2013-2014 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

March 18, 2013

Introduced by M. of A. ENGLEBRIGHT -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to enact chapter 11-D of the consolidated laws, to be the cultural and heritage resources law, in relation to the preservation, enhancement and promotion of the state's cultural and heritage assets

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Legislative findings and declaration of purpose. The legislature determines that the state's cultural and heritage assets are major educational, inspirational and economic resources that should be preserved, enhanced and fully promoted. The state's cultural and heritage assets are world class destinations for visitors from around the world and should be promoted as such. Having the cultural and heritage assets spread among several state agencies and departments has been detrimental to the full utilization of these assets. Therefore, the legislature finds that streamlining and combining these assets into one agency will help each of the entities achieve its full mission for the people of the state in a more productive manner.

It is important that an integration to a single coordinated state office be effected at once. It is recognized that this change must be progressive, but expeditious. The first step is the creation of an office of cultural and heritage resources. This act presumes that additional well-considered steps will be taken to affect the overall cultural and heritage resources program envisioned.

S 2. Chapter 11-D of the consolidated laws, constituting the cultural and heritage resources law, is enacted to read as follows:

2. Definitions.

- S 1. Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "cultural and heritage resources law".
- S 2. Definitions. Whenever used in this chapter, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:
  - 1. "Board" means the cultural and heritage resources board.
  - 2. "Director" means the director of cultural and heritage resources.
- "Heritage area" means a definable urban or regional area of public and private uses ranging in size from a portion of a municipality to a regional area with a special coherence, such area being distinguished by physical and cultural resources (natural and/or man made including waterways, architecture or artifacts reflecting a period of cultural heritage) which play a vital role in the life of the community and/or region, and contribute through interpretive, educational recreational use to the public. A heritage area may include traditional parks (pleasure grounds set apart for recreation of the public) historic places or property on the national or state register of historic places, but the term heritage area shall not be deemed to mean a park historic place as those terms are used in other provisions of law including those relating to alienation of park land and regulation of public or private activities. Such other provisions of law shall continto apply to the specific parks and historic places within a heritage area. The term heritage area shall be deemed to mean and include areas that have been previously designated as urban culture parks and heritage corridors or other similar names applied to areas of special concern fitting the definition of heritage area in this subdivision.
- 4. "Historic preservation" means the study, designation, protection, restoration, rehabilitation and use of buildings, structures, historic districts, areas, and sites significant in the history, architecture, archeology or culture of this state, its communities or the nation.
  - 5. "Office" means the office of cultural and heritage resources.
- 6. "Person" means any individual, public or private corporation, political subdivision, government agency, department or bureau of the state, municipality, industry, co-partnership, association, firm, trust, estate or any other legal entity whatsoever.

TRANSFER OF FUNCTIONS; INTERIM FUNCTIONS; CODIFICATION

Section 20. Transfer of functions.

- 21. Transfer of employees.
- 22. Transfer of records.
- 23. Continuity of authority.
- 24. Completion of unfinished business.
- 25. Continuance of rules and regulations.
- 26. Terms occurring in laws, contracts and other documents.
- 27. Existing rights and remedies preserved.
- 28. Pending actions and proceedings.
- 29. Transfer of appropriations.
- 30. Codification of changes.
- S 20. Transfer of functions. All functions, powers, duties and obligations of the education department relating to the state museum, state library, state archive and state science service; of the office of parks, recreation and historic preservation relating to the state historic preservation including historic sites, the state heritage area system; of the Historic Saratoga-Washington on the Hudson Partnership; of the Hudson River Greenway; and all programs and entities in the arts and cultural affairs law shall be transferred, assigned to, assumed by and devolved upon the office.
- S 21. Transfer of employees. Upon the transfer of functions to the office pursuant to this chapter, provision shall be made for the transfer to the office of such employees of the education department, office of parks, recreation and historic preservation and state council of the arts, and other employees who are engaged in carrying out such functions as may be necessary for the exercise of the functions of the office, subject to the approval of the director of the budget. Employees so transferred shall be transferred without further examination or qualification and shall retain their respective civil service classifications and status. For the purpose of determining the employees holding permanent appointment in competitive class positions to be transferred, such employees shall be selected in each class of positions in the order of their original appointment, with due regard to the right of preference in retention of disabled and nondisabled veterans. Any such employee who at the time of such transfer, has a temporary or provisional appointment shall be transferred subject to the same right of removal, examination or termination as though such transfer had not been made. Employees holding permanent appointments in competitive class positions who are not transferred pursuant to this section shall have their names entered upon an appropriate preferred list for reinstatement pursuant to the civil service law.

