provision of the regulations permitting an owner to refuse to renew a lease on grounds that the owner seeks to recover possession of the housing accommodation for his own use and occupancy or for the use and occupancy of his immediate family shall require that an owner demonstrate immediate and compelling need and shall not apply where a member of the housing accommodation is sixty-two years of age or older, has been a tenant in a housing accommodation in that building for twenty years or more, or has an impairment which results from anatomical, physiological or psychological conditions, other than addiction to alcohol, gambling, or any controlled substance, which are demonstrable by medically acceptable clinical and laboratory diagnostic techniques, and which are expected to be permanent and which prevent the tenant from engaging in any substantial gainful employment.

[(a-1)] A-1. provides that, notwithstanding any provision of this act, legal regulated rent for any vacancy lease entered into after the effective date of this subdivision shall be as hereinafter set forth. The previous legal regulated rent for such housing accommodation shall be increased by [the following: (i) if the vacancy lease is for a term two years,] twenty percent of the previous legal regulated rent[; or (ii) if the vacancy lease is for a term of one year the increase shall twenty percent of the previous legal regulated rent less an amount equal to the difference between (a) the two year renewal lease guideline promulgated by the guidelines board of the county in which the housing accommodation is located applied to the previous legal regulated rent and (b) the one year renewal lease guideline promulgated by the guidelines board of the county in which the housing accommodation is located applied to the previous legal regulated rent]. In addition, if the legal regulated rent was not increased with respect to such housing accommodation by a permanent vacancy allowance within eight years prior to a vacancy lease executed on or after the effective date of this subdivision, the legal regulated rent may be further increased by an amount equal to the product resulting from multiplying such previous legal regulated rent by six-tenths of one percent and further multiplying the amount of rent increase resulting therefrom by the greater of (A) years since the imposition of the last permanent vacancy allowance, or (B) if the rent was not increased by a permanent vacancy allowance since the housing accommodation became subject to this act, the number of years that such housing accommodation has been subject to this act. Provided that if the previous legal regulated rent was less than three hundred dollars the total increase shall be as calculated above plus one hundred dollars per month. Provided, further, that if the previous legal regulated rent was at least three hundred dollars and no more than five hundred dollars in no event shall the total pursuant to this subdivision be less than one hundred dollars per month. Such increase shall be in lieu of any allowance authorized for the one or two year renewal component thereof, but shall be in addition to any other increases authorized pursuant to this act including an adjustment based upon a major capital improvement, or a substantial modification or increase of dwelling space or services, or installation of new equipment or improvements or new furniture or furnishings provided in or to the housing accommodation pursuant to section six of this act. The increase authorized in this subdivision may not be implemented more than one time in any calendar year, notwithstanding the number of vacancy leases entered into in such year.

amended by section 7 of part B of chapter 97 of the laws of 2011, are amended to read as follows:

