Introduced by M. of A. BRENNAN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Cities

AN ACT to amend the New York city charter, in relation to expanding the membership of the board of standards and appeals to thirteen members

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Declaration of legislative findings and intent. Prior 1 to 2 the 1991 revision of the New York city charter and elimination of the 3 board of estimate, zoning and special permit decisions made by the board 4 of standards and appeals could be reviewed by the board of estimate, 5 comprised of city-wide elected officials including the mayor, the presiof the city council, the comptroller and the borough presidents. 6 dent 7 The effect of this review process was to ensure that the public's voice 8 was considered in this significant decision-making process. The charter 9 revision did not continue the review authority of the board of estimate 10 zoning issues and such authority was not vested in any other body of on 11 elected officials. Thus the mayor retains sole appointment powers in the membership of the board of standards and appeals. 12

This amendment to the charter adds eight additional members to the board of standards and appeals to be appointed by the other major elected officials in city government, the borough presidents, public advocate, comptroller and city council. This change introduces a necessary check on the board of standards and appeals' authority and returns the public voice to the decision-making process in the area of zoning.
