incurred for such purposes during such periods as determined by the finance board of such municipality [and also any interest payments on revenue anticipation notes issued in anticipation of the receipt of moneys from the state or federal government pursuant to any state or federal disaster relief act], SCHOOL DISTRICT OR DISTRICT CORPORATION. In making any such determination, the finance board shall not include as a part of such extraordinary expenses the salaries and wages of regular employees, except for overtime work and work on Sundays and holidays. SUCH EXTRAORDINARY EXPENSES MAY INCLUDE ANY INTEREST PAYMENTS ON REVENUE ANTICIPATION NOTES ISSUED IN ANTICIPATION OF THE RECEIPT OF MONEYS FROM THE STATE OR FEDERAL GOVERNMENT ON ACCOUNT OF SUCH STORM PURSUANT TO ANY STATE OR FEDERAL DISASTER RELIEF ACT.

- [2. With respect to any municipality or school district which has a fiscal year which commenced in the year two thousand five on or after the first day of March in such year, the terms "extraordinary expenses for flood relief projects" and "such extraordinary expenses", as used in this section, shall mean the expense incurred for flood relief projects involving the public thoroughfares, public places and projects of such municipality or school district during such fiscal year, in excess of the amounts appropriated for such purposes in the annual budget for such fiscal year, or, if no such appropriations were made, then in excess of the average of all expenditures for such purposes during each of the five preceding fiscal years prior to the fiscal year commencing in the year two thousand five, as determined by the finance board of such municipality or school district.]
- b. The financing of [flood] STORM relief expenses by the issuance of serial bonds.
- 1. The finance board of a municipality [which has a fiscal year which commenced on the first day of January, two thousand five], SCHOOL DISTRICT OR DISTRICT CORPORATION may authorize the issuance of serial bonds [in the] ON OR BEFORE DECEMBER THIRTY-FIRST two thousand [six fiscal year] THIRTEEN to provide for the payment of all or part of the extraordinary expenses of [flood] STORM relief [incurred during any or all of the months of two thousand five], to reimburse any fund or account of the [municipality] ISSUER from which moneys to pay such extraordinary expenses have been advanced or to replenish any account of the [municipality] ISSUER from which such extraordinary expenses have been paid, or any combination of such purposes, notwith-standing that there may have been lack of statutory authority for any such advance or payment from such fund or account. The period of probable usefulness of such objects or purposes shall be five years. Any such serial bonds shall have a maximum maturity of over two years, but the date of final maturity of any such issue shall not extend beyond [the first day of March in the year two thousand eleven as to counties and towns and shall not extend beyond] the thirty-first day of December, two thousand [eleven, as to other municipalities] EIGHTEEN.
- 2. [The finance board of a municipality or school district which has a fiscal year which commenced in the year two thousand five on or after the first day of March in such year may authorize the issuance of serial bonds in the two thousand six fiscal year, or in its next succeeding fiscal year, to provide for the payment of all or part of the extraordinary expenses of flood relief incurred in the two thousand five fiscal year, to reimburse any fund or account of the municipality or school district from which moneys to pay such extraordinary expenses have been advanced or to replenish any fund or account of the municipality or school district from which such extraordinary expenses have been paid, or any combination of such purposes, notwithstanding that there may have been lack of statutory authority for any such advance or payment from such fund or account. The period of probable usefulness of such objects or purposes shall be five years. Any such serial bonds shall have a maximum maturity of over two years, but the date of final maturity of any such issue shall not extend beyond the thirty-first day of December, two thousand eleven.

- 3.] No provision of subdivision one [or two] of this paragraph shall be deemed to prohibit the issuance of serial bonds for the purpose of financing any portion of such extraordinary expenses described in such [subdivisions] SUBDIVISION which heretofore have been or hereafter shall be financed by the issuance of budget notes or for the purpose of redeeming any such notes.
- 3. Except as provided in this section, such serial bonds and any bond anticipation notes in anticipation thereof, shall be authorized, sold and issued in the manner provided by this chapter. Any bond anticipation notes issued in anticipation of such bonds shall, purpose of determining the power of the issuer to contract indebtedness and to raise taxes upon real estate, be deemed to be serial bonds of issue having a maximum maturity of more than two years as described in paragraph A of section five and in section ten of article eight state constitution and for the purposes of (1) subdivision one-a of section 136.00 of this chapter, (2) section two hundred thirty-three of the county law, (3) section 5-514 of the village law, (4) any general or special law applicable to counties, cities, villages [and], school districts OR DISTRICT CORPORATIONS which relates to the raising of taxes on real estate to provide for the payment of the interest on and the principal of indebtedness, and (5) all laws relating to the financial reports, debt statements and real estate tax margin computations of such municipalities [or], school districts OR DISTRICT CORPORATIONS. chief fiscal officer of any municipality [or], school district OR DISTRICT CORPORATION issuing or renewing such bond anticipation notes shall immediately after the issuance or renewal thereof notify the state comptroller of such issuance or renewal. The state comptroller may prescribe the form of any such notice and shall furnish such forms to municipalities [and], school districts AND DISTRICT CORPORATIONS for the purpose of making any such report.
- [5.] 4. Capital notes may not be issued to finance any object or purpose for which serial bonds are authorized to be issued pursuant to this paragraph. The provisions of this paragraph shall not affect the power of any municipality [or], school district OR DISTRICT CORPORATION described in paragraph a of this section to finance all or part of any such extraordinary expenses pursuant to the provisions of section 29.00 of this chapter and paragraph c of this section.
- [6.] 5. Section 104.10 of this chapter shall not be applicable in relation to, or as the result of, the adoption of a bond resolution authorizing the issuance of serial bonds pursuant to this paragraph. The provisions of section 10.00, paragraph a of section 21.00 and any other section of this chapter, or the provisions of any general, special or local law, which would restrict, limit or prohibit the issuance of such bonds (except those enacted to conform with the state constitution) are, to the extent that this section is utilized by a municipality [or], school district OR DISTRICT CORPORATION, suspended and made ineffective insofar as necessary to effectuate the purposes of this section.
- c. The financing of [flood] STORM relief expenses by the issuance of budget notes. 1. If any municipality or school district described in
