375

2011-2012 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

(PREFILED)

January 5, 2011

Introduced by Sen. MONTGOMERY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Crime Victims, Crime and Correction

AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to the restraint of pregnant female prisoners during childbirth

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 611 of the correction law, as amended by chapter 411 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:

1

2

5

7

8

9

10

11

12 13

14

15

16

17

18

19 20

21

22

1. If a woman confined in any institution as defined in paragraph [c] (C) of subdivision four of section two of [the correction law] THIS CHAPTER or local correctional facility as defined in paragraph (a) of subdivision sixteen of section two of [the correction law] THIS CHAPTER, be pregnant and about to give birth to a child, the superintendent as defined in subdivision twelve of section two of [the correction law] THIS CHAPTER or sheriff as defined in paragraph [c] (C) of subdivision sixteen of section two of [the correction law] THIS CHAPTER in charge of such institution or facility, a reasonable time before the anticipated birth of such child, shall cause such woman to be removed from such institution or facility and provided with comfortable accommodations, maintenance and medical care elsewhere, under such supervision and safeguards to prevent her escape from custody as the superintendent or sheriff or his or her designee may determine. No restraints of shall be used during transport to or from the hospital, institution or clinic where such woman receives care[; provided, however, in extraorcircumstances, where restraints are necessary to prevent such woman from injuring herself or medical or correctional personnel, woman may be cuffed by one wrist. In cases where restraints are used, the superintendent or sheriff shall make and maintain written findings

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [] is old law to be omitted.

LBD01528-01-1

S. 375

as to the reasons for such use]. No restraints of any kind shall be used when such woman is in labor, admitted to a hospital, institution or clinic for delivery, or recovering after giving birth. Any such personnel as may be necessary to supervise the woman during transport to and from and during her stay at the hospital, institution or clinic shall be provided to ensure adequate care, custody and control of the woman. The 5 6 7 superintendent or sheriff or his or her designee shall cause such woman 8 to be subject to return to such institution or local correctional facil-9 ity as soon after the birth of her child as the state of her health will 10 permit as determined by the medical professional responsible such woman. If such woman is confined in a local correctional 11 12 facility, the expense of such accommodation, maintenance and medical 13 care shall be paid by such woman or her relatives or from any available 14 funds of the local correctional facility and if not available from 15 shall be a charge upon the county, city or town in which is 16 located the court from which such inmate was committed to such local 17 correctional facility. If such woman is confined in any institution under the control of the department, the expense of such accommodation, 18 maintenance and medical care shall be paid by such woman or her rela-19 tives and if not available from such sources, such maintenance and 20 21 care shall be paid by the state. In cases where payment of such 22 accommodations, maintenance and medical care is assumed by the county, 23 city or town from which such inmate was committed the payor shall make 24 payment by issuing payment instrument in favor of the agency or individ-25 ual that provided such accommodations and services, after certification 26 has been made by the head of the institution to which the inmate was 27 legally confined, that the charges for such accommodations, maintenance 28 and medical care were necessary and are just, and that the institution 29 has no available funds for such purpose.

30 S 2. This act shall take effect immediately.