AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four and the emergency housing rent control law, in relation to the establishment of rent adjustments; and to repeal paragraph 5-a of subdivision c of section 25-511 of the administrative code of the city of New York and subdivision (a-1) of section 10 of section 4 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974, constituting the emergency tenant protection act of nineteen seventy-four, relating to vacancy leases

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "rent board reform act of 2012".

S 2. Legislative findings and declaration. The legislature hereby finds and declares that the public emergency which led to the enactment of the laws regulating residential rents and evictions continues to exist, that such emergency continues to necessitate the intervention of state and local governments in order to prevent speculative, unwarranted and abnormal increases in rents and unjust and arbitrary evictions so long as such emergency exists, without further periodic authorization by the legislature; that because of the shortage of decent, safe and available housing, market forces do not operate properly, and it is necessary therefor to prevent the exaction of unjust or unreasonable rents and rental agreements, and to forestall eviction and other disruptive practices tending to produce threats to the public health, safety and general welfare; that the general welfare depends in part on the maintenance and preservation of the existing stock of privately owned rental housing, and to assure such maintenance and preservation, responsible owners should be encouraged to own, invest in and maintain such housing without exacting unwarranted rent increases or rental agreements; that the existing laws regulating residential rents and evictions would better promote equity and serve the public interest if certain amendments were made thereto, including the restructuring of the system of promulgating general rent adjustments, repeal of the statutory vacancy bonus and the substitution of statutory tenancies for the current renewal lease system for rent stabilized housing accommodations.

The legislature therefore declares that the provisions of this act are necessary to protect the public health, safety and general welfare. The necessity in the public interest for the provisions hereinafter enacted is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination.
