3 female-dominated, male-dominated, and other segregated titles to elimi-
4 nate wage disparities in public employment statewide. Compensation
5 relationships are equitable when the primary consideration in negotiat-

3 S 3. The president of the state civil service commission is hereby 4 directed to study and publish a report evaluating among public employers
5 the existence of wage disparities related to the job titles segregated 6 by the gender, race and/or national origin of the employees in the 7 titles. The study and report shall include, but not be limited to:

8 (i) the extent of wage disparities among job titles or position clas-9 sifications of equal value;

10 (ii) the extent of segregation of job titles or position classifica-
11 tions by gender, race and national origin;

12 (iii) the identification of segregated job titles or position classi-
13 fications that are equivalent and of comparable worth;

14 (iv) the extent of wage disparities in segregated job titles or posi-
15 tion classifications that are equivalent and of comparable worth;

16 (v) the need for adjustment of wage rates for equivalent job titles or 17 position classifications to provide compensation of comparable worth;

21 titles or position classifications that are equivalent and of comparable 22 worth.

23 S 4. Such study shall use methodologies, such as a systematic point
24 factor job evaluation system, that do not undervalue jobs or position 25 classifications that disproportionately employ women and/or racial 26 and/or national origin minorities to analyze job title or position clas-27 sification content and equivalent value.

28 S 5. The president of the commission shall use the prescribed method-29 ology to determine if there are wage disparities in segregated titles
30 based on the equivalent value of the work. The president of the commis-31 sion shall also, by January first, two thousand fourteen, submit the 32 above described published report to the speaker of the assembly, the 33 minority leader of the assembly, the temporary president of the senate,
34 the minority leader of the senate and the governor's office of employee 35 relations.

36 S 6. This act shall take effect immediately.
