10. ANY MOTION TO VACATE OR MODIFY AN ORDER OF PROTECTION, INCLUDING A
21 PERMANENT ORDER OF PROTECTION, OR A TEMPORARY ORDER OF PROTECTION SHALL 22 BE MADE ON NOTICE TO THE NON-MOVING PARTY.

23 S 9. Section 842 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 222 of 24 the laws of 1994, the opening paragraph as separately amended by chap-25 and 341 of the laws of 2010, subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d) 325 ters 26 and (e) as amended by chapter 483 of the laws of 1995, subdivision (i) as added by chapter 253 of the laws of 2006, subdivision (j) as added by 27 chapter 483 of the laws of 1995 and as relettered by chapter 253 of the 28 29 laws of 2006, the second undesignated paragraph as amended by chapter of the laws of 2010, the third undesignated paragraph as amended by 30 325 chapter 224 of the laws of 1994, the sixth undesignated paragraph as 31 32 added by section 8 of part D of chapter 56 of the laws of 2008, the 33 seventh undesignated paragraph as amended by chapter 326 of the laws of 2008 and the closing paragraph as added by chapter 73 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows: 34 35

36 S 842. Order of protection. An order of protection under section 37 eight hundred forty-one of this part shall set forth reasonable condi-38 tions of behavior to be observed for a period not in excess of two years 39 by the petitioner or respondent or for a period not in excess of five 40 years upon (i) a finding by the court on the record of the existence of aggravating circumstances as defined in paragraph (vii) of subdivision 41 (a) of section eight hundred twenty-seven of this article, THE COURT MAY 42 43 ISSUE AN ORDER OF PROTECTION FOR A FIXED PERIOD IN EXCESS OF ONE YEAR OR PERMANENT ORDER OF PROTECTION; or (ii) a finding by the court on the 44 А 45 record that the conduct alleged in the petition is in violation of a valid order of protection. Any finding of aggravating circumstances 46 47 pursuant to this section shall be stated on the record and upon the 48 order of protection. The court may also, upon motion, extend the order of protection for a reasonable period of time upon a showing of 49 qood 50 consent of the parties. The fact that abuse has not occurred cause or 51 during the pendency of an order shall not, in itself, constitute sufficient ground for denying or failing to extend the order. The court must 52 articulate a basis for its decision on the record. The duration of any 53 54 temporary order shall not by itself be a factor in determining the 55 length or issuance of any final order. Any order of protection issued pursuant to this section shall specify if an order of probation is in 56

1 2

3 (a) to stay away from the home, school, business or place of employ-4 ment of any other party, the other spouse, the other parent, or the child, and to stay away from any other specific location designated by the court, provided that the court shall make a determination, and shall 5 6 7 state such determination in a written decision or on the record, whether to impose a condition pursuant to this subdivision, provided further, 8 9 however, that failure to make such a determination shall not affect the 10 validity of such order of protection. In making such determination, the court shall consider, but shall not be limited to consideration of, 11 12 whether the order of protection is likely to achieve its purpose in the 13 absence of such a condition, conduct subject to prior orders of 14 protection, prior incidents of abuse, extent of past or present injury, 15 threats, drug or alcohol abuse, and access to weapons;

16 (b) to permit a parent, or a person entitled to visitation by a court 17 order or a separation agreement, to visit the child at stated periods;

(c) to refrain from committing a family offense, as defined in subdivision one of section eight hundred twelve of this act, or any criminal offense against the child or against the other parent or against any person to whom custody of the child is awarded, or from harassing, intimidating or threatening such persons;

(d) to permit a designated party to enter the residence during a specified period of time in order to remove personal belongings not in issue in this proceeding or in any other proceeding or action under this act or the domestic relations law;

27 (e) to refrain from acts of commission or omission that create an 28 unreasonable risk to the health, safety or welfare of a child;

(f) to pay the reasonable counsel fees and disbursements involved in obtaining or enforcing the order of the person who is protected by such order if such order is issued or enforced;

