whole for the loss of pay and/or benefits resulting from the violation 1 2 the cease and desist order and the underlying unfair labor practice of 3 by providing that any agreement between the parties be given retroactive 4 effect to the date on which the unfair labor practice was found to have commenced and by providing for appropriate interest from that date, calculated using the short-term federal rate for the underpayment of 5 6 7 taxes as set out in 26 U.S.C. 6621.14, except that the make whole relief 8 provided for under this paragraph shall not be ordered when and to the 9 extent that the employee organization is also found to have refused to 10 bargain in good faith. When the board has determined that a duly recognized or certified employee organization representing public employees 11 has breached its duty of fair representation in the processing or fail-12 to process a claim alleging that a public employer has breached its 13 ure 14 agreement with such employee organization, the board may direct the 15 employee organization and the public employer to process the contract 16 claim in accordance with the parties' grievance procedure. The board in its discretion, retain jurisdiction to apportion between such 17 may, 18 employee organization and public employer any damages assessed as a 19 result of such grievance procedure. The pendency of proceedings under this paragraph shall not be used as the basis to delay or interfere with 20 21 determination of representation status pursuant to section two hundred 22 seven of this article or with collective negotiations. The board shall 23 exercise exclusive nondelegable jurisdiction of the powers granted to it 24 by this paragraph, in which connection, no finding of fact or law 25 contained in a report and recommendation of a hearing officer appointed 26 pursuant to subdivision two of section seventy-five of this chapter shall preclude the resolution of any issue of fact or law in a subse-quent proceeding held under procedures established by the board under 27 28 this paragraph; provided, however, that this sentence shall not apply to 29 30 city of New York. The board of collective bargaining established by the section eleven hundred seventy-one of the New York city charter shall 31 32 establish procedures for the prevention of improper employer and employ-33 organization practices as provided in section 12-306 of the adminisee trative code of the city of New York, provided, however, that a party 34 35 aggrieved by a final order issued by the board of collective bargaining in an improper practice proceeding may, within ten days after service of 36 37 the final order, petition the board for review thereof. Within twenty 38 days thereafter, the board, in its discretion, may assert jurisdiction to review such final order. The failure or refusal of the board to 39 40 assert jurisdiction shall not be subject to judicial review. Upon the refusal of the board to assert jurisdiction, an aggrieved party shall 41 have the right to seek review of the final order of the board of collec-42 43 tive bargaining. Such proceeding to review shall be brought within thir-44 days of the board's refusal and shall otherwise conform to the ty 45 requirements of article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules. If the board shall choose to review, it may affirm, or reverse in 46 47 in part, or modify the final order, or remand the matter for whole or 48 further proceedings, or make such other order as it may deem appropriate, provided, however, that findings by the board of collective 49 50 bargaining regarding evidentiary matters and issues of credibility 51 regarding testimony of witnesses shall be final and not subject to board 52 review.

53 S 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
