cy, or (ii) the policy, or (B) is reduced (i) in the case of a policy covering an employee or union member under a plan arranged by the insured person's employer or union, on or after the employee's or union member's attainment of age sixty in any increment or series of increments aggregating twenty percent or more of the amount of coverage in force before the first reduction on account of such age, (ii) in the case of a policy covering any member other than as described in item (i) of this subparagraph, at the time of the first reduction of insurance, (iii) due to change in class or (iv) due to an amendment of the policy to take effect immediately or at any subsequent date, such employee or such member shall be entitled to have issued to him by the insurer, without evidence of insurability, upon application made to the insurer within thirty-one days after such termination or reduction of insurance and payment of the premium applicable to the class of risk to which he belongs and to the form and amount of the policy at his then attained age, a policy of life insurance only, in any one of the forms customarily issued by such insurer, except term insurance, in an amount equal to the amount of his protection under such group insurance policy at the time of such termination or reduction, less any amount of life insurance remaining in force, except however, in the case of a reduction in accordance with item (ii) of subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, in an amount equal to eighty percent of his insurance coverage under such group policy immediately prior to such reduction. Under a group policy issued pursuant to paragraph twelve, thirteen or fourteen of subsection (b) of section four thousand two hundred sixteen of this chapter, an insured shall be entitled to convert, just as if he had terminated membership in the class or classes eligible for coverage, within thirty-one days after notice from the insurer that, in order to continue his coverage under the group policy, he must contribute more than one hundred thirty-three percent of the net premiums computed according to the Commissioners 1960 Standard Group Mortality Table at three percent interest. The group policy may contain a provision that if the policyholder or insurer shall terminate the policy, the amount of life insurance that may be converted shall in no event exceed the amount of such employee's or member's life insurance protection less any amount of life insurance for which he may be or may become eligible under any group policy issued or reinstated by the same or another insurer within forty-five days after the date of such cessation. However, at the option of such employee or member, he shall be entitled to have issued to him in accordance with the conditions prescribed above, a policy of life insurance only, in any one of such forms, preceded by term insurance for a period of one year with the premium payable, at the option of the employee or member, in any mode customarily offered by the insurer. In addition, the group policy shall contain a provision that if the coverage of an employee or member ceases because of termination of employment due to the employee's total and permanent disability or termination of membership due to the member's total and permanent disability, the employee or member, at the option of such employee or member, shall be entitled to have issued to him, a policy of life insurance only, in any one of such forms, preceded by term insurance for a period of one year with the premium payable, at the option of the employee or member, in any mode customarily offered by the insurer, in the amount of such employee's or member's life insurance protection in effect immediately before termination, less the amount of any life insurance which is replaced with the same or another insurer within forty-five days after cessation of the group life insurance protection. Each such group poli-

1 cy shall contain a further provision to the effect that upon the death
2 of any such employee or member during such thirty-one day period and 3 before any such individual policy has become effective, the amount of 4 insurance for which such employee or member was entitled to make appli-
5 cation shall be payable as a death benefit by the insurer; provided,
6 however, each such policy may contain a provision obligating the policy-7 holder to pay a premium to the insurer for coverage extended during such 8 thirty-one day period in the event the extension of coverage is a direct 9 result of the policyholder's voluntary termination of the policy and the 10 policyholder replaces coverage under the policy within six months of its 11 termination either with the insurer or with another insurer. The indi-12 vidual conversion policy may provide that any statement made by the 13 person insured under the group policy relating to his insurability under 14 such group policy may be used in contesting the validity of the insur-15 ance under the individual conversion policy to the same extent that such 16 statement could have been used in contesting the validity of his insur-17 ance under the group policy if his insurance under the group policy had 18 not ceased. An individual conversion policy shall not exclude or 19 restrict liability in the event of suicide of the insured after two 20 years from the date that the insured became covered under the group
21 policy; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT THE SUICIDE BY A POLICE OFFICER SHALL 22 NOT BE EXCLUDED OR RESTRICTED DURING THE TWO YEARS FROM THE DATE THAT 23 THE INSURED BECAME COVERED UNDER THE POLICY WHEN THE SUICIDE IS RELATED 24 TO THE STRESS OF SUCH OCCUPATION. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the 25 superintendent may require conversion or continuation of insurance under 26 conditions as set forth in a regulation for insureds under a policy
27 issued in accordance with paragraph three of subsection (b) of section 28 four thousand two hundred sixteen of this chapter.

29 S 4. Clause (D) of paragraph 1 of subsection (b) of section 4510 of 30 the insurance law is amended to read as follows:

31 (D) as a result of suicide within two years from the date of issue of 32 the certificate; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT THE SUICIDE OF A POLICE OFFICER
33 SHALL NOT BE EXCLUDED OR RESTRICTED DURING THE TWO YEARS FROM THE DATE 34 THAT THE INSURED BECAME COVERED UNDER THE POLICY WHEN THE SUICIDE IS 35 RELATED TO THE STRESS OF SUCH OCCUPATION;

36 S 5. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 37 have become a law.