- (4) includes provisions requiring owners to grant a one or two year vacancy or renewal lease at the option of the tenant; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT FOR VACANCY AND RENEWAL LEASES WHICH TAKE EFFECT ON OR AFTER JANUARY FIRST, TWO THOUSAND THIRTEEN, SUCH CODE SHALL REQUIRE OWNERS TO GRANT A NEW ONE YEAR VACANCY OR RENEWAL LEASE, except where a mortgage or mortgage commitment existing as of April first, nineteen hundred sixty-nine, provides that the mortgagor shall not grant a one year lease;
- (5-a) provides that, notwithstanding any provision of this chapter, the legal regulated rent for any vacancy lease entered into after the effective date of this paragraph shall be as hereinafter provided in this paragraph. The previous legal regulated rent for such housing accommodation shall be increased by [the following: (i) if the vacancy lease is for a term of two years,] twenty percent of the previous legal regulated rent[; or (ii) if the vacancy lease is for a term of one year the increase shall be twenty percent of the previous legal regulated less an amount equal to the difference between (a) the two year renewal lease guideline promulgated by the guidelines board of the city of New York applied to the previous legal regulated rent and (b) the one year renewal lease guideline promulgated by the guidelines board of the city of New York applied to the previous legal regulated rent]. In addition, if the legal regulated rent was not increased with respect to such housing accommodation by a permanent vacancy allowance within eight years prior to a vacancy lease executed on or after the effective date of this paragraph, the legal regulated rent may be further increased by amount equal to the product resulting from multiplying such previous legal regulated rent by six-tenths of one percent and further multiplythe amount of rent increase resulting therefrom by the greater of (A) the number of years since the imposition of the last permanent vacancy allowance, or (B) if the rent was not increased by a permanent vacancy allowance since the housing accommodation became subject to this chapter, the number of years that such housing accommodation has been subject to this chapter. Provided that if the previous legal regulated rent was less than three hundred dollars the total increase shall be as calculated above plus one hundred dollars per month. Provided, further, that if the previous legal regulated rent was at least three hundred dollars and no more than five hundred dollars in no event shall the total increase pursuant to this paragraph be less than one hundred dollars per month. Such increase shall be in lieu of any allowance authorized for the one or two year renewal component thereof, but shall in addition to any other increases authorized pursuant to this chapter including an adjustment based upon a major capital improvement, or a substantial modification or increase of dwelling space or services, or installation of new equipment or improvements or new furniture or furnishings provided in or to the housing accommodation pursuant to this section. The increase authorized in this paragraph may not be implemented more than one time in any calendar year, notwithstanding the number of vacancy leases entered into in such year.
- (12) permits subletting of units subject to this law pursuant to section two hundred twenty-six-b of the real property law provided that (a) the rental charged to the subtenant does not exceed the stabilized rent plus a ten percent surcharge payable to the tenant if the unit sublet was furnished with the tenant's furniture; (b) the tenant can establish that at all times he or she has maintained the unit as his or her primary residence and intends to occupy it as such at the expiration of the sublease; (c) an owner may terminate the tenancy of a tenant who 3 sublets or assigns contrary to the terms of this paragraph but no action proceeding based on the non-primary residence of a tenant may be commenced prior to the expiration date of his or her lease; (d) where an 5 6 apartment is sublet the prime tenant shall retain the right to a renewal 7 lease and the rights and status of a tenant in occupancy as they relate 8 conversion to condominium or cooperative ownership; (e) where a tenant violates the provisions of subparagraph (a) of this paragraph the 9 10 subtenant shall be entitled to damages of three times the overcharge and 11 may also be awarded attorneys fees and interest from the date of the overcharge at the rate of interest payable on a judgment pursuant to section five thousand four of the civil practice law and rules; (f) the 12 13 14 tenant may not sublet the unit for more than a total of two years, 15 including the term of the proposed sublease, out of the four-year period 16 preceding the termination date of the proposed sublease; PROVIDED, 17 THAT FOR SUBLEASES COMMENCING ON OR AFTER JANUARY FIRST, TWO THOUSAND THIRTEEN, A TENANT MAY NOT SUBLET THE UNIT FOR MORE 18 19 The provisions of this subparagraph shall only apply to subleases 20 commencing on and after July first, nineteen hundred eighty-three; 21 the purposes of this paragraph only, the term of the proposed 22 sublease may extend beyond the term of the tenant's lease. In such 23 event, such sublease shall be subject to the tenant's right to a renewal lease. The subtenant shall have no right to a renewal lease. It shall be 24 25 to refuse to consent to a sublease solely unreasonable for an owner 26 because such sublease extends beyond the tenant's lease; 27 notwithstanding the provisions of section two hundred twenty-six-b of 28 the real property law, a not-for-profit hospital shall have the right to 29 sublet any housing accommodation leased by it to its affiliated personwithout requiring the landlord's consent to any such sublease and 30 without being bound by the provisions of subparagraphs (b), (c) and (f) 31 32 this paragraph. Commencing with the effective date of this subpara-33 graph, whenever a not-for-profit hospital executes a renewal lease for a 34 housing accommodation, the legal regulated rent shall be increased by a 35 sum equal to fifteen percent of the previous lease rental for such housaccommodation, hereinafter referred to as a vacancy surcharge, 36 unless the landlord shall have received within the seven year period 37 38 prior to the commencement date of such renewal lease any vacancy increases or vacancy surcharges allocable to the said housing accommo-39 40 dation. In the event the landlord shall have received any such vacancy increases or vacancy surcharges during such seven year period, 41 vacancy surcharge shall be reduced by the amount received by any such 42 43 vacancy increase or vacancy surcharges. 44
