1 rule making has been submitted pursuant to subdivision one of section
2 two hundred two of this article.

3 (b) A regulatory agenda shall be comprised of: (I) a [list and] brief
4 description of THE subject matter THAT IS being considered for A rule
5 making; (II) A SCHEDULE OF THE DATES FOR PUBLIC HEARINGS, MEETINGS OR 6 OTHER OPPORTUNITIES FOR PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF SUCH 7 RULE; (III) A PROBABLE DATE OR TIME FRAME IN WHICH SUCH RULE MAY BE 8 FILED AS A PROPOSED RULE; and (IV) the name, public office, address
9 [and], telephone number AND E-MAIL ADDRESS of the agency representative, 10 knowledgeable on such regulatory agenda, from whom any information may 11 be obtained and to whom written comments may be submitted concerning 12 such regulatory agenda. [An e-mail address for requests for information
13 and submission of comments may also be included.]

14 (c) Agencies shall publish the regulatory agendas AND INFORMATION
15 RELATED TO SUCH AGENDAS on their respective websites [whenever feasi-
16 ble]. An agency that publishes its regulatory agenda on its website
17 [shall have the option of maintaining a] MAY continuously MAINTAIN AN 18 updated regulatory agenda ON SUCH WEBSITE, wherein a description of a 19 rule is added when the agency begins to consider proposing [it] SUCH A 20 RULE and is removed when the agency is no longer considering [proposing 21 it] TO PROPOSE SUCH A RULE. Such description shall identify the date on 22 which the description is first listed in the regulatory agenda and shall 23 conspicuously indicate that the description has been newly listed for a 24 period of not less than thirty days after such date. In any year that an 25 agency maintains a continuously updated regulatory agenda, it shall not 26 be required to publish a regulatory agenda in the last regular issue of 27 the state register in June. The agency shall inform the public that it 28 maintains an updated regulatory agenda on its website and shall list the 29 address of its website in a notice published with the regulatory agenda
30 such agency submits for publication in January. The secretary of state
31 shall republish this notice in the last regular issue in June.

32 (d) An agency [shall identify each rule described] in PREPARING its 33 regulatory agenda [for which a regulatory flexibility analysis or a 34 rural area flexibility analysis may be required, and] shall provide 35 outreach INFORMATION as IS appropriate to INFORM potentially affected
36 small businesses, local governments and public and [private interests]
37 ALL OTHER REGULATED PERSONS, INCLUDING THOSE LOCATED in rural areas.
38 Such outreach EFFORTS may include solicitation of input from potentially 39 affected parties through electronic means or through any of the activ-
40 ities listed in subdivision six of section two hundred two-b and subdi-
41 vision seven of section two hundred two-bb of this article.

43 dure act, as amended by chapter 253 of the laws of 2005, is amended to 44 read as follows:

45 1. Not less than once each year, every agency shall submit to the 46 secretary of state for publication in the state register a list of all 47 guidance documents on which the agency currently relies, and provide 48 information on where and how regulated parties and members of the public 49 may inspect and obtain copies of any such document[; provided, however, 50 that the department of environmental conservation shall be exempt from 51 the requirements of this subdivision]. Unless otherwise provided for by 52 law, an agency may make such documents available as provided in the 53 freedom of information law, and may charge fees pursuant to such law for 54 copies of any such document.

55 S 3. Subdivision 3 of section 202-e of the state administrative proce-
56 dure act is REPEALED.

1 S 4. Section 2 of chapter 402 of the laws of 1994, amending the state 2 administrative procedure act relating to requiring certain agencies to 3 submit regulatory agendas for publication in the state register, as 4 amended by chapter 193 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as 5 follows:

6 S 2. This act shall take effect on the first day of November next 7 succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law [and shall 8 expire and be deemed repealed on December 31, 2012, and upon such date
9 the provisions of subdivisions 1 and 2 of section 202-d of the state 10 administrative procedure act as amended by section one of this act shall 11 revert to and be read as set out in law on the date immediately preced-12 ing such effective date].

13 S 5. This act shall take effect immediately and the amendments to 14 subdivision 1 of section 202-d of the state administrative procedure 15 act, made by section one of this act, shall expire and be deemed 16 repealed 4 years after such effective date, and upon such date such 17 subdivision shall revert to and be read as set out in law on the date
18 immediately preceding such effective date.
