I N S E N A T E

March 2, 2011

Introduced by Sen. ALESI -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Commerce, Economic Development and Small Business

AN ACT to amend the economic development law, in relation to establishing the academic research information access act

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings. The public and private academic and
2 research libraries of New York individually license research and devel-
3 opment information resources, access to which is vitally important to
4 the furtherance of an innovation-based economy. The primary obstacles
5 limiting access to these information resources both at institutions of 6 higher education, and within the entrepreneurial community, are the high
7 cost of licensing agreements and restrictive contracts that inhibit
8 collaboration. New companies and emerging industries will be encouraged
9 to locate their business in New York state adding to state revenues that 10 are derived by the existence of such private and public sector commerce.
11 Therefore, it is in the best interests of the economic development and
12 higher education interests of this state to enact the academic research
13 information access act.

14 S 2. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the 15 "academic research information access act".

16 S 3. Section 100 of the economic development law is amended by adding 17 two new subdivisions 32-a and 32-b to read as follows:

18 32-A. TO PROMOTE EFFICIENT UTILIZATION OF STATE RESOURCES FOR THE
19 PROCUREMENT OF INFORMATION, DATA AND CONTENT RESOURCES, FOR ACADEMIC,
20 RESEARCH AND COMMERCIAL INSTITUTIONS.

21 32-B. TO SECURE AGREEMENTS WITH PUBLIC, NOT-FOR-PROFIT AND FOR-PROFIT
22 CORPORATIONS TO PROVIDE FOR THE PRODUCTIVE USE OF THE STATE RESOURCES
23 NEEDED TO ENHANCE TEACHING, LEARNING AND RESEARCH.

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[] is old law to be omitted.
