Each regional advisory committee upon consideration of demographic, 15 geographic, educational and fiscal indicators within each board of 16 cooperative educational services region, shall develop recommendations 17 for reconfiguring such region's school districts and administrative 18 functions to align educational services with regional and local needs.
19 In carrying out its functions, a regional advisory committee shall 20 foster discussions among, and conduct formal public hearings with requisite 21 public notice to solicit input from, local stakeholders' interests, 22 including but not limited to, school district administrators, district 23 superintendents and superintendents of schools, teachers, school board 24 members, parents, students, non-pedagogical school support personnel, 25 representatives from post-secondary institutions and other pertinent 26 groups and individuals. In developing its recommendations, each regional 27 advisory committee shall as far as practicable estimate the efficiencies 28 that may be derived from such school district or administrative reconfiguration.
29 On November 15, 2012, each regional advisory committee shall 30 transmit to the commission a report containing its recommendations, 31 which shall include specific recommendations for school district and 32 administrative reconfigurations. Such recommendations shall include but 33 not be limited to: delivery of commodities and services; pupil transportation; 34 specialized professional development; maintenance; insurance procurement; 35 payroll administration; human resources and employee benefit coordination; 36 cooperative purchasing coordination; centralization of business operations;
37 printing services; state aid planning; textbook purchasing and substitute 38 teacher coordination; safety and risk management; the units of school 39 administration to be included in the reconfigured school district; the 40 units of school administration that will be transferred to the board of 41 cooperative educational services; size, composition and apportionment of 42 the governing body; the composition, powers and duties of any local 43 school committees to be created; the disposition of real and personal 44 school property; the disposition of existing school indebtedness and 45 lease-purchase; the assignment of school personnel contracts, school 46 collective bargaining agreements and other school contractual obligations; 47 the disposition of existing school funds and existing financial obligations, 48 including undesignated fund balances, trust funds, reserve funds and 49 other funds appropriated for school purposes; a transition plan that 50 addresses the development of a budget for the first school year and 51 interim personnel policies; an estimate of the cost savings to be 52 achieved through reconfiguration and how costs will be reduced; recommended 53 dates by which such actions should occur; necessary investments, if any, 54 that should be made in each case to carry out the regional advisory 55 committee's recommendations; and the regional advisory committee's 56 justification for its recommendations,

1 including the use of any factors developed pursuant to section four of 2 this act.

3 (e) The failure of any regional advisory committee to perform the 4 duties imposed by this section shall not affect the obligation of the 5 commission to perform the duties imposed by section seven of this act.

6 S 7. Commission recommendations. (a) The commission, upon consider-7 ation of demographic, geographic, educational and fiscal indicators 8 within each board of cooperative educational services region, shall 9 develop recommendations for reconfiguring school districts and adminis-10 trative functions to align educational services with regional and local 11 needs. In carrying out its functions, the commission shall collaborate 12 with the regional advisory committees insofar as practicable to foster 13 discussions among, and conduct formal public hearings with requisite 14 public notice to solicit input and recommendations from statewide and 15 regional stakeholder interests including but not limited to school 16 district administrators, district superintendents and superintendents of 17 schools, teachers, school board members, parents, students, non-pedagog-18 ical school support personnel, representatives from post-secondary 19 institutions and other pertinent groups and individuals. The commission 20 shall formally solicit recommendations from school district administra-21 tors, district superintendents and superintendents of schools, teachers, 22 school board members, parents, students, non-pedagogical school support 23 personnel, representatives from post-secondary institutions and other 24 interested parties in each region of the state, and it shall take into 25 account such recommendations and the recommendations of the regional 26 advisory committees during its deliberations. In developing its recom-27 mendations, the commission shall as far as practicable estimate the 28 efficiencies that may be derived from such school district and adminis-29 trative reconfiguration, and shall consider the recommendations of the 30 regional advisory committees.

31 (b) The commission shall make recommendations relating to school 32 district and administrative reconfiguration, within each region. The 33 regional commission members shall vote as members of the commission only 34 when the commission is acting on recommendations relating solely to the 35 regional commission members' region.

36 (c) Such recommendations shall include but not be limited to: delivery 37 of commodities and services; pupil transportation; specialized profes-38 sional development; maintenance; insurance procurement; payroll adminis-
39 tration; human resources and employee benefit coordination; cooperative 40 purchasing coordination; centralization of business operations; printing 41 services; state aid planning; textbook purchasing and substitute teacher 42 coordination; safety and risk management; the units of school adminis-43 tration to be included in the reconfigured school district; the units of 44 school administration that will be transferred to the board of cooper-45 ative educational services; size, composition and apportionment of the 46 governing body; the composition, powers and duties of any local school 47 committees to be created; the disposition of real and personal school 48 property; the disposition of existing school indebtedness and lease-pur-49 chase; the assignment of school personnel contracts, school collective 50 bargaining agreements and other school contractual obligations; the 51 disposition of existing school funds and existing financial obligations, 52 including undesignated fund balances, trust funds, reserve funds and 53 other funds appropriated for school purposes; a transition plan that 54 addresses the development of a budget for the first school year and 55 interim personnel policies; an estimate of the cost savings to be 56 achieved through reconfiguration and how costs will be reduced; recommended dates by which such actions should occur; necessary investments, if any, that should be made in each case to carry out the commission's recommendations; the commission's response to the recommendations of the regional advisory committees; and the commissioner's justification for its recommendations, including the use of the factors pursuant to section four of this act.

(d) On or before December 1, 2012, the commission shall transmit to the governor and the legislature a report containing its recommendations, which shall include specific recommendations for school districts to be reconfigured and specific recommendations for administrative services to be transferred to boards of cooperative educational services. Upon the transmission of the report to the governor and the legislature the commission shall be dissolved.

S 8. Implementation of recommendations. (a) Notwithstanding any contrary provision of law, rule or regulation related to the reconfiguring of school districts and administrative services the commissioner of education shall take all actions necessary to implement, in a reasonable, cost-efficient manner, the recommendations of the commission pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c) of section seven of this act. Such school districts and boards of cooperative educational services shall submit to the commissioner of education, at a time and in a form as determined by the commissioner of education, an acceptable plan of reconfiguration in accordance with applicable regulations.

(b) The provisions of subdivision (a) of this section shall not apply: (i) unless the governor has transmitted the commission's report under section seven of this act with his or her written approval of the recommendations of the commission pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c) of section seven of this act to the commissioner of education and transmitted a message to the legislature stating his or her approval of the report on or before December 5, 2012; and (ii) if a majority of the members of each house of the legislature vote to adopt a concurrent resolution rejecting the recommendations of the commission pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c) of section seven of this act in their entirety by December 31, 2012, after receiving a message from the governor under this subdivision. In no event shall the commissioner of education begin to implement the recommendations of the commission pursuant to subdivisions (b) and (c) of section seven of this act prior to December 31, 2012.

S 9. The commission shall be authorized and entitled to receive any grants offered pursuant to section 54 of the state finance law.

S 10. Severability clause. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of the legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such invalid provisions had not been included herein.

S 11. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire and be deemed repealed June 30, 2014.
