3     inmates and employees of state facilities charged with the duty of care, 4     custody and control of inmates and residents. In addition to the 5     abusive and coercive nature of sexual misconduct, such behavior may also 7     pregnancies.

8     Furthermore, the legislature finds that additional rules and regu-9     lations may be necessary to reduce the risk of sexual misconduct by 10    employees of such facilities. Therefore, the legislature hereby finds 11    and declares that a temporary commission is necessary to study the prob-12    lem and recommend measures to rectify such circumstances.
13    S 2. A temporary state commission, to be known as the temporary state 14    commission on custodial sexual misconduct (hereinafter "commission"), is 15    hereby created to study the prevalence of sexual misconduct between 16    inmates in state correctional facilities, or residents placed in a 17    facility operated by the office of children and family services, and 18    employees as defined in paragraphs (e) and (g) of subdivision 3 of
