2011-2012 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

April 6, 2011

Introduced by Sen. MARTINS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Local Government

AN ACT to amend the general municipal law and the civil service law, in relation to freezing salary or wage increases of employees of the state and authorizing municipal corporations to institute such wage freezes for their employees; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Legislative findings and declarations. The legislature hereby finds and determines that real property taxes in New York state are too high, and that the burden that they place upon our citizens, homeowners and businesses, is making it difficult for New York state to thrive, prosper and succeed.

The legislature further finds and determines that the only way to realistically reduce the real property tax burden upon our citizens, homeowners and businesses, is to place a comprehensive approach in state law which controls costs and spending for local governments, and provides significant mandate relief with respect to their fiscal obligations.

The legislature also finds and determines that real property tax relief and local government mandate reform must be achieved by establishing a comprehensive approach to reduce real property taxes across the state, controlling government costs, and providing significant mandate relief to local governments.

The legislature also finds, determines and declares that a fiscal emergency exists in the state of New York. That the state's fiscal condition, and that of its municipalities, has been significantly weakened by the impact of the national economic recession. This has led to a structural imbalance between revenues and expenditures which has contributed to New York becoming one of the highest taxed states in the nation.

The legislature additionally finds, determines and declares that the state, and many of its municipalities, are in a state of fiscal crisis, and that the welfare of taxpayers in the state is seriously threatened. As a result, the state, and its municipalities, are experiencing extreme pressures to continue to provide adequate infrastructure and core services to their residents while also ensuring that taxes remain affordable.

The legislature further finds, determines and declares that a combination of enhanced budgetary discipline and short-term budgetary relief is necessary to assist the state, and its municipalities, as well as taxpayers to facilitate a return to fiscal and economic stability, while ensuring adequate funding for the provision of essential services.
