Section 1. Legislative purpose. Animal cruelty and animal fighting are serious crimes in New York state. Because crimes against animals often involve the seizure of the victimized animals, these cases pose unique challenges to law enforcement agencies throughout this state. These challenges involve arranging for the housing and care of the animals while the criminal case is pending. Private organizations, such as shelsocieties and societies for the prevention of cruelty to ters, humane animals have traditionally assisted law enforcement agencies by providing care for these animals (which preserves the "evidence" seized in criminal matters) with little or no reimbursement.

It is imperative to the continued prosecution of animal cruelty cases that these private organizations be reimbursed for the care that they 13 provide to these victimized animals. Many private organizations declining to offer assistance in these cases because of the enormous financial burden of caring for a large number of animals for extended 15 time periods with no assurance of reimbursement for these services. If 17 there are no resources to care for the animals once they are seized, law enforcement is less likely to conduct the seizures in the first place. 19 legislature therefore intends to implement legislation that will improve the state's ability to ensure proper security and reimbursement impounding organizations providing care on behalf of the state of abused animals.

- 2. Paragraph a of subdivision 6 of section 373 of the agriculture and markets law, as amended by chapter 586 of the laws of amended to read as follows:
- a. If any animal is seized and impounded pursuant to the provisions of section, section three hundred fifty-three-d of this article or section three hundred seventy-five of this article for any violation of article, upon arraignment of charges, OR WITHIN A REASONABLE TIME THEREAFTER, the duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, humane society, pound, animal shelter or any authorized agents thereof, hereinafter referred to for the purposes of this section as the "impounding organization", may file a petition with the court requesting that the person from whom an animal is seized or the owner of animal be ordered to post a security. [The security] THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY PROSECUTING THE CHARGES MAY FILE AND OBTAIN THE REQUESTED RELIEF ON BEHALF OF THE IMPOUNDING ORGANIZATION IF REQUESTED TO DO SO BY IMPOUNDING ORGANIZATION. THE SECURITY shall be in an amount sufficient to secure payment for all reasonable expenses expected to be incurred by the impounding organization in caring and providing for the animal pending disposition of the charges. Reasonable expenses include, but not be limited to, estimated medical care and boarding of the animal for at least thirty days. The amount of the security, if any, 24 shall be determined by the court after taking into consideration all of and circumstances of the case including, but not limited to the recommendation of the impounding organization having custody and care of the seized animal and the cost of caring for the animal. If a security has been posted in accordance with this section, the impounding organization may draw from the security the actual reasonable costs to be incurred by such organization in caring for the seized animal.
  - 3. Subparagraph 1 of paragraph b of subdivision 6 of section 373 of the agriculture and markets law, as amended by chapter 256 of of 1997, is amended to read as follows:
  - (1) Upon receipt of a petition pursuant to paragraph a of this subdivision the court shall set a hearing on the petition to be conducted within ten business days of the filing of such petition. The petitioner shall serve a true copy of the petition upon the defendant and the district attorney IF THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY HAS NOT FILED THE PETITION ON BEHALF OF THE PETITIONER. The petitioner shall also serve a true copy of the petition on any interested person. For purposes of this subdivision, interested person shall mean an individual, partnership, firm, joint stock company, corporation, association, trust, estate or other legal entity who the court determines may have a pecuniary interest in the animal which is the subject of the petition. The petitioner OR THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY ACTING ON BEHALF OF THE PETITIONER, shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the person from whom the animal was seized violated a provision of this article. The court may waive for good cause shown the posting of security.
- 50 S 4. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it 51 have become a law.