- S 22. Transfer of records. The commissioners and directors of the departments, boards, commissions or other agencies, the functions, powers, duties and obligations of which are transferred by this chapter, shall deliver to the director all books, papers, records and property of such departments, boards, commissions or other agencies, and of such commissioners or directors pertaining to the functions transferred pursuant to this chapter.
- S 23. Continuity of authority. For the purpose of succession to all functions, powers, duties and obligations of departments, agencies, boards, commissions, and commissioners or directors thereof, transferred and assigned to, devolved upon and assumed by the office pursuant to this chapter, the office shall be deemed and held to constitute the continuation of such departments, commissions, boards or other agencies and not a different agency or authority.
- S 24. Completion of unfinished business. Any business or other matter undertaken or commenced by departments, commissions, boards or other agencies, or the commissioners or directors thereof, pertaining, to or connected with the functions, powers, obligations and duties transferred and assigned pursuant to this chapter, and pending on the effective date of this chapter, may be conducted and completed by the office in the same manner and under the same terms and conditions and with the same effect as if conducted and completed by such departments, commissions, boards or other agencies, or commissioners and directors thereof.
- S 25. Continuance of rules and regulations. All rules, regulations, acts, determinations and decisions of departments, commissions, boards or other agencies, and commissioners and directors thereof, pertaining to the functions transferred and assigned by this chapter to the office in force at the time of such transfer, assignment, assumption or devolution shall continue in force and effect as rules, regulations, acts, determinations and decisions of the department of environmental conservation until duly modified or repealed by the office.
- S 26. Terms occurring in laws, contracts and other documents. Whenever the departments, commissions, boards or other agencies, or commissioners and directors thereof, the functions, powers, obligations and duties of which are transferred by this chapter to the office, are referred to or designated in any law, contract or document pertaining to the functions, powers, obligations and duties hereby transferred and assigned, such reference or designation shall be deemed to refer to the office and the director as may be appropriate.
- S 27. Existing rights and remedies preserved. No existing right or remedy of any character shall be lost, impaired or affected by reason of this chapter.
- S 28. Pending actions and proceedings. No action or proceeding pending at the time this chapter takes effect, brought by or against the departments, commissions, boards or other agencies, or commissioners and directors thereof, the functions, powers, obligations and duties of which are transferred by this chapter to the office shall be affected by any provision of this chapter, but the same may be prosecuted or defended in the name of the director or office. In all such actions and proceedings, the office, upon application to the court, shall be substituted as a party.

- S 29. Transfer of appropriations. All appropriations or reappropriations made to departments, commissions, boards or other agencies for the functions and purposes transferred to the office by this chapter, or segregated pursuant to law, to the extent of remaining unexpended or unencumbered balances thereof, whether allocated or unallocated and whether obligated or unobligated, are hereby transferred to and made available for use and expenditure by the office subject to the approval of the director of the budget for the same purposes for which originally appropriated or reappropriated and shall be payable on vouchers certified or approved by the director on audit and warrant of the comptroller. Payments for liabilities for expenses of personal service, maintenance and operation incurred by such departments, commissions, boards or other agencies, in connection with the functions so transferred, shall also be made on vouchers or certificates approved by the director on audit and warrant of the comptroller.
- S 30. Codification of changes. The director shall prepare or cause to be prepared for submission to the legislature on or before January fifteenth, two thousand fifteen, a codification of the laws relating to the functions, powers and duties of the office as amended, repealed or modified by this chapter and other acts related thereto and such other measures as may be appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this chapter and such acts.
