commission. Any person, the state or a public corporation applying for development in such compatible growth areas who has received all neces-3 sary local and state approvals may petition the commission for approval of the development. Within thirty days of [an] A COMPLETE application 5 being received, the commission shall provide the applicant and any other 6 interested party an opportunity to be heard. Notice of such hearing 7 shall be published in a newspaper having a general circulation in the 8 Central Pine Barrens area, and notice of such hearing shall also be given by registered mail to the chief administrative officer of each 9 10 town and village within whose boundary any proposed development 11 located. If the proposed development is consistent with the commission's interim goals and standards, the commission shall approve the develop-12 ment and may include conditions for approval. If the applicant seeks 13 14 exemption based upon a demonstration of hardship, the commission may 15 approve development in the compatible growth area upon the finding that 16 such interim goals and standards caused an unnecessary hardship. In 17 making such finding the commission shall consider the criteria for a use variance pursuant to section two hundred sixty-seven-b of the town law. 18 19 The commission must make a decision within one hundred twenty days of receipt of a complete application. If the commission fails to make a 20 21 decision within one hundred twenty days, the development shall be deemed to be approved by the commission, unless extended by mutual agreement of 22 23 the applicant and commission.

Within thirty days of the COMPLETE application being received, the commission shall provide the applicant and any other interested party an opportunity to be heard. Notice of any public hearing conducted in connection with an application for such a permit shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the Central Pine Barrens area. If the proposed development is not contrary to the policy or any provision this title and meets the standards of extraordinary hardship or public need herein, and the commission so finds, it may issue a permit allowing the development or such development subject to appropriate conditions or modifications to occur, provided that permission may be revoked by the commission if its terms are violated, and provided further that any such hardship permit issued by the commission shall be addition to, and not in lieu of, such permit or permits as may be required by any state agency or municipality within whose boundary such development is located. The time within which the commission must decide [core preservation area hardship] COMPLETE application for which a negative declaration has been made by the commission pursuant to article eight of this chapter is one hundred twenty days from receipt of application. The time within which the commission must decide a [core preservation area hardship] COMPLETE application for which a positive declaration has been made by the commission pursuant to article eight of this chapter is sixty days from issuance of a findings statement by the commission pursuant to article eight of this chapter. If the commission fails to make a decision within the aforesaid time periods, the developshall be deemed to be approved by the commission, unless extended by mutual agreement of the applicant and commission.

- S 3. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 57-0123 of the environmental conservation law, as added by chapter 145 of the laws of 1996, is amended to read as follows:
- (b) The commission must make a decision ON A COMPLETE APPLICATION within [one hundred twenty days of the receipt of a complete application] THE TIME PERIOD ESTABLISHED PURSUANT TO SUBDIVISION TEN OF SECTION 57-0121 OF THIS TITLE. If the commission fails to make a decision within
