Introduced by M. of A. ROSENTHAL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the state law, in relation to designating rescue cats as the official state cat

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEM-BLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Legislative intent. Since their domestication some tens of 2 thousands of years ago, cats and their human counterparts have lived
3 happily side by side, each providing a lifetime of love, companionship
4 and loyalty to the other. Early civilizations revered the cat as sacred, 5 capable of vanquishing evil spirits. Still others cherished the cat for 6 its ability to protect property from insects and vermin. While modern 7 day cats may have lost some of their mythic stature, they certainly have 8 not lost any of their appeal. Cats have become the most popular house
9 pet in the United States, with 90 million felines living in 34% of all 10 households. There are few things as calming in this world as a curled-up 11 cat meowing peacefully in one's lap.

12 Cats offer their humans countless hours of companionship and love,
13 provide protection against loneliness and depression, and their antics 14 are oftentimes capable of bringing one to tears with laughter. All of 15 this they offer, and ask only for a loving caretaker who will provide 16 them shelter and food in return. Any cat owner will tell you that no one 17 owns a cat, but despite their fearless independence, cats need our 18 protection.

19 The ASPCA estimates that there are roughly between 60 and 100 million 20 stray or feral cats in the United States alone. Each year, an additional 21 six to eight million animals enter the shelter system. Of those, one 22 animal is euthanized every eight seconds, meaning that approximately 70%
23 of all cats that enter the shelter system are euthanized.

24 Legislation to name the "rescue cat" New York state's official state 25 cat will help educate and raise awareness about the plight of animals

1 that enter the shelter system. These animals, most of which are given up
2 through no fault of their own, are perceived as "damaged". As shelter 3 populations soar, these innocent animals face an ever-increasing risk of 4 euthanasia.

5 These deaths can be prevented through adoption. Rescue cats are 6 desperate for a second chance, and want nothing more than to become 7 loving members of the family. Designating the rescue cat as the official 8 cat of New York state will help prevent the senseless killing of thou-9 sands of cats each year by raising awareness of the overpopulation prob-10 lem and promoting adoption through education and awareness.

11 S 2. The state law is amended by adding a new section 79-a to read as 12 follows:

13 S 79-A. STATE CAT. THE RESCUE CAT SHALL BE THE OFFICIAL CAT OF THE 14 STATE OF NEW YORK. AS USED IN THIS SECTION "RESCUE CAT" SHALL MEAN A CAT
15 OF ANY BREED OR MIXTURE OF BREEDS RESCUED AND ADOPTED FROM AN ANIMAL 16 SHELTER OR RESCUE GROUP LOCATED IN THE STATE.

17 S 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
