Introduced by Sen. LITTLE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Labor

AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to increasing the fines for employers not lawfully paying the wages of his or her employees; and to direct the commissioner of labor to issue a report on wage differential among men and women and between minorities and non-minorities

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1     Section 1. Section 197 of the labor law, as amended by chapter 564 of 2 the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:
3     S 197. Civil penalty. Any employer who fails to pay the wages of his 4 employees or shall differentiate in rate of pay because of sex, as 5 provided in this article, shall forfeit to the people of the state the 6 sum of [five hundred] ONE THOUSAND dollars for each such failure, to be 7 recovered by the commissioner in any legal action necessary, including 8 administrative action or a civil action.
9     S 2. Subdivision 1 of section 198-a of the labor law, as amended by 10 chapter 564 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:
11     1. Every employer who does not pay the wages of all of his employees 12 in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, and the officers and 13 agents of any corporation, partnership, or limited liability company who 14 knowingly permit the corporation, partnership, or limited liability 15 company to violate this chapter by failing to pay the wages of any of 16 its employees in accordance with the provisions thereof, shall be guilty
17 of a misdemeanor for the first offense and upon conviction therefor
18 shall be fined not less than [five hundred] ONE THOUSAND nor more than 19 [twenty] TWENTY-FIVE thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than 20 one year, and, in the event that any second or subsequent offense occurs
21 within [six] FIVE years of the date of conviction for a prior offense, 22 shall be guilty of a felony for the second or subsequent offense, and 23 upon conviction therefor, shall be fined not less than [five hundred]
24 ONE THOUSAND nor more than [twenty] TWENTY-FIVE thousand dollars or 25 imprisoned for not more than one year plus one day, or punished by both 26 such fine and imprisonment, for each such offense. An indictment of a

1 person or corporation operating a steam surface railroad for an offense 2 specified in this section may be found and tried in any county within 3 the state in which such railroad ran at the time of such offense.

4 S 3. The commissioner of labor, in consultation with the empire state 5 development corporation, department of civil service and other state
6 agencies, together with the business council and New York state AFL-CIO 7 and any other group or organization that the commissioner of labor may 8 consult with, shall issue or cause to be issued to the governor, tempo-9 rary president of the senate, speaker of the assembly and the respective 10 chair of the labor committee in the senate and assembly a report on or 11 before May 1, 2013 on issues relating to the wage differential between 12 men and women and between minorities and non-minorities in the same job 13 and jobs that are dissimilar but that required equivalent composites of 14 skill, welfare, responsibility and working in the New York state job 15 market. Such report shall include, but not be limited to:

16 (a) researching the trends in this area in the public and private 17 sector including labor organizations within the state;

18 (b) identifying the major issues relating to wage differential within 19 the public and private sector including cost to the state, local govern-
20 mental units and private sector businesses for compliance with wage 21 differential compliance;

22 (c) providing legislative and policy recommendations regarding wage 23 differential including sanctions and penalties;

24 (d) issues concerning the enforcement and adequacy of current state
25 laws related to such issues, including section 194 of the labor law;

26 (e) laws and policies in other states that deal with the wage differ-27 ential and with wage discrimination; and

28 (f) investigation of the relative weight of discrimination and other 29 factors that may lead to the wage differential.

30 S 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
