- S 6. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to create any contractual right with respect to members and employees to which it applies. The provisions of this act are intended to afford members and employees the advantages of certain benefits contained in the Internal Revenue Code, and the effectiveness and existence of this act and the benefits it confers are completely contingent thereon.
- S 7. This act shall take effect at the beginning of the first payroll period following sixty days after the retirement system covered by this act shall receive an Internal Revenue Service ruling stating that employee contributions covered by this act are not includible in the gross income of the employee until distributed or made available to employee and shall remain in full force and effect only as long as such treatment of such employee contributions is authorized pursuant to provisions of the Internal Revenue Code; provided that the state comptroller shall notify the legislative bill drafting commission upon occurrence of such ruling and upon any change in the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code affecting the provisions of this act in order that the commission may maintain an accurate and timely effective data base of the official text of the laws of the state of New York in furtherance effecting the provisions of section 44 of the legislative law and section 70-b of the public officers law; provided further, however, that the amendments to subdivision f of section 517 of the retirement social security law, paragraph 26 of subsection (b) of section 612, subparagraph (B) of paragraph 2 of subsection (b) of section 671 and subsection (c) of section 1 of subsection (c) of section 1340 of the tax made by sections two, three, four and five of this act shall not affect the expiration of such provisions and shall be deemed to expire therewith.

FISCAL NOTE. -- Pursuant to Legislative Law, Section 50:

This bill would require participating employers to pick up, within the meaning of section 414(h) of the Internal Revenue Code, the 3% contributions required of Tier 5 members of the New York State and Local Police and Fire Retirement System. The pick up of contributions shall be made by a reduction in each affected member's salary by an amount equal to the member's required contributions. The picked up contributions would not be includable in the gross income for income tax purposes but shall be deemed employee salary for all other purposes.

If this bill is enacted, we anticipate that there will be small administrative costs.

This estimate, dated April 6, 2011, and intended for use only during the 2011 Legislative Session, is Fiscal Note Number 2011-164 prepared by the Actuary for the New York State and Local Police and Fire Retirement System.