32 (g) to require the respondent to participate in a batterer's education 33 program designed to help end violent behavior, which may include referral to drug and alcohol counselling, and to pay the costs thereof if the 34 person has the means to do so, provided however that nothing contained 35 herein shall be deemed to require payment of the costs of 36 such any 37 program by the petitioner, the state or any political subdivision there-38 of; [and]

39 (h) to provide, either directly or by means of medical and health 40 insurance, for expenses incurred for medical care and treatment arising 41 from the incident or incidents forming the basis for the issuance of the 42 order[.]; AND

(i) 1. to refrain from intentionally injuring or killing, without justification, any companion animal the respondent knows to be owned, possessed, leased, kept or held by the petitioner or a minor child residing in the household.

47 2. "Companion animal", as used in this section, shall have the same 48 meaning as in subdivision five of section three hundred fifty of the 49 agriculture and markets law.

50 (j) to observe such other conditions as are necessary to further the 51 purposes of protection.

The court may also award custody of the child, during the term of the order of protection to either parent, or to an appropriate relative within the second degree. Nothing in this section gives the court power to place or board out any child or to commit a child to an institution or agency.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section eight hundred seventeen of 1 this article, where a temporary order of child support has not 2 already 3 issued, the court may in addition to the issuance of an order of been 4 protection pursuant to this section, issue an order for temporary child support in an amount sufficient to meet the needs of the child, without a showing of immediate or emergency need. The court shall make an order 5 6 7 temporary child support notwithstanding that information with for 8 respect to income and assets of the respondent may be unavailable. Where such information is available, the court may make an award for temporary 9 10 child support pursuant to the formula set forth in subdivision one of 11 section four hundred thirteen of this act. Temporary orders of support 12 issued pursuant to this article shall be deemed to have been issued pursuant to section four hundred thirteen of this act. 13

Upon making an order for temporary child support pursuant to this subdivision, the court shall advise the petitioner of the availability of child support enforcement services by the support collection unit of the local department of social services, to enforce the temporary order and to assist in securing continued child support, and shall set the support matter down for further proceedings in accordance with article four of this act.

Where the court determines that the respondent has employer-provided medical insurance, the court may further direct, as part of an order of temporary support under this subdivision, that a medical support execution be issued and served upon the respondent's employer as provided for in section fifty-two hundred forty-one of the civil practice law and rules.

27 In any proceeding in which an order of protection or temporary order 28 of protection or a warrant has been issued under this section, the clerk 29 the court shall issue to the petitioner and respondent and his counof sel and to any other person affected by the order a copy of the order of 30 protection or temporary order of protection and ensure that a 31 copy of 32 order of protection or temporary order of protection be transmitted the 33 to the local correctional facility where the individual is or will be detained, the state or local correctional facility where the individual 34 is or will be imprisoned, and the supervising probation department or 35 division of parole where the individual is under probation or parole 36 37 supervision.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, an order of protection, or temporary order of protection where applicable, may be entered against a former spouse and persons who have a child in common, regardless of whether such persons have been married or have lived together at any time, or against a member of the same family or household as defined in subdivision one of section eight hundred twelve of this article.

In addition to the foregoing provisions, the court may issue an order, pursuant to section two hundred twenty-seven-c of the real property law, authorizing the party for whose benefit any order of protection has been issued to terminate a lease or rental agreement pursuant to section two hundred twenty-seven-c of the real property law.

49 ANY MOTION TO VACATE OR MODIFY AN ORDER OF PROTECTION, INCLUDING A 50 PERMANENT ORDER OF PROTECTION, OR A TEMPORARY ORDER OF PROTECTION SHALL 51 BE MADE ON NOTICE TO THE NON-MOVING PARTY.

52 S 10. This act shall take effect immediately, provided that the amend-53 ments to the opening paragraph of subdivision 5 of section 530.12 and 54 the opening paragraph of subdivision 4 of section 530.13 of the criminal 55 procedure law made by sections one and six, respectively, of this act 56 shall be subject to the expiration and reversion of such subdivisions
