Introduced by M. of A. ENGLEBRIGHT -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law and the general business law, in relation to authorizing local governments to enact local laws and ordinances which are more stringent than the New York state uniform fire prevention and building code

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEM-BLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1     Section 1. Section 379 of the executive law, as added by chapter 707
2     of the laws of 1981, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 772 of the laws
3     of 1986 and subdivision 5 as added by chapter 622 of the laws of 1986,
4     is amended to read as follows:
5     S 379. [Incorporation of higher standards by council upon recommenda-
6     tion of local government; local] LOCAL building regulations. 1. Except 7     in the case of factory manufactured homes, intended for use as one or 8     two family dwelling units or multiple dwellings of not more than two 9     stories in height, the legislative body of any local government may duly 10    enact or adopt local laws or ordinances imposing higher or more restric-11    tive standards for construction within the jurisdiction of such local 12    government than are applicable generally to such local government in the 13    uniform code. [Within thirty days of such enactment or adoption, the 14    chief executive officer, or if there be none, the chairman of the legis-15    lative body of such local government, shall so notify the council, and 16    shall petition the council for a determination of whether such local 17    laws or ordinances are more stringent than the standards for 18    construction applicable generally to such local government in the 19    uniform code. During the period in which the council is considering such 20    petition, such local laws or ordinances shall remain in full force and 21    effect.
22    2. If the council finds that such higher or more restrictive standards 23    are reasonably necessary because of special conditions prevailing within

1 the local government and that such standards conform with accepted engi-
2 neering and fire prevention practices and the purposes of this article,
3 the council shall adopt such standards, in whole or part. The council 4 shall have the power to limit the term or duration of such standards,
5 impose conditions in connection with the adoption thereof, and to termi-
6 nate such standards at such times, and in such manner as the council may 7 deem necessary, desirable or proper.

8 3.] 2. Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit any 9 municipality from adopting or enacting any building regulations relating 10 to any matter as to which the uniform fire prevention and building code 11 does not provide, but no municipality shall have the power to [super-12 sede, void, repeal or] make [more or] less restrictive any provisions of 13 this article or of rules or regulations made pursuant hereto.

14 [4. Within one hundred twenty days after the effective date of the 15 uniform code, a local government may by resolution duly enacted petition 16 the council for a determination as to whether an existing building
17 and/or fire code in force in said local government is more stringent 18 than the uniform code. During the period in which the council is consid-19 ering such petition such local code shall remain in full force and 20 effect. If, after review, the council determines that such local code is 21 less stringent than the uniform code the council shall notify the chief 22 executive officer or, if there be none, the chairman of the legislative 23 body of such local government and the uniform code shall, thirty days 24 after the date of notification, apply in such local government. If the 25 council finds that such local code is not less stringent than the 26 uniform code such local code shall continue in full force and effect 27 until the council, upon its own initiative, reviews such local code and 28 determines that it is no longer more stringent, whereupon the council 29 shall notify the chief executive officer or chairman of the legislative 30 body of such local government and thirty days after the date of notifi-31 cation the uniform code shall apply in such local government.

32 5. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section,
33 the legislative body of Nassau county may have duly enacted or adopted 34 or may duly enact or adopt local laws or ordinances imposing higher or 35 more restrictive standards for construction within the jurisdiction of 36 the county than are applicable generally to the county in the uniform 37 code. The chief executive officer, or if there be none, the chairman of 38 the legislative body of the county, shall notify the council, and shall 39 petition the council for a determination of whether such preexisting 40 local laws or ordinances, or within thirty days of such enactment or 41 adoption of such local laws or ordinances, are more stringent than the 42 standards for construction applicable generally to such county in the

46 S 2. Subdivision 2 of section 777 of the general business law, as 47 added by chapter 709 of the laws of 1988, is amended to read as follows:

48 2. "Building code" means the uniform fire prevention and building code 49 promulgated under section three hundred seventy-seven of the executive 50 law, local building code standards [approved by the uniform fire
51 prevention and building code council under] ENACTED PURSUANT TO section 52 three hundred seventy-nine of the executive law, and the building code
53 of the city of New York, as defined in title twenty-seven of the admin-
54 istrative code of the city of New York.

55 S 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
