2013-2014 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

(PREFILED)

January 9, 2013

Introduced by M. of A. TITUS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Consumer Affairs and Protection

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to posting of alcohol consumption warning signs

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. The legislature finds that several reports have indicated that fetal alcohol syndrome (FAS), caused by the consumption of alcoholic beverages while pregnant, is the leading cause of birth defects and retardation in the United States. As many as twelve thousand infants are born each year with FAS and three times as many have alco-5 hol-related neurodevelopmental disorder (ARND). For the past thirty 7 years, the rate of pregnant women drinking heavy alcohol amounts has risen over fifty percent. Nationwide, of the four million women who get 8 9 pregnant each year, over three quarters of a million drink alcohol 10 during pregnancy. FAS, ARND, along with learning disabilities, attention 11 deficit disorder, hyperactivity, aggressiveness, and violent tendencies 12 are the most common malfunctions among alcohol-related births. They are that result in brain damage, facial abnormalities, 13 lifelong disorders growth deficiencies and central nervous system dysfunction in unborn 14 15 This illness also causes heart defects, epilepsy, liver or kidney disease, abuse and neglect. Women who drink alcohol while preg-16 nant are at high risk of having miscarriages and developing their own 17 heart problems, which could pass along to their offspring. 18

19 S 2. The public health law is amended by adding a new section 2503-a 20 to read as follows:
