The provisions of this subdivision shall apply only to orders of protection issued pursuant to sections two hundred forty and two hundred fifty-two of the domestic relations law, articles four, five, six [and] 3 SEVEN, eight AND TEN of the family court act and section 530.12 of this chapter, special orders of conditions issued pursuant to subpara-5 6 graph (i) or (ii) of paragraph (o) of subdivision one of section 330.20 7 this chapter insofar as they involve a victim or victims of domestic 8 violence as defined by subdivision one of section four hundred fiftynine-a of the social services law or a designated witness or witnesses 9 10 to such domestic violence, and to orders of protection issued by courts 11 of competent jurisdiction in another state, territorial or tribal jurisdiction. In determining whether reasonable cause exists to make an arrest for a violation of an order issued by a court of another state, 12 13 14 territorial or tribal jurisdiction, the officer shall consider, among 15 other factors, whether the order, if available, appears to be valid on its face or whether a record of the order exists on the statewide registry of orders of protection and warrants established pursuant to section 16 17 18 two hundred twenty-one-a of the executive law or the protection order 19 file maintained by the national crime information center; provided, however, that entry of the order of protection or special order of 20 21 conditions into the statewide registry or the national protection order file shall not be required for enforcement of the order. When a special order of conditions is in effect and a defendant or respondent has been 23 24 taken into custody pursuant to this paragraph, nothing contained in this 25 paragraph shall restrict or impair a police officer from acting pursuant 26 to section 9.41 of the mental hygiene law; or 27

(c) a misdemeanor constituting a family offense, as described in subdivision one of section 530.11 of this chapter and section eight hundred twelve of the family court act, has been committed by such person against such family or household member, unless the victim requests otherwise. The officer shall neither inquire as to whether the victim seeks an arrest of such person nor threaten the arrest person for the purpose of discouraging requests for police intervention. Notwithstanding the foregoing, when an officer has reasonable cause to believe that more than one family or household member has committed such a misdemeanor, the officer is not required to arrest each such person. such circumstances, the officer shall attempt to identify and arrest the primary physical aggressor after considering: (i) the comparative extent of any injuries inflicted by and between the parties; (ii) whethany such person is threatening or has threatened future harm against another party or another family or household member; (iii) whether such person has a prior history of domestic violence that the officer can reasonably ascertain; and (iv) whether any such person acted defensively to protect himself or herself from injury. The officer shall evaluate each complaint separately to determine who is the primary physical aggressor and shall not base the decision to arrest or not to arrest on the willingness of a person to testify or otherwise participate in a judicial proceeding.

THE PROTECTED PARTY IN WHOSE FAVOR THE ORDER OF PROTECTION OR TEMPORARY ORDER OF PROTECTION IS ISSUED MAY NOT BE HELD TO VIOLATE AN ORDER ISSUED IN HIS OR HER FAVOR NOR MAY SUCH PROTECTED PARTY BE ARRESTED FOR VIOLATING SUCH ORDER.

S 13. Subdivisions 6 and 8 of section 530.12 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 6 as amended by chapter 164 of the laws of 1989, the closing paragraph of subdivision 6 as added by chapter 222 of the laws of 1994 and subdivision 8 as amended by section 81 of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, are amended to read as follows:

An order of protection or a temporary order of protection issued pursuant to subdivision one, two, three, four or five of this section shall bear in a conspicuous manner the term "order of protection" or "temporary order of protection" as the case may be and a copy shall be filed by the clerk of the court with the sheriff's office in the county in which the complainant resides, or, if the complainant resides within a city, with the police department of such city. The absence of such language shall not affect the validity of such order. THE SHALL ALSO CONTAIN THE TEMPORARY ORDER OF PROTECTION FOLLOWING NOTICE: "THIS ORDER OF PROTECTION WILL REMAIN ΙN EFFECT MUST BE ENFORCED EVEN WHERE THE PROTECTED PARTY IN WHOSE FAVOR THE ORDER PROTECTION OR TEMPORARY ORDER OF PROTECTION IS ISSUED HAS, OR CONSENTS TO HAVE, CONTACT OR COMMUNICATION WITH THE PARTY AGAINST IS ISSUED. AN ORDER OF PROTECTION CAN ONLY BE MODIFIED OR ORDER TERMINATED BY THE COURT. THE PROTECTED PARTY CANNOT BE HELD TO THIS ORDER.". A copy of such order of protection or temporary order of protection may from time to time be filed by the clerk of the court with any other police department or sheriff's office having jurisdiction of the residence, work place, and school of anyone intended to be protected such order. A copy of the order may also be filed by the complainant at the appropriate police department or sheriff's office having jurisdiction. Any subsequent amendment or revocation of such order shall be filed in the same manner as herein provided.

Such order of protection shall plainly state the date that such order expires.

- In any proceeding in which an order of protection or temporary order of protection or a warrant has been issued under this section, the clerk of the court shall issue to the complainant and defendant and defense counsel and to any other person affected by the order a copy of the order of protection or temporary order of protection and ensure that a copy of the order of protection or temporary order of protection be transmitted to the local correctional facility where the individual is or will be detained, the state or local correctional facility where the is or will be imprisoned, and the supervising probation individual department or department of corrections and community supervision where individual is under probation or parole supervision. The presentation of a copy of such order or a warrant to any peace officer pursuant to his or her special duties or police officer shall constitute authority for him or her to arrest a person who has violated the terms of such order and bring such person before the court and, otherwise, lies within his or her power, to aid in securing the protection such order was intended to afford. THE PROTECTED PARTY IN WHOSE ORDER OF PROTECTION OR TEMPORARY ORDER OF PROTECTION IS ISSUED MAY NOT BE HELD TO VIOLATE AN ORDER ISSUED IN HIS OR HER FAVOR NOR MAY PROTECTED PARTY BE ARRESTED FOR VIOLATING SUCH ORDER.
- S 14. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to all orders of protection, except that:
- (a) the amendments to paragraph b of subdivision 3 of section 240 of the domestic relations law made by section one of this act, the amendments to subdivision 2 of section 252 of the domestic relations law made by section two of this act, the amendments to subdivision 3 of section 168 of the family court act made by section four of this act, and the amendments to subdivision 6 of section 530.12 of the criminal procedure
